Opening Address

Senator Tom Dempsey, President Pro Tem

First Regular Session, 97th General Assembly

January 9, 2013

Lt. Governor Kinder, members of the Missouri Senate, our families, friends, and fellow Missourians:

It is a privilege for me to address you today and I am honored by the trust you have placed in me by electing me to be the Pro Tem of the Missouri Senate. I am humbled to be entrusted by you with this position.

Before I begin, I want to recognize a few very important people. First, of course, is my wife Molly. As a wife and mother, you have made so many sacrifices to support our family during the past 15 years of my public service. I love you! Please stand and be recognized.

My oldest daughter Meaghan is currently in South Africa on a service project, but I am pleased to have my children, Abby and Jack, here with me today. Jack was 1, when I was first sworn into the Legislature. My mother Peggy is unable to be with us today, but my father, Ernest, and Molly's parents, Pat and Ned Talbott, are present. I would ask all of you to please stand and be recognized.

Missouri is a remarkable state and for so many families throughout our nearly 200 years of history, it has truly been the land of opportunity. In my own family, this has certainly been the case.

I am proud to have come from a line of hard-working family members who immigrated to this country in the hope of starting fresh and building a new and better life. My great-grandparents came to the New World from Italy - bringing little with them except a desire to succeed and dreams of a brighter future.

In 1954, after moving from Illinois to Missouri due to a job transfer, my grandfather, Pio Pedrucci, opened a restaurant, the Continental Café, in half of a first floor building in St. Charles. It was such a success that grandpa eventually quit his other job. In 1958, he purchased the entire building, expanded, and renamed the restaurant, Pio's Restaurant and Cocktail Lounge.

Using the knowledge of Italian cooking passed on to him by his mother, my grandmother Mary, and recipes of his own developed through countless hours of practice spent in the kitchen, grandpa made a living for his family.

Pio and Mary had two daughters. The younger, my mother Peggy, married my father in 1966 and he joined as partner in the business in 1970. And that's how an Irishman gets into the Italian restaurant business.

After semi-retiring in 1975, grandpa still came in almost every day to tinker around and make sure things were prepared to his high standards.

I said earlier that grandpa made a living for his family at the restaurant, but that is only half of the story. The truth is that grandpa made not just a living but a life for his family there in that restaurant. I guess you could say, "He built that."

This special place we call Missouri provided a setting where personal responsibility, a tireless work ethic, a useful skill, and that precious element called opportunity combined to give our family the dignity of being able to provide for ourselves and to give something back to our community.

I am proud of my family heritage and owe more than you can imagine to the lessons learned working around my grandfather and father in the kitchen, washing dishes, making pizzas, stocking shelves, and performing a thousand other tasks that I can tell you I didn't always appreciate at the time.

I believe other Missouri families are not so different from my own. They desire to succeed, to use their talents to provide for themselves and for their children. They want to do more than eke out a living – they want to make a life.

The Roman poet Virgil once said, "Fortune sides with him who dares." In this 21st Century, Missouri is poised for greatness and good fortune. If we dare to dream, to lead, to act, and to build on our remarkable uniqueness and strengths, we will move our great state forward.

Missouri is blessed with tremendous resources, a strategic location, and a population full of ability and desire to succeed.

During the 2013 Legislative session, we must focus on solutions that will promote greater economic vitality, spur employment, and grow personal incomes. Our job, our vision, our challenge, is to create B.I.G. solutions – the acronym (B-I-G) to Build our infrastructure; to Invest in education and to Grow our economy.

Geographically, Missouri is surrounded by eight neighboring states. We must realize that we are competing with our neighbors to keep, foster, and attract businesses and entrepreneurs right here in the Show-Me State. In order to grow our economy, it will be necessary to enact meaningful reforms in economic development, tax policy, and legal climate.

After four years of hard work and with little to show for it, it's time to pass a far-reaching economic development bill this year. Responsible economic development tools that respond to today's marketplace are needed. Current incentives need to be reviewed and designed to maximize their return for the state in terms of jobs, and to prevent exploitation, like the failure of Mamtek in Moberly.

We award hundreds of millions of dollars in tax credits to select groups, annually. While other areas of the budget have been pared over the past several years, these numerous programs have remained largely untouched. So, while we need new tools, we need to reduce our allocation of tax credits, as well. Let's demand that government be smaller and that we be smarter in these efforts.

Failure to do so jeopardizes our commitment to K-12 education, a first-rate higher education system, and infrastructure that prepares our state for greater economic growth.

In an age of modern technology and mobility, where companies and individuals can easily cross state boundaries, we must have a tax code that encourages investment right here at home if we are to grow.

We must work to remove barriers in order to give business owners the tools they need to succeed and make Missouri hospitable for those who wish to take the risk and start a business.

That is why one of our top priorities this year is lowering the income tax burden on hard-working Missourians.

Missouri loses around $400 million each year from sales that take place online. These taxes are collected by our “brick and mortar” businesses but not by businesses that operate over the Internet.

The time has come for Congress to pass the Marketplace Fairness Act and provide a uniform, national policy that will allow states to collect sales and use taxes on items sold to purchasers within their borders by out-of-state sellers. The removal of this exemption and others narrow in scope, will allow us to pursue broad-based tax relief.

While cutting income taxes is an important step, our legal climate also needs to be fair and structured to attract, rather than discourage investment in our state. So, another area that needs our immediate attention is the worker’s compensation system.

Last year, we made important reforms and helped make the system fairer but more needs to be accomplished. The worker’s compensation system, which was created in cooperation with business and labor interests, should return to being the sole remedy for workplace injuries.

In addition, Missouri’s Second Injury Fund is woefully underfunded. Many employees who were injured on the job, and are dependent on this system to help them meet their daily needs, have found that, even with a valid, legal judgment, the funds do not exist to pay their claims. Missouri workers deserve to know that if they are injured on the job, the resources will be in place to help provide for them. By working together, we can address these problems. I appreciate that the Senator from the 2nd, has filed this legislation as SB 1, so we can move on this quickly.

Over the last decade, we have demonstrated, year after year, in good times and in bad, that education is our #1 priority. More than ever, to prepare for today’s competitive job market and to meet employer needs for a skilled workforce, we must renew our commitment to invest in K-12 and higher education.

Tax credit reform and continued emphasis on operating more efficiently throughout state government will help us meet this objective. I appreciate the Governor’s willingness to stand with us in these endeavors. And to ensure that tax dollars are being spent wisely and equitably, we will consider the creation of a performance-based comprehensive funding formula for our state’s higher education institutions.

I support moving forward on new capital investment for research, classrooms, and vocational technology using existing state revenue, but we must first identify the savings that will provide a dedicated revenue stream for this effort and also, prioritize projects through careful analysis.

When it comes to economic growth, there is no silver bullet. The changes I have outlined thus far are part of a greater effort.

As the Gateway to the West, Missouri enjoyed a global status as a trade and cultural center in the 20th Century. We have seen a decline since then. If we are to reverse this trend, we must build and maintain our vital infrastructure.

Missouri has the seventh largest road system in the nation, larger than any of our neighboring states. A modern, well-maintained highway system is critical to our economic growth.

The worthy, federal goal of greater fuel economy, the continued development of alternative fuel vehicles, and changing driving habits are all driving down consumption and negatively impacting our ability to maintain the backbone of our economy.

Over the past decade the Missouri Department of Transportation has improved to the point that I can finally say, it’s time to develop a comprehensive, long-term plan that provides for Missouri’s transportation needs and enlist the public’s support for a new transportation funding package.

Our geographic location uniquely positions Missouri to be a hub for the movement of goods and services. We need to build and maintain our infrastructure to capitalize on this potential.

As we prepare for new investment in our transportation system and the possibility of greater funding for higher education facility improvements, it is important that we remain good stewards of public money.

This is why we need to change Missouri’s prevailing wage law. There are different costs of living, throughout the state and our policies should reflect those differences. It’s important to fix the problems which result in an artificially inflated price for taxpayer funded, construction projects.

Our task during the next 28 weeks in Jefferson City will be to focus on B.I.G. ideas for Missouri – innovative ideas and solutions that build our infrastructure; invest in our educational system and grow our state's economy - ultimately setting us apart and placing us on a path of large-scale investment and job growth across all sectors of our economy.

Today, most people refer to the restaurant, simply as "Pio's". Though my grandfather has passed way, his great grandchildren work there. Many things have changed since 1954, but what was true then, is true today.

If we capitalize on our strengths, if we work hard, together, and take this opportunity that we have been given as Senators, we can move forward to bring about a brighter, better, more prosperous future for the citizens of Missouri.

Thank you!

President Kinder assumed the Chair.

Inaugural Address of Governor Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

55th Governor of Missouri

Thank you, Judge Burlison. Thank you, President Pro Tem Dempsey and Speaker Jones.

Let me begin by thanking the people of Missouri for the privilege of serving a second term as your Governor. I am grateful and humbled that once again, you have given me the opportunity to lead our state forward.

I will honor the trust and confidence you have placed in me each and every day.

I'm joined today by Missouri's First Lady – my lovely wife, Georganne – our sons, Jeremiah and Will, and the rest of our family.

I'd like to welcome Missouri's former governors, our statewide office holders, members of the Missouri Supreme Court, legislators and the people of Missouri.

When I first came to the Capitol as a freshman senator from my hometown of De Soto, I was just 30 years old – the youngest person in the Senate.

I had the good fortune to serve with many thoughtful, dedicated and capable legislators on both sides of the aisle.

Then, as now, Republicans and Democrats were deeply committed to their beliefs.

Then, as now, we had a divided state government, with a governor of one party, and the other party holding a majority in the legislature.

Disagreement and debate were daily fare.

But it was possible to disagree, while continuing to advance the public good. Cooperation wasn't considered a sign of weakness, but rather a prerequisite for progress.

And progress is not partisan.

We understood that first and foremost, we were all Missourians.

So no matter which way the pendulum of power might swing, or which way the political winds blew, our bedrock Missouri values of hard work, optimism, faith and compassion never wavered.

Those steadfast values have served the people of our state well for generations, and will serve us well for generations to come.

Now, some pundits like to say that politics in the Show-Me State has never been more partisan, more difficult than it is today.

But as history tells us, that's simply not true.

One hundred and fifty years ago, Missouri was bitterly divided in the struggle for our nation's survival – and its soul.

For a time, Missouri had two state governments, two state capitals and two governors.

Two state flags fluttered above the boys in blue and gray, the sons of farmers and cobblers, tinkers and slaves. They fought and died on blood-soaked ground from the Bootheel to the Iowa border.

They rose with valor and fell with honor at Liberty and Lexington, Carthage and Wilson's Creek, Boonville and Fredericktown.

Our newest state park commemorates the Battle of Island Mound, where the first African-American troops shed their blood for the Union in 1862.

Centralia was the site of an infamous massacre, when confederate guerrillas bushwhacked more than 100 Union soldiers and hacked them to ribbons. Taking part in the killing spree were two young brothers from Clay County: 20-year-old Frank and 16-year-old Jesse James.

Twelve of Missouri's governors served in the military during the Civil War.

That's right: twelve.

And for years after the war's official end, the suffering, retaliation and political struggles dragged on – crippling our economy, testing our resolve.

That my friends? That was hard politics.

But from that time forward the arc of Missouri history shows us that even the deepest divisions can be healed.

The people of Missouri are tough and resilient.

And generation after generation, a bold vision for the future and a passion for progress spur us forward.

We pushed back the wilderness, tilled the prairie and opened the western frontier.

We built railroads and highways, founded great universities and hospitals, tamed mighty rivers and even conquered space.

In good times and bad, through hellish drought and high water, the people of Missouri have proved their mettle. And, as we've seen these past few years, when our backs are against the wall, we come together.

When the American auto industry was on the ropes in 2009, we pulled together and got it back on its feet. More vehicles made in Missouri means thousands of jobs for hardworking folks in every corner of our state.

In a competitive and volatile global marketplace, we stepped up our game to set all-time records for exports in agriculture, biotech and defense – deals worth billions, creating prosperity at home.

When Mother Nature hit our neighbors with ice storms, floods, drought and the most devastating tornado in our history, we rallied to their side. We were there at every step – from rescue to rebuilding. And the strength and resilience of Missourians inspired the world.

History has left its indelible mark on our landscape and our character.

But history is not destiny.

We do not inherit the future. We must build the future.

A future without limits:

Where all our children get an education that prepares them to compete for the best jobs in the global economy;

Where the brightest minds in science and technology advance the frontiers of human knowledge;

Where business and the arts flourish;

Where the bounty of Missouri's farms and fields will feed, clothe and power the planet;

And where the natural beauty of our state is preserved and cherished for all time.

I am more optimistic than ever about our future.

We will put our shared principles ahead of our small differences, and work together for the common good.

The people of Missouri deserve – and expect – no less.

And that is how I intend to lead.

Throughout my quarter century of public service, I've had the opportunity to visit with thousands of Missourians from all walks of life, in every corner of this great state.

Year after year, I've met them in the halls of this historic Capitol, exercising their First Amendment rights: midwives and math teachers; farmers and firefighters; Muslims and Mennonites; soldiers and Scouts.

They may not – and in fact do not – always agree.

But they are a vivid reminder that democracy is a chorus of many voices.

And our democracy and our state are stronger for it.

On days like this one, I can look out the windows of my office and see the flags of our state and our nation, their colors bright against the winter sky, the wide Missouri River in the distance.

It's a beautiful sight.

It is a reminder of the bold pioneers who walked this land before us, who explored the wilderness, who dedicated their lives to the creation of a more perfect union, who fought and died so that we might one day enjoy peace and prosperity.

I think, too, of the bold pioneers who someday will explore new frontiers beyond our imagining.

Today, I took a solemn oath to serve all the people of Missouri, to do everything in my power to make your lives better, and to make life better for our children and grandchildren.

I pledge my oath to the waitress pulling double shifts just to feed and clothe her kids, praying that nobody gets hurt or sick – because she can't afford a doctor's bill.

I pledge my oath to the battle-weary veteran, home from Afghanistan, who deserves a job worthy of his skills and sacrifice.

I pledge my oath to the farmer who plows and plants through flood and drought, year in and year out.

Hard working, God-fearing, decent folk.

I carry them in my heart.

Their strength gives me strength.

Their courage gives me courage.

And to live a life of service to the people of Missouri is my greatest honor.

Our time here is fleeting.

But the work we do will endure.

Together we can – and we will – build a bright future for the great state of Missouri in the greatest nation on earth.

May God almighty guide us in our work.

Thank you and God bless.

The 135th Army Band, Missouri Army National Guard, Springfield, performed “America the Beautiful”.

The Benediction was pronounced by Reverend Daniel Hilty, Senior Pastor, First United Methodist Church, Jefferson City.

The Colors were retired by the Joint Service Color Guard.

The audience remained standing and Governor Nixon and Mrs. Nixon were escorted from the platform by the Legislative Inaugural Committee.

The Joint Session of the 97th General Assembly was adjourned by President Pro Tem Dempsey. The Senators returned to the Chamber, where they were called to order by President Kinder.

The Journal for Thursday, January 10, 2013 was read and approved.

The secretary shall hold the bills and joint resolutions so deposited in the order filed. After the close of business on December first, the secretary shall assign numbers to bills and joint resolutions deposited in that office by seniority of the member first signing the measure, with a limit of three bills or joint resolutions per rotation of the seniority list from the total number of measures deposited. All measures deposited through December first shall stand as pre-filed without further action by the member or member-elect. At the close of business on each day thereafter until the opening day of the session, bills and joint resolutions received during the day shall be assigned numbers in the [same manner, that is, by seniority from the total number of measures filed each day, with a limit of three bills or joint resolutions per rotation of the seniority list] order in which the bill or joint resolution is filed with the secretary.

Once filed, bills and joint resolutions shall not be changed except to correct patent typographical, clerical or drafting errors that do not involve changes of substance, nor shall substitutions be made therefor. Any bill may be withdrawn but the number shall not be reassigned once a number has been given.

Seniority for the purposes of this rule shall be determined as follows:

On motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question, but a rejection of the motion to strike out and insert a different proposition shall not prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert. If the question in debate is a bill or a substitute thereof, a request to divide the bill or substitute shall not be in order.”.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3

Relating to recognition of September 26th as Mesothelioma Awareness Day in Missouri

WHEREAS, mesothelioma is a rare form of cancer of the smooth lining of the chest, lungs, heart, and abdomen that is difficult to detect in its early stages and may be associated with many other conditions; however, when vital organs are involved or disease is identified outside of the operative field, surgery is no longer an option and patients are referred to chemotherapy or clinical trials; and

WHEREAS, approximately 2,500 to 3,000 cases of mesothelioma are reported annually in the United States, and because it occurs in such a small number of patients, mesothelioma is often referred to as an orphan disease, but the number of affected persons is steadily rising every year in North America, Europe, Australia, and Asia; and

WHEREAS, according to the American Cancer Society, mesothelioma is caused by exposure to asbestos fibers and characterized by a latency period that usually lasts for decades, although the exact method by which asbestos causes the disease is not known; and

WHEREAS, the American Cancer Society indicates that “most people who develop mesothelioma have worked on jobs where they inhaled asbestos particles, or have been exposed to asbestos dust and fibers in other ways, such as by washing the clothes of a family member who worked with asbestos, or by home renovation using asbestos products”; and

WHEREAS, due to the long period between exposure and diagnosis, mesothelioma results in a life expectancy of four to eighteen months after onset, and nearly 3,000 persons succumb to the disease each year; and

WHEREAS, to promote public awareness of the dangers of this deadly cancer and of asbestos exposure, the need for treatment protocols, and funding for research, Mesothelioma Awareness Day was started by Meso Foundation volunteers in 2004, and September 26th was designated as the day to (i) remember the victims of mesothelioma, (ii) publicize the dangers of asbestos exposure, (iii) offer hope for those who suffer with the disease today, and (iv) focus on and highlight the need for research support and a cure for mesothelioma; and

WHEREAS, on September 26th each year, citizens across the nation are encouraged to participate in CURE MESOTHELIOMA public awareness programs and events, and to sponsor or organize fundraising campaigns in the name of MESOTHELIOMA AWARENESS; and

WHEREAS, Mesothelioma Awareness Day provides an appropriate venue to communicate an important message to the public about this deadly cancer to ensure affected persons are accurately diagnosed and treated and connected to a support system:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby designate September 26th of every year as Mesothelioma Awareness Day in Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to send properly inscribed copies of this resolution to the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.

The Joint Committee appointed to wait upon the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Richard B. Teitelman, escorted the Chief Justice to the dais where he delivered the State of the Judiciary Address to the Joint Assembly:

2013 State of the Judiciary

Chief Justice Richard B. Teitelman

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Mr. President Pro Tem, members of the General Assembly: Thank you for welcoming me here again this morning. I am humbled to stand before you today to deliver this 40th state of the judiciary address.

Before I begin, let's take a moment of silence to remember the great Stan "the Man" Musial, who not only was a great baseball player but also a humanitarian who treated everyone with graciousness and dignity.

I congratulate all of you – and especially the new legislators coming to Jefferson City for their first session – for your commitment to serving your fellow citizens. I want to offer particular congratulations to your new leaders: in the House, Speaker Tim Jones; Speaker Pro Tem Jason Smith; and Majority Floor Leader John Diehl; and in the Senate, President Pro Tem Tom Dempsey; and Majority Floor Leader Ron Richard.

I was struck by something President Pro Tem Dempsey said on the opening day of the legislative session. He observed that this remarkable state truly has been "the land of opportunity for so many." Like Sen. Dempsey, I too see Missouri as a land of opportunity, where people reach out to others and help them succeed.

I know my colleagues on the Supreme Court share my sentiments. Let me introduce success stories in their own right: Judges Mary Russell, Patty Breckenridge and Zel Fischer, all of whom practiced law in small firms in rural Missouri communities; Judge George Draper III, whose father – while serving as an assistant attorney general in the 1960s under Tom Eagleton – was refused service at restaurants here in Jefferson City; and Judge Laura Denvir Stith and our newest addition, Jefferson City native Judge Paul Wilson, both of whom learned the importance of public service at an early age from parents who were community leaders.

I remain grateful to have the opportunity to serve with such wonderful people who are so dedicated to serving the constitution and the people of Missouri.

Monday, as we celebrated the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., I thought of success stories here in Missouri. Stories like those beginning in 1920 with the election of Republican Rep. Walthall Moore and continuing through the 1960s with Sen. Theodore McNeal, Rep. DeVerne Calloway, Rep. Leon Jordan and Rep. Harold Holiday Sr.; through the 1970s with Rep. Orchid Jordan and Sen. Gwen Giles; and into the 1980s with Sen. Lee Vertis Swinton – men and women who, across generations, cast their votes in this great institution as Missouri's first black legislators.

I also thought about Lloyd Gaines and Lucile Bluford, both of whom sought in the 1930s to become students at the University of Missouri. Their struggles helped lead to opportunities. In just the past decade, the university's enrollment of African-Americans alone has increased by more than 80 percent, and now, nearly 20 percent of the university's freshmen are minorities.

Truly, opportunities for success abound in Missouri. One more recent success story is that of Alice Conway, assistant general counsel at Monsanto.

She is remarkable for her educational achievements – she earned her Ph.D. in comparative literature at the same time as she earned her law degree from Washington University in St. Louis, she is a mezzosoprano who has studied at Julliard; and she has studied not only English but also French, German, Latin and Spanish literature.

She is all the more remarkable because she did all this reading in Braille, as she has been blind since infancy. Her mother translated many of her reading materials into Braille by hand. Alice now manages commercial and employment law issues for Monsanto.

We in the judiciary are doing what we can to create more opportunities for people in Missouri to gain access to our courts. Thanks largely to grant funding, we are providing interpreters as needed in all criminal, family, domestic and juvenile cases, and we now have a dedicated language-access point of contact for every county in the state.

At the Supreme Court, we are working to provide closed-captioning services for the oral arguments we stream online, and we will be providing informational brochures in Braille and audio files for the blind.

The judiciary's educational efforts are expanding statewide. We continue to welcome thousands of your constituents as visitors touring our beautiful Supreme Court Building. And we now have more than 125 individuals – business and civic leaders, teachers, lawyers, court staff, judges and others – volunteering their time to help educate our citizens about the role Missouri's courts serve in our outstanding system of government as well as the importance of the constitution and the laws.

One example of a local community coming together to get young people excited about these important issues is Houston, Texas – Missouri, that is. Former legislator and now Associate Circuit Judge Doug Gaston has engaged local leaders and high school students together in a "Constitution Project."

Much like we all have to work together, he has worked with the local police department, sheriff's office, newspapers, radio stations, lawyers, and, of course, school administrators and teachers to provide legal experience.

During this constitution project, students from four Texas County high schools spent part of their fall semester participating in a mock criminal case. Some students investigated the crime scene and analyzed the evidence, others reported in the local newspaper and radio stations about the progress of the investigation and case, and the rest served as prosecution and defense attorneys. The project helped them see first-hand how so many facets of our constitutional system of government work together.

Winners were chosen at the school and county level and awarded scholarships. Along with Judge Gaston and some of the local leaders who made the constitution project possible, we have several of the winners here with us today: county winners Brittany Scott and Nathan Poynter, both of Houston High School; and Houston High School winner Dusti Turner. Let's recognize them for their wonderful efforts.

This constitution project has been such a success that the members of the Supreme Court Committee on Civic Education – in partnership with the Missouri Highway Patrol, the Missouri Press Association, the Missouri Broadcasters Association and The Missouri Bar – hope to bring it to other local communities, eventually having a statewide competition.

As another statewide effort, the courts continue to try to make it easier and more affordable for people to file cases. The Supreme Court, all three districts of the court of appeals, and the circuit courts in Callaway and St. Charles counties are up and running in the Missouri eFiling System, and an additional 25 county circuit courts plan to join the eFiling System this year.

Although Judge Ray Price Jr. left the Court last summer to return to private practice, his legacy remains. Thanks largely to his commitment to being "smart," and not just "tough," about the way we deal with those in the criminal justice system, we now have treatment court divisions serving all but two of our 45 judicial circuits.

With a graduation rate exceeding 50 percent, Missouri now has more than 12,000 graduates who successfully have completed treatment court programs. In addition, nearly 600 drug-free babies have been born to treatment court participants.

One drug court graduate has received national recognition: Josh Palmer of Malden was featured in a nationwide meth-prevention media campaign sponsored by the Office of National Drug Control Policy. Josh's first encounter with meth at 17 spiraled into a full-blown addiction that eventually cost him his job, his house and the trust of his family. Through the drug court program in Dunklin County, Josh was able to beat his addiction and turn his life around. He now lives with his wife and children and works as a substance abuse counselor for youth in Hayti. Josh, will you please stand and be recognized?

Missouri's treatment courts are celebrating their 20th anniversary this year. One of the reasons we have drug courts in Missouri is because of the leadership of Albert Riederer – a former court of appeals judge and three-term Jackson County prosecutor – who died Dec. 27 after a courageous battle with cancer. While he was prosecutor, Albert spearheaded the effort to fund a drug court in Kansas City that was just the second in the country. One of his partners in this effort – Jim Nunnally, former administrator of the Jackson County "COMBAT" program to help fight drug abuse and drug-related crime – was honored earlier this month for his contribution to the development of the Jackson County drug court.

We appreciate everything that people like Albert and Jim have done for their community, their state and, indeed, the nation – as Missouri has become a national leader in drug courts. It has three "mentor courts" established as educational training sites for other drug courts throughout the country. And last fall, Jackson County's family drug court received a national award of excellence for being one of just five peer learning courts.

Because it brings positive change to Missourians and their communities, this model of providing treatment to certain nonviolent criminal offenders has moved beyond just drug courts. In 2010, your legislation made Missouri one of the first states in the nation to establish DWI courts.

And we now have three regional treatment courts serving the unique needs of our military veterans. One success story is Kennedy, who served in the Army in the 1980s and who, a decade later, fell into drug and alcohol abuse, leading to multiple arrests. Kennedy graduated from the St. Louis veterans treatment court this past September and now coordinates a computer clinic to help others in that program learn basic computer skills. The treatment court was his key to freedom from addiction and crime. Let's salute Kennedy, who is here with us today.

We also want to thank you in the legislative branch and those in the executive branch for working with the judiciary during the last year to implement meaningful reforms that make sentencing for nonviolent offenders more effective and our state safer.

We too can create amazing opportunities when we strive to follow the example of cooperation among the branches of government set by civic leaders such as Albert Riederer and our own longtime Supreme Court clerk, Tom Simon, who also died late last year.

These leaders, and so many more like them in Missouri, embody Dr. Martin Luther King's belief, drawn from the words of the prophet Amos, that we should not be satisfied until "justice rolls down like water and righteousness like a mighty stream." And with students like those in Texas County embracing the ideals of justice laid out in our constitution, Missouri will be in good hands in the years to come.

I know all of us on the Court – and all of you here today – firmly believe in our state's motto – carved into the dais in this beautiful chamber – "Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law." I am humbled to serve with you.

I know you all are very busy, but if you have the opportunity, please join us now for lunch, graciously provided by The Missouri Bar, downstairs in Hearing Room 3. For those who enjoyed the knishes last year, we are bringing more this year, and it also will give you a great opportunity to meet the Bar's new executive director, Sebrina Barrett.

Thank you. And God Bless America!

On motion of Senator Richard, the Joint Session was dissolved and the Senators returned to the Chamber where they were called to order by Senator Lager.

WHEREAS, the lack of full funding has resulted in all districts receiving a cut in state funding; and

WHEREAS, the lack of full funding has resulted in hold harmless districts receiving a cut in their state funding even though statute provides that their state funding not fall below a specified level; and

WHEREAS, it is essential that the General Assembly reexamine the existing formula for funding elementary and secondary education to ensure that the state's resources are being put to the use that best benefits the citizens of Missouri and all school districts:

Senator Lamping offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, under federal Medicaid law, states are required to make disproportionate share hospital (DSH) payments to hospitals for providing health care to a vast number of low-income patients in an attempt to make up for financial losses by hospitals that do not receive payment for services rendered to uninsured patients and because Medicaid provider payment rates are far lower than those payments received by private insurance; and

WHEREAS, also under federal Medicaid law, the federal government reimburses states for a portion of the state's Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state's federal medical assistance percentage and each state receives an annual DSH allotment; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals reported providing $1.1 billion in uncompensated care to Missourians in 2011; and

WHEREAS, under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010, states are mandated to expand Medicaid eligibility for persons with incomes up to 133% of the federal poverty level; however, in June 2012, the United States Supreme Court found such mandate impermissible and now allows each state to decide whether to implement such a Medicaid expansion; and

WHEREAS, under the ACA, under the assumption at the time the law passed that all states were to implement the Medicaid expansion, the federal government is required to reduce more than $22 billion in DSH payments from 2014 to 2022; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is expected to suffer cuts to DSH hospital payments in the amount of $3.3 billion from 2013 to 2020; and

WHEREAS, the federal cuts to DSH hospital payments are set to occur regardless of whether a state has elected to implement the Medicaid expansion under the ACA - a decision the United States Supreme Court found each state has a right to pursue; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals have reported that it will be an “unsustainable situation for hospitals” to absorb more than $1 billion annually in uncompensated care while facing $3.3 billion in cuts:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the federal government to continue to reimburse states for a portion of the state’s Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state’s federal medical assistance percentage for those states that have chosen not to implement the Medicaid expansion; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Governor Nixon work with the federal government to ensure that the reduction to such DSH payments do not occur; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and Governor Jay Nixon.

WHEREAS, the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution passed the United States Senate and then the United States House of Representatives, and on March 22, 1972, the proposed Amendment to the United States Constitution was sent to the states for ratification; and

WHEREAS, the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution states:

Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the date of ratification.”; and

WHEREAS, Congress placed a deadline of June 30, 1982, on the ratification process and thirty-five states ratified the proposed Amendment before the deadline; and

WHEREAS, Congress may not have the constitutional authority to place a deadline on the ratification process; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the United States Constitution allows the General Assembly of the State of Missouri to ratify this proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the State of Missouri finds that the proposed Amendment is meaningful and needed as part of the United States Constitution and that the present political, social and economic conditions are the same as or are even more demanding today than they were when the proposed Amendment was first submitted for adoption:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby ratify the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Archivist of the United States, Washington, D.C.; the Vice President of the United States; the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives; and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation with request that it be printed in the Congressional Record.

The Joint Committee appointed to wait upon His Excellency, Governor Jay Nixon, escorted the Governor to the dais where he delivered the State of the State Address to the Joint Assembly:

2013 STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
GOVERNOR JEREMIAH W. (JAY) NIXON
JANUARY 28, 2013

Thank you, President Pro Tem Dempsey, Speaker Jones, judges of the Missouri Supreme Court, Lieutenant Governor Kinder, state officials, members of the legislature, members of my cabinet, and my fellow Missourians.

This evening it is my pleasure to be joined by Missouri's outstanding First Lady, Georganne Nixon, and our son Jeremiah.

Before I begin to lay out our state's agenda for the year, I would like to thank the people of Missouri for the privilege of serving a second term as Governor. I am grateful for your continued trust and support, and the opportunity to lead our great state forward.

Looking around this chamber tonight, I see folks with different backgrounds, different ideologies, and different interests.

But whatever our small differences may be, we are united in a common purpose: to serve all the people of Missouri.

To make their lives better, and to make life better for our children and grandchildren.

These past four years, Missouri has weathered historic challenges – from nearly double-digit unemployment to the tornado in Joplin.

But together, we met each challenge with courage and conviction, and moved our state forward.

That makes me proud to be a Missourian. That makes me more optimistic than ever about our future.

Because the people of the Show-Me State know how to work together.

And once our minds are made up, nothing can stop us.

That's who we are. That's what we do.

Some who answer the call of service put their lives at risk to protect the lives of others.

They serve here at home whenever danger and disaster threaten. They serve in perilous outposts in every corner of the globe, to defend our freedom and liberty.

We call them heroes. They make us proud.

Last December, I again had the opportunity to visit our troops in Afghanistan and Kuwait.

One of them is with us tonight.

Sergeant Joseph Schicker served with the Guard's Agribusiness Development Team in Afghanistan. Just hours after his team arrived at their base, Taliban insurgents attacked.

In successfully repelling the attack, several Missouri Guardsmen, including Sergeant Schicker, were wounded. For his part in the battle, Sergeant Schicker received the Combat Infantry Badge and the Army Commendation Medal with Valor.

I personally had the honor of pinning Sergeant Schicker with the Purple Heart during the ADT's welcome home ceremony in September.

Sergeant Schicker, you represent every man and every woman who has ever fought to defend our great nation, in every era and on every field of battle.

Will you please stand, with all the members of our military past and present, and accept the heartfelt gratitude of your state.

In the last four years, we've overcome our share of challenges.

Missouri was hit by unprecedented natural disasters.

We came together to help our neighbors hit hard by twisters and ice storms, floods and drought.

In the grip of an historic recession, we did what every family in Missouri did: we tightened our belts and cut spending.

Together, we balanced the budget while holding the line on taxes.

We dramatically reduced the size of state government, while making it more efficient.

We protected our spotless Triple-A credit rating.

And unlike most states, we did it without reaching into taxpayers' wallets, or putting it on the credit card.

And you know what?

It worked.

And as a result, our economy is moving forward.

Last year, Missouri employers added more than 40,000 new jobs.

We're exporting more goods than ever before...Training more workers than ever before...And bringing Missouri's auto industry back to life.

Two weeks ago – on the day after my inauguration – I went back to Detroit to meet with auto suppliers and manufacturers.

We got our first good look at the Ford Transit, one of the fantastic new vehicles we're going to build right here in the Show-Me State.

A top Ford exec said that if we hadn't come together during that special session two years ago, the Claycomo plant would have closed.

That would have put those 4,000 workers out of a job, and pushed Missouri's auto industry to the brink.

Instead?

Automakers are investing more than $1.5 billion in Missouri, creating thousands of jobs at the Ford plant in Claycomo, the GM plant in Wentzville, and suppliers in every corner of our state.

By coming together in that special session, we saved Missouri's auto industry.

So when the skeptics say that nothing gets done in this building, or when the press writes that the two parties can't come together, think of those workers and their families.

And remember that what we do here really matters.

And that same spirit is needed now more than ever, to keep Missouri moving forward.

Together, we've kept our fiscal discipline, and our economy is gaining ground.

We now have a unique opportunity to build a better future for our children.

We must seize it.

And nothing will have a greater impact on our children's future than the commitment we make now to their education.

So in my budget, we increase funding for education.

And we increase it by $150 million.

- That's $17 million more for early childhood education.
- That's $34 million more for higher education;
- And that's $100 million more for our K-12 classrooms.

Our children are our first priority.

They are Missouri's future.

Of course, with increased funding, come higher expectations.

We expect better test scores, better graduation rates, more college degrees and more Missourians ready to compete for the best jobs in a global economy.

We've all got to do better, and that means everybody: students and teachers; parents and principals; coaches and college presidents.

Increased funding means increased accountability.

We know the early years of a child's life are critical.

Over the past few weeks I've visited preschool classrooms in Greenville, Nixa, Parkway and St. Joseph – local communities committed to giving their kids a strong foundation for lifelong learning.

And the first official business of my second term was to meet with leaders in preschool education. We discussed ways to ensure that every young child comes to school ready to learn, and ready to succeed.

The clear consensus: early childhood education is a smart investment, with a big return.

We want every child, in every Missouri community – no matter their family's circumstances – to get the best possible start.

That is why, with an increase of $17 million, we'll more than double funding for our Missouri Preschool Program, and put more money into programs like Early Head Start.

Tonight, we are fortunate to be joined by the St. Louis Pre-School Teacher of the Year, Linda Smith, of Dewey International School.

Joining her is St. Louis Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kelvin Adams.

Under Dr. Adams' strong leadership, the St. Louis schools have made steady progress over the past five years, as they work to earn full accreditation.

That kind of progress is only possible when everyone pulls together toward a shared goal.

Mrs. Smith and Dr. Adams, please stand. Thank you for the lifelong commitment you've made to our children.

In the past four years, our schools have made steady gains.

Math scores are up.

Reading scores are up.

And I'm proud to report that Missouri's high school graduation rate is now the seventh-highest in the nation.

But we must commit to even higher goals.

That's why my budget includes $100 million in new funding for our K-12 classrooms.

We'll use it to train more teachers, modernize equipment, and lengthen the school year.

Right now, Missouri has the fourth-shortest school year in the nation.

Adding six more days to the next school year will give teachers more time to work with their students, and give kids more time to learn.

But we won't stop at K-12.

This year, we'll help even more Missouri families afford college.

That's been a top priority of mine since Day One.

On my watch, we led the nation in holding down the cost of tuition.

But the cost of college is still out of reach for too many Missouri families. And too many students who do attend college graduate with crushing debt.

That's why my budget includes more than $75 million for our Access and Bright Flight scholarships.

And it increases funding for our A+ scholarships, which cover tuition and fees at all our public community colleges.

To qualify for an A+ scholarship, high school students must keep their grades up, have excellent attendance, and stay out of trouble.

Since I've been Governor, we've expanded the A+ program to 150 more schools.

But there are still schools that aren't part of the A+ program, so their students can't even apply for A+ scholarships.

That's unfair to these kids, and we're going to fix it.

This is the year we will expand our A+ scholarship program to every public high school in the state, so that every qualified student in this state has the opportunity to go to community college – tuition free.

The dream of a college education should be within reach for all Missouri families.

Because education is the best economic development tool there is.

While our colleges and universities are doing a great job, and graduating more students than ever before, we're also holding these schools to higher standards than ever before.

Two years ago, I convened a summit to lay out my agenda for higher education.

I challenged the leaders of all our public two- and four-year institutions to develop a new funding model – based on performance.

And that's what we did.

My budget includes an increase of $34 million for higher education.

But instead of funding schools based merely on what they've received in the past, we'll tie new funding to specific performance goals – like increased student retention, higher graduation rates and improved learning.

We will achieve higher academic goals – with greater accountability.

Now, we've made it our mission to help more high school students graduate, go to college, complete their degrees and enter the workforce.

That's the traditional path. And I'm glad more students are taking it.

But there are nearly 750,000 Missourians who started college but never completed their degrees. They left school, got jobs, started families, moved on with their lives.

At this point, some of these folks may feel that going back to college is too expensive, or too hard to juggle with work and raising kids.

I want to change that and help these adult students finish the degrees they started years ago, so they can get better jobs and meet their full earning potential.

This year, we'll do more to help these adult students finish their degrees online, from an accredited university that's putting down new roots in Missouri.

Let me tell you about its history.

In 1995, 19 governors came together to provide a realistic option to help adult students complete their degrees at an affordable price.

They founded Western Governors University, a nonprofit institution that offers bachelors and masters degrees in four areas Missouri's employers are looking for: business, health care, teacher preparation and information technology.

It's designed to meet the needs of real people with real lives. You can take your tests after work, on weekends or at night, after the kids are asleep.

Instead of paying tuition by the credit hour, students can take as much coursework as they want for a flat rate. And how quickly you earn your degree depends on how quickly you master the subject matter: you advance at your own pace.

The point is that with today's technology, we can make it easier than ever for folks to finish their degrees without disrupting their lives, and help them move up the economic ladder.

In the past three years, Indiana Governor Mitch Daniels, and the states of Texas and Washington have established WGU in their states.

And starting this year, we will begin enrolling students at WGU-Missouri.

We'll be helping Missourians who never finished college, who are underemployed and who need degrees to move up, reach their full potential.

Now that's a mission we can all get behind.

Throughout state government, we've applied business principles to make the most efficient use of taxpayer dollars.

Cutting waste. Doing more with less. Making better use of technology.

And as a result, the state workforce is now the smallest it has been in 19 years.

From the time I became Governor to the end of Fiscal Year 2014, we will have reduced the size of state government by 4,500 positions, and cut $1.8 billion in state spending.

We've sharply cut energy use, sold off surplus property and reduced leased space.

We've put more state services online – from license plates to child support.

And in addition to applying business principles to make state government more efficient, we must use those same principles to make government more business friendly.

Now, Missouri's already rated one of the Top-Ten best states to do business, because of things like our low tax rates, low workers comp rates, low energy costs and strong workforce.

But talk to small business owners and they'll tell you: there's still too much red tape. Too many bureaucratic hurdles.

We hear those concerns, and we're doing something about it.

First, we need to streamline Missouri's economic incentive programs – and there are a lot of them – so that they're easier to use and understand.

Second, we need to simplify our convoluted environmental permitting process.

Currently, business owners have to go to as many as six commissions at the Department of Natural Resources to get permits. And that's before they turn the first shovel of dirt.

We need to consolidate those commissions into one, to help businesses grow and create jobs.

And while we're at it, I propose that we eliminate another ten commissions at DNR that are redundant and unnecessary.

We can take common-sense steps to cut red tape for businesses – without backing off our commitment to protecting our air, land and water.

We also must address the Second Injury Fund.

This year, let's work together and solve this issue for the benefit of Missouri workers and employers.

In a highly competitive global economy, employers need access to a highly skilled, well-trained workforce.

That's why I've made it a top priority to give Missouri workers the skills they need to compete for the jobs of tomorrow.

Since I've been in office, we've dramatically increased our investment in worker training, helping 150,000 Missouri workers sharpen their skills and get better jobs in their field.

So once again, my budget increases funding for workforce training that's custom-tailored to the needs of Missouri employers.

Investing in Missouri workers' skills – that's real economic development.

But job training doesn't just happen in the classroom or on the work site.

Some of Missouri's best workers got their training serving us in the armed forces.

Helping our veterans get work when they come home is not only honorable and patriotic, it's good for Missouri businesses.

If you're looking for an employee who shows up early, stays late, works hard all day and knows how to overcome adversity – hire a veteran.

In 2010, we launched Show-Me Heroes. We've asked every employer in the state to reach out, recruit and interview veterans first for new job openings.

I'd like to thank all the legislators in this room who helped us strengthen this program by adding job training, so our veterans can re-enter the civilian workforce quickly and be even more successful on the job.

More than 2,700 employers have signed the Show-Me Heroes pledge, putting more than 4,000 of our proud Missouri veterans to work.

And tonight, again, I call on every Missouri business to go to our website – MO.gov – and take the Show-Me Heroes pledge.

Because it's not enough to honor and support our service members abroad.

We must honor and support them at home, with jobs that are worthy of their skills and work ethic.

For the third straight year, I am proud to report that we are shipping more Missouri goods around the world than ever before.

Missouri exports hit record levels in 2010, and topped the $14 billion mark with double-digit growth in 2011.

And we're on track to break records again.

That's because we're taking a pro-active approach.

In October of 2011, I led a group of Missouri business leaders on a highly successful trade mission to China. We secured agreements to sell $4.6 billion in Missouri goods.

In April of 2012, we went to Brazil, and signed our first-ever trade agreement with the state of Sao Paulo, the financial capital of one of the world's fastest-growing economies.

And this coming March, I will lead a trade mission to South Korea and Taiwan.

We're making this a priority because it's critical for every business in the state – no matter how small – to think globally.

Because companies that once only did business with customers around the corner are finding new customers around the world.

And when we sell more Missouri products overseas, we're creating more jobs here at home.

That's why my budget includes $2.3 million to enter new markets, expand foreign trade, and help Missouri businesses develop a world-wide customer base.

One of our export superstars comes from one of Missouri's oldest family-owned businesses, Volpi Foods in St. Louis. Next time you are in St. Louis, stop by their shop on The Hill.

Volpi is a prime example of a traditional business that with visionary new leadership has broken the mold. With the help of our departments of Agriculture and Economic Development, Volpi has doubled its exports in growing markets like Japan, South Korea, Taiwan and Costa Rica. Please welcome the CEO of Volpi Foods, Lorenza Pasetti.

There's no doubt that Missouri is ready to meet the challenges of a global economy.

But quite frankly, the biggest economic decision facing our state right now is how to move forward on health care.

This isn't the time to re-open the debate or reargue the merits of the President's health care plan. I had some problems with it, and I know many of you did as well.

But Congress passed it – the President signed it – and the Supreme Court upheld it.

It's the law of the land. And it's not within our power to rewrite federal laws, even if we wanted to.

It is within our power – it's our responsibility – to now do what's right for Missouri.

And the question before us is a narrow one.

Will we bring the tax-dollars that Missourians send to Washington back home to strengthen our Medicaid system here in Missouri?

Or will we let the tax dollars that Missourians send to Washington be spent in other states instead?

Other states would get the benefits, and we'd get the bill.

The answer is clear: the people of Missouri deserve to see their tax-dollars come back to their communities.

Friends, let's put the politics of health care aside for just a moment and look at this as a business decision for the state of Missouri.

The Missouri Chamber of Commerce supports the Medicaid expansion – not because they're big supporters of this President and his agenda – but because it's the smart thing to do.

They know that bringing billions of dollars back to Missouri is good for our state's economy.

The Kansas City Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the Medicaid expansion. So have the chambers in Independence, Springfield, Lee's Summit and St. Louis.

So have the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City, Kirksville REDI, and our friends at the Associated Industries of Missouri.

Would the leaders from these business organizations who have joined us tonight because of the importance of this issue please stand?

Thank you for your leadership on this critical issue.

For these business leaders, this is not a political decision. It's an economic one. And we shouldn't let last year's politics get in the way of next year's economic growth.

Moving forward with this plan will bring a total of $5.7 billion to Missouri for the first three calendar years – at no additional cost to the state.

The University of Missouri estimates this will generate an additional 24,000 jobs – and that's just in 2014.

We're talking about good jobs – for nurses, doctors, pharmacists, therapists and medical technicians.

Strengthening Medicaid will strengthen our economy.

Without question, it's the smart thing to do.

Now I know there are some who have voiced concern that Washington will not live up to its commitment.

Let me address that directly: I support including a provision that rolls back the Medicaid expansion if Washington doesn't honor its financial commitment.

And there's a human element to this that can't be ignored.

A stronger Medicaid system will make health care available to 300,000 of our friends and neighbors.

Let's be clear about who these people are.

They're working Missourians – folks who work day and night, but simply can't afford health coverage.

These are not people who aren't trying, or hoping to game the system.

They're folks we see every day – some holding down two jobs just to make ends meet.

We're talking about a family of four, with a household income of roughly $32,000 a year.

They wait tables and clean office buildings. They cut hair and trim trees. They work in factories, and repair cars and trucks.

Making it easier for these hardworking Missourians to get basic health insurance is the right thing to do.

And because these folks can't afford doctors' bills or insurance, they often end up in our hospital emergency rooms, because it's the only option for their family.

In their shoes, you'd probably do the same thing.

It's a terrible way to deliver health care.

It drives up premiums for people who do have health insurance.

That must change.

I'm well aware this is a tough issue politically.

But across the country, we're seeing Governors and state legislators put politics aside to do what's undeniably best for their states.

Republican Governors in places like Arizona, North Dakota, New Mexico and Nevada are using federal funds to strengthen their Medicaid systems.

Not because it's the easy thing for them to do politically, but because it's the right thing to do.

Here in Missouri, we must make the smart business decision.

The right human decision.

And bring the tax dollars we send to Washington back to work here in Missouri.

On another health care front, in recent years we have seen the tragic consequences when people with serious mental illness don't get the help they need.

Right now, many people with severe mental illness only get treatment when they reach a crisis point. That's too late.

My budget includes $10 million to help those with mental illness get timely, effective treatment in their own communities.

That money will be used to:

- Provide more services in our community mental health centers;
- Increase mental health first-aid training for professionals so they can recognize the early warning signs of mental illness.
- Train law enforcement in mental health crisis-intervention;
- And teach families how to care for loved ones who suffer from severe mental illness.

We must do everything in our power to get folks the treatment they need, before it's too late.

Each day in our state and across the country, tragedies occur that don't make headlines, and often don't get reported at all. I am talking about domestic violence.

Last year, our network of shelters for victims of domestic violence provided safe haven for thousands of women and children. But thousands of others were turned away because the shelters were full.

We know that battered women are at greatest risk when they make the courageous decision to leave an abusive partner. Finding shelter can literally make the difference between life and death for these women and for their children.

That is why my budget includes a 29 percent increase in funds to provide more beds, more treatment, more safety at domestic violence shelters throughout our state.

No child – no mother – who has been the victim of domestic violence should ever be turned away and left to fend for themselves during these moments of crisis.

These past four years, we have opened new doors for thousands of Missourians with disabilities.

I'm passionate about this work, as I know many of you in this room are as well.

Together, we passed landmark legislation in 2010 to ensure that children with autism get the medical care they need.

Issues like this transcend politics.

And now thousands of youngsters are getting the therapy that, just a couple years ago, their families couldn't afford.

We will keep moving forward by funding training for more therapists to help even more children with autism lead happier, healthier lives.

In October of 2010, we started the Partnership for Hope.

And it's already helped thousands of people with developmental disabilities live fuller lives.

My budget includes funds to expand this vital program to 1,000 more Missourians, some of whom have spent years waiting for services.

By the end of 2014, we'll be serving more than 3,500 people with developmental disabilities.

Missourians like Vishal Patel. Vishal is 23. He has a rare form of cerebral palsy, and gets around in a motorized wheelchair.

For years Vishal had to crawl, or have his parents carry him upstairs in their home, to take a shower.

The Partnership for Hope provided Vishal with a stair lift, a roll-in shower, a permanent ramp and the physical therapy he needs.

But as he told me in a letter, his real dream was to get a real job – with a real paycheck.

The Partnership arranged for him to volunteer every Friday at a movie theater in St. Peters. And Vishal did so well, that just before Christmas they offered him that real job, with a real paycheck. His first day was January 4th.

Vishal represents the many Missourians with disabilities who are now entering the workforce, thanks to the Partnership for Hope and the enlightened business owners who recognize the value of these outstanding workers.

Vishal is here tonight with his job coach, Pam Westhoff, and Peg Capo, who runs the program in St. Charles County.

Please welcome the newest member of Missouri's workforce, Vishal Patel.

At the start of my speech, I spoke about unique opportunities, and the importance of seizing them.

With our perfect Triple-A credit rating intact and interest rates at all-time lows, we now have a unique opportunity to move forward with a bond issuance.

It would allow us to modernize our K-12 classrooms and college research labs, mental hospitals and state parks. Some of our state's most important buildings need long-overdue improvements, including this one.

Interest rates today are about half of what they were in 1995 when Governor Carnahan issued bonds, and about a third of what they were when Governor Bond did the same in 1983, when interest rates were more than 8 percent.

But the bond issue must be focused on our state's most pressing needs. And we must have a way to pay for it.

When we talk about our state's long-term needs, nothing is more important than our schools.

A bond issuance will allow the state to establish a permanent, low-interest loan fund dedicated to improving our local schools.

Which is why I am proposing the creation of the BOOST Fund. BOOST stands for Building Opportunities in Our Schools Today.

Because, folks, let's not kid ourselves. If we want our children to get a first-rate education and compete in a 21st Century global economy, they'll need first-rate, 21st Century facilities: state-of-the-art computers and science labs, libraries and wired classrooms.

The BOOST Fund will go to work in your communities, in schools in every corner of Missouri.

In addition, a targeted bond issuance will provide funds for cutting-edge university research facilities in areas critical to our competitiveness, such as engineering, math, and science.

Bond proceeds will also allow us to build a new and improved Fulton State Mental Hospital. We have a moral responsibility to these patients and their caregivers to provide the best possible environment: one that is safe, secure and conducive to healing.

Bonds will also pay to upgrade accommodations in our state parks. It's an investment that will have a big impact on tourism.

And tourism is big business in Missouri.

Last year, Missouri welcomed 36 million visitors, pumping nearly $11 billion into our state's economy. But we can even do better.

Updating our cabins and lodges, and building brand-new, top-of-the-line facilities at our most popular parks will create jobs, help our economy, and make our parks an even bigger draw.

Our 87 state parks and historic sites are a priceless legacy that belongs to all of us. Hunting, fishing, hiking and camping are part of our Missouri way of life.

Investing in Missouri's state parks today will help preserve our outdoor heritage for our grandchildren, and their grandchildren.

As I said before, we can only move forward with a bond issuance if we have a way to pay for it.

Saying "we'll figure it out later" won't work. That's not how we became a Triple-A state.

The way to pay for the bond issuance is to finally get our tax credit system under control.

We've worked on reining in tax credits for years. In 2010, I appointed a statewide, bipartisan, tax credit commission to study the issue.

That commission tapped the expertise of Missouri leaders in business, education, labor and government.

They recommended a series of pragmatic, fiscally responsible reforms to rein in tax credit expenditures and ensure these programs provide a strong return on taxpayers' investment.

But two years later, these reforms have yet to pass, and the costs of inaction continue to grow.

Last year tax credit redemptions grew to a staggering $629 million – one-twelfth of our entire general revenue budget. That's not fiscally responsible.

This is the year to get comprehensive, fiscally responsible tax credit reform legislation to my desk, and get smart, strategic investments in our state moving forward.

But all of the ideas and proposals I outlined tonight mean very little if the people of Missouri lose faith in the system.

Missouri's ethics laws are among the weakest in the nation.

Every year as Governor, I've put forward my agenda for ethics reform, and I know many of you have made genuine efforts to pass legislation. The list of reforms we must implement is long.

Everything from curbing committee-to-committee transfers to banning office holders from doubling as paid political consultants to finally closing the revolving door between the legislature and lobbyists. All things we must do.

But above all, the single most destructive force to our system is the unlimited sums of money pouring into the campaign accounts of candidates seeking public office.

We must institute – we must re-institute – strict campaign contribution limits.

Each time a wealthy individual or business or special interest sends a check for $20,000 or $50,000 or $100,000 to a candidate, the public's trust erodes a little bit more. And eventually, if we continue on this path, there will be no trust left at all.

I've led the fight for campaign contribution limits for many years.

As Attorney General, I stood before the U.S. Supreme Court and successfully argued in support of Missouri's contribution limits. And as Governor, I stood before you every year and made the case for them.

This year, if the Legislature does not send a campaign contribution limit bill to my desk, I will do everything in my power to get it on the ballot and make sure it passes.

The people of Missouri have voiced their opinion on this matter already at the ballot box and their support for contribution limits was overwhelming. We all know it would pass once again.

Let's work together and get it done this session. The era of unlimited contributions to candidates must end.

These past four years, we've been faced with some historic challenges.

And by working together, we've tackled them head-on ...and made great strides in the Show-Me State.

We've kept our fiscal discipline, balanced the budget and put strict cost controls in place throughout state government.

And as a result, our economy is making solid, steady progress. The signs are everywhere.

Businesses large and small are hiring again.

Missouri's unemployment rate has been lower than the national average for 40 consecutive months.

New building permits are up. Personal income is up, and wages are up.

And now we are in a position to make smart, long-term investments that will boost our children's academic achievement, protect Missourians' health, strengthen our workforce, improve our quality of life and create prosperity for generations to come.

We have unique opportunities before us. Now is the time to seize them.

Just two weeks ago, I stood at the steps of this Capitol, and spoke of my vision for the future of our beloved state:

A future where all our children get an education that prepares them to compete for the best jobs in the global economy;

Where the brightest minds in science and technology advance the frontiers of human knowledge;

Where business and the arts flourish;

Where the bounty of Missouri's farms and fields will feed, clothe and power the planet;

And where the natural beauty of our state is preserved and cherished for all time.

That future is ours to build. And we can only do it by working together.

When I first came to the Capitol in 1987, I was the youngest person in the Senate.

I had a lot to learn. And I was fortunate to serve with many dedicated and capable legislators on both sides of the aisle. They showed me what public service is and what it requires of each of us.

Republicans and Democrats didn't agree on everything back then, just like they don't now.

We had a divided state government, with a Governor of one party, and the other party holding a large majority in the legislature – just like we do now.

But we worked together to get things done for the good of the people.

I've been in public service for a long time. More than a quarter of a century.

And in those many years, my faith in the people of Missouri has never faltered.

My faith in our bedrock values has never wavered.

And I have always been mindful of, and inspired by, the words inscribed on the Great Seal of Missouri, on our flag and in these marble halls:

“Let the Good of the People Be the Supreme Law.”

This is our call to action, our common oath and rallying cry.

This is our sworn duty.

Ours is a sacred calling.

Our time is short.

Let every action we take in these halls and in the offices of government be guided by that supreme law: the good of the people.

Now let us seek God’s everlasting grace and protection to finish the good works He has entrusted to our care.

God bless Missouri.

And God bless the United States of America.

Thank you.

On motion of Senator Richard, the Joint Session was dissolved and the Senators returned to the Chamber where they were called to order by Senator Kehoe.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

“Wisdom consists in doing the next thing you have to do; doing it with your whole heart and finding delight in doing it.” (Meister Eckart)

Gracious God, as we rush through this day, may we put our total selves into what must be done so it may not have to be redone. Help us, therefore, to be mindful of the small things, such as small acts of kindness and courtesy, caring and shared joy. Help us embrace all that is about us completely being present with all we encounter. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Pearce offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the United States relies - and will continue to rely for many years - on gasoline, diesel, and jet fuel, as well as renewable and alternative sources of energy; and

WHEREAS, in order to fuel our economy, the United States will need more oil and natural gas while also requiring additional alternative energy sources; and

WHEREAS, the United States accounts for 20 percent of world energy consumption and is the world's largest petroleum consumer. The U.S. consumes more than 15 million barrels of oil each day-forecasts suggest this will not change for decades. Current imports amount to over eight million barrels each day, approximately 50 percent of the United States' requirements; and

WHEREAS, even with new technology, oil discoveries, alternative fuels and conservation efforts, the U.S. will remain dependent on imported energy for decades to come. A secure supply of crude oil is not only needed for Americans to continue to heat their homes, cook their food and drive their vehicles, but to allow the U.S. economy to thrive and grow free from the potential threats and disruptions of crude oil supply from less secure parts of the world; and

WHEREAS, the growing production of conflict-free oil from Canada's oil sands and the Bakken formation in Saskatchewan, Montana, North Dakota, and South Dakota can replace crude imported from countries that do not share American values, additional pipeline capacity to refineries in the U.S. Midwest and Gulf Coast is required; and

WHEREAS, increasing energy imports from Canada makes sense for the United States. Canada is a trusted neighbor with a stable democratic government, strong environmental standards equal to that of the U.S., and some of the most stringent human rights and worker protection legislation in the world; and

WHEREAS, improvements in production technology have reduced the carbon footprint of Canadian oil sands development by 26% on a per barrel basis since 1990. Oil sands production accounts for 6.9% of Canada's greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and 0.1% (1/1000th) of global GHG emissions. Total emissions from Canada's oil sands sector was 48 megatons in 2010, equivalent to 0.5% of U.S. GHG emissions. Oil sands crude has similar CO₂ emissions to other heavy oils and is 6% more carbon-intensive than the average crude refined in the U.S. on a wells-to-wheels basis; and

WHEREAS, the 57 refineries in the Gulf Coast region provide a total refining capacity of approximately 8.7 million bpd, or half of U.S. refining capacity. In 2011, these refineries imported approximately 5 million bpd of crude oil from more than 30 countries, with the top four suppliers being Mexico (22 percent), Saudi Arabia (17 percent), Venezuela (16 percent), and Nigeria (9 percent). Imports from Mexico and Venezuela are declining as production from those countries decreases and supply contracts expire. Once completed, TransCanada's Keystone XL, and Gulf Coast Expansion projects could displace roughly 40% of the oil the U.S. currently imports from the Persian Gulf and Venezuela; and

WHEREAS, the Keystone XL pipeline project, which has been subject to the most thorough public consultation process of any proposed US pipeline, and the subject of multiple environmental impacts statements and several U.S. Department of State studies, have concluded that it poses the least impact to the environment and is much safer than other modes of transporting crude oil; and

WHEREAS, the original Keystone Pipeline which spans across the northern part of Missouri supplies over 500,000 barrels of North American crude oil to American refineries in the Midwest. The Keystone XL Pipeline will, when completed, carry 830,000 barrels of North American crude oil to American refineries in the Gulf Coast region which will make its way back to Missouri in the form of gasoline, diesel and jet fuel; and

WHEREAS, the Keystone XL project will create approximately 9,000 construction jobs. The Gulf Coast Project is a $2.3 billion project that has created approximately 4,000 construction jobs. Combined, they support yet another 7,000 manufacturing jobs. Seventy-five percent of the pipe used to build Keystone XL in the U.S. will come from North American mills, including half made by U.S. workers. Goods for the pipeline valued at approximately $800 million have already been sourced from U.S. manufacturers:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby support continued and increased development and delivery of oil derived from North American oil reserves to American refineries and hereby urge the United States Congress to: support continued and increased development and delivery of oil from Canada to the United States; and urge the President to support the continued and increased importation of oil derived from the Bakken formation in Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota as well as Canadian oil sands; and ask the U.S. Secretary of State to approve the newly-routed pipeline application from TransCanada to reduce dependence on unstable governments, create new jobs, improve our national security, and strengthen ties with an important ally; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President Pro Tem of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

(7) “Public vote”, any vote, whether conducted in person, by telephone, or by any other electronic means, cast at any public meeting of any public governmental body.

610.020. 1. All public governmental bodies shall give notice of the time, date, and place of each meeting, and its tentative agenda, in a manner reasonably calculated to advise the public of the matters to be considered, and if the meeting will be conducted by telephone or other electronic means, the notice of the meeting shall identify the mode by which the meeting will be conducted and the designated location where the public may observe and attend the meeting. If a public body plans to meet by Internet chat, Internet message board, or other computer link, it shall post a notice of the meeting on its website in addition to its principal office and shall notify the public how to access that meeting. Reasonable notice shall include making available copies of the notice to any member of the public or representative of the news media who requests notice of meetings of a particular public governmental body concurrent with the notice being made available to the members of the particular governmental body and posting the notice on a bulletin board or other prominent place which is easily accessible to the public and clearly designated for that purpose at the principal office of the body holding the meeting, or if no such office exists, at the building in which the meeting is to be held.

2. Notice conforming with all of the requirements of subsection 1 of this section shall be given at least [twenty-four] forty-eight hours, or twenty-four hours for the general assembly and any committee thereof, exclusive of weekends and holidays when the facility is closed, prior to the commencement of any meeting of a governmental body unless for good cause such notice is impossible or impractical, in which case as much notice as is reasonably possible shall be given. Each meeting shall be held at a place reasonably accessible to the public and of sufficient size to accommodate the anticipated attendance by members of the public, and at a time reasonably convenient to the public, unless for good cause such a place or time is impossible or impractical. Every reasonable effort shall be made to grant special access to the meeting to handicapped or disabled individuals.

3. A public body shall allow for the recording by audiotape, videotape, or other electronic means of any open meeting. A public body may establish guidelines regarding the manner in which such recording is conducted so as to minimize disruption to the meeting. No audio recording of any meeting, record, or vote closed pursuant to the provisions of section 610.021 shall be permitted without permission of the public body; any person who violates this provision shall be guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

4. When it is necessary for such governmental bodies to hold a meeting on less than [twenty-four] forty-eight hours' notice, or twenty-four hours' notice for the general assembly and any committee thereof, or at a place that is not reasonably accessible to the public, or at a time that is not reasonably convenient to the public, the nature of the good cause justifying that departure from the normal requirements shall be stated in the minutes.

5. A formally constituted subunit of a parent governmental body may conduct a meeting without notice as required by this section during a lawful meeting of the parent governmental body, a recess in that meeting, or immediately following that meeting, if the meeting of the subunit is publicly announced at the parent meeting and the subject of the meeting reasonably coincides with the subjects discussed or acted upon by the parent governmental body.

6. If another provision of law requires a manner of giving specific notice of a meeting, hearing or an intent to take action by a governmental body, compliance with that section shall constitute compliance with the notice requirements of this section.

7. A journal or minutes of open and closed meetings shall be taken and retained by the public governmental body, including, but not limited to, a record of any votes taken at such meeting. The minutes shall include, but not be limited to, the date, time, place, members present, members absent, and a record of any votes taken. When a roll call vote is taken, the minutes shall attribute each "yea" and "nay" vote or abstinence if not voting to the name of the individual member of the public governmental body. Minutes shall contain a list of the subjects discussed during any closed meeting, but nothing in this subsection shall require the disclosure of records or votes that are properly closed under section 610.021."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section 610.021, Line 11, by striking "made public" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "publicly disclosed in an open meeting"; and further amend line 18, by striking "announced or become public" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "publicly disclosed in an open meeting"; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 2, Line 20, by inserting after “record” the following: “. When public disclosure in an open meeting is prescribed, such disclosure shall be done orally or in writing, or both, and shall occur at the next scheduled open meeting of the public body, or at the resumption of a recessed or subsequent open meeting, whatever is applicable soonest to the time lines for disclosure as prescribed in this section. Where the public governmental body shall close meetings, records, and votes due to a “cause of action” as provided in this subdivision, the body shall have received evidence that a lawsuit has been filed, although not yet served, or shall have actual correspondence from a party stating that litigation shall be filed under certain circumstances stated in said correspondence”; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 5, Line 136, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“610.022. 1. Except as set forth in subsection 2 of this section, no meeting or vote may be closed without an affirmative public vote of the majority of a quorum of the public governmental body. The vote of each member of the public governmental body on the question of closing a public meeting or vote and the specific reason for closing that public meeting or vote by reference to a specific section of this chapter shall be announced publicly at an open meeting of the governmental body and entered into the minutes.

2. A public governmental body proposing to hold a closed meeting or vote shall give notice of the time, date and place of such closed meeting or vote and the reason for holding it by reference to the specific exception allowed pursuant to the provisions of section 610.021. Such notice shall comply with the procedures set forth in section 610.020 for notice of a public meeting.

3. Any meeting or vote closed pursuant to section 610.021 shall be closed only to the extent necessary for the specific reason announced to justify the closed meeting or vote. Public governmental bodies shall not discuss any business in a closed meeting, record or vote which does not directly relate to the specific reason announced to justify the closed meeting or vote. Only members of a public governmental body, their attorney and staff assistants, and any other person necessary to provide information needed by or requested by the public governmental body in regard to the matter being discussed shall be permitted in a closed meeting. Public governmental bodies holding a closed meeting shall close only an existing portion of the meeting facility necessary to house the members of the public governmental body in the closed session, allowing members of the public to remain to attend any subsequent open session held by the public governmental body following the closed session.

4. Nothing in sections 610.010 to 610.028 shall be construed as to require a public governmental body to hold a closed meeting, record or vote to discuss or act upon any matter.

5. Public records shall be presumed to be open unless otherwise exempt pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

6. In the event any member of a public governmental body makes a motion to close a meeting, or a record, or a vote from the public and any other member believes that such motion, if passed, would cause a meeting, record or vote to be closed from the public in violation of any provision in this chapter, such latter member shall state his or her objection to the motion at or before the time the vote is taken on the motion. The public governmental body shall enter in the minutes of the public governmental body any objection made pursuant to this subsection. Any member making such an objection shall be allowed to fully participate in any meeting, record or vote that is closed from the public over the member’s objection. In the event the objecting member also voted in opposition to the motion to close the meeting, record or vote at issue, the objection and vote of the member as entered in the minutes shall be an absolute defense to any claim filed against the objecting member pursuant to section 610.027.

610.023. 1. Each public governmental body is to appoint a custodian who is to be responsible for the maintenance of that body's records. The identity and location of a public governmental body's custodian is to be made available upon request. Each custodian of a public governmental body is encouraged to create and maintain an index of all public records maintained by its public governmental body.

2. Each public governmental body shall make available for inspection and copying by the public of that body's public records. No person shall remove original public records from the office of a public governmental body or its custodian without written permission of the designated custodian. No public governmental body shall, after August 28, 1998, grant to any person or entity, whether by contract, license or otherwise, the exclusive right to access and disseminate any public record unless the granting of such right is necessary to facilitate coordination with, or uniformity among, industry regulators having similar authority.

3. Each request for access to a public record shall be acted upon as soon as possible, but in no event later than the end of the third business day following the date the request is received by the custodian of records of a public governmental body. If records are requested in a certain format, the public body shall provide the records in the requested format, if such format is available. If access to the public record is not granted immediately, the custodian shall give a detailed explanation of the cause for further delay and the place and earliest time and date that the record will be available for inspection. This period for document production may exceed three days for reasonable cause.

4. If a request for access is denied, the custodian shall provide, upon request, a written statement of the grounds for such denial. Such statement shall cite the specific provision of law under which access is denied and shall be furnished to the requester no later than the end of the third business day following the date that the request for the statement is received.

610.027. 1. The remedies provided by this section against public governmental bodies shall be in addition to those provided by any other provision of law. Any aggrieved person, taxpayer to, or citizen of, this state, or the attorney general or prosecuting attorney, may seek judicial enforcement of the requirements of sections 610.010 to 610.026. Suits to enforce sections 610.010 to 610.026 shall be brought in the circuit court for the county in which the public governmental body has its principal place of business. Upon service of a summons, petition, complaint, counterclaim, or cross-claim in a civil action brought to enforce the provisions of sections 610.010 to 610.026, the custodian of the public record that is the subject matter of such civil action shall not transfer custody, alter, destroy, or otherwise dispose of the public record sought to be inspected and examined, notwithstanding the applicability of an exemption pursuant to section 610.021 or the assertion that the requested record is not a public record until the court directs otherwise.

2. [Once a party seeking judicial enforcement of sections 610.010 to 610.026 demonstrates to the court that the body in question is subject to the requirements of sections 610.010 to 610.026 and has held a closed meeting, record or vote, the burden of persuasion shall be on the body and its members to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of sections 610.010 to 610.026.] In any legal proceeding, there shall be a presumption that a meeting, record, or vote is open to the public. The burden shall be on a public governmental body or a member of a public governmental body to prove that such meeting, record, or vote may be closed to the public.

3. Upon a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that a public governmental body or a member of a public governmental body has [knowingly] violated sections 610.010 to 610.026, the public governmental body or the member shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount [up to one thousand] of one hundred dollars. If the court finds that there is a [knowing] violation of sections 610.010 to 610.026, the court [may] shall order the payment by such body or member of all costs and reasonable attorney fees to any party successfully establishing a violation. [The court shall determine the amount of the penalty by taking into account the size of the jurisdiction, the seriousness of the offense, and whether the public governmental body or member of a public governmental body has violated sections 610.010 to 610.026 previously.] In making this determination of reasonable attorney fees, the court shall take into account the size of the jurisdiction, annual operating budget, and other sources of revenue.

4. Upon a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that a public governmental body or a member of a public governmental body has purposely violated sections 610.010 to 610.026, the public governmental body or the member shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount up to five thousand dollars. If the court finds that there was a purposeful violation of sections 610.010 to 610.026, then the court shall order the payment by such body or member of all costs and reasonable attorney fees to any party successfully establishing such a violation. The court shall determine the amount of the penalty by taking into account the size of the jurisdiction, the seriousness of the offense, and whether the public governmental body or member of a public governmental body has violated sections 610.010 to 610.026 previously.

5. Upon a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that a public governmental body has violated any provision of sections 610.010 to 610.026, a court shall void any action taken in violation of sections 610.010 to 610.026, if the court finds under the facts of the particular case that the public interest in the enforcement of the policy of sections 610.010 to 610.026 outweighs the public interest in sustaining the validity of the action taken in the [closed] meeting, record or vote. Suit for enforcement shall be brought within one year from which the violation is ascertainable and in no event shall it be brought later than two years after the violation. This subsection shall not apply to an action taken regarding the issuance of bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of a public governmental body if a public hearing, election or public sale has been held regarding the bonds or evidence of indebtedness.

6. A public governmental body which is in doubt about the legality of closing a particular meeting, record or vote may bring suit at the expense of that public governmental body in the circuit court of the county of the public governmental body's principal place of business to ascertain the propriety of any such action, or seek a formal opinion of the attorney general or an attorney for the governmental body.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Schaefer moved that the above amendment be adopted and requested a roll call vote be taken. He was joined in his request by Senators Emery, Justus, Kehoe and Sater.

Senator Justus offered SA 1 to SA 1:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO
SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill No. 139, Page 5, Section 610.010, Lines 12-14, by striking all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “entered into by any public governmental body, or”.

Senator Justus moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.

SA 1, as amended, was again taken up.

President Kinder in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

In our silence when words refuse to come You are aware of the deep rumblings of our soul and the concerns of our hearts. You comfort us and in our joy lift us up. When we bring our petitions before You and You respond blessing us and encouraging us so we may know the joys of Your heart by the peace and comfort of Your loving presence. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8

WHEREAS, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has repeatedly delayed issuing regulations on coal combustion waste; and

WHEREAS, coal combustion waste, or coal ash, contains carcinogenic and neurotoxic chemicals such as mercury, arsenic, cadmium, lead, hexavalent chromium, and other heavy metals that have been proven to harm human health; and

WHEREAS, ponds containing coal ash often leak these pollutants into the groundwater, as evidenced by documentation of contamination in other states including Illinois; and

WHEREAS, coal waste ponds at the Labadie Power Plant in Franklin County were known by the Missouri Department of Natural Resources to be leaking 50,000 gallons per day since 1992. Ameren has only recently claimed to address those known leaks, and no groundwater monitoring around the ponds has occurred or is occurring even though everyone for miles around the site in Franklin County relies on groundwater for drinking water; and

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri currently does not require any groundwater monitoring at these coal ash ponds, so that the extent of any danger to the public health cannot be determined; and

WHEREAS, there are at least 32 coal ash ponds scattered across the State of Missouri, including in Jasper, Jackson, Platte, Franklin, Buchanan, St. Louis, New Madrid, Henry, Jefferson, Scott, St. Charles, and Randolph Counties; and

WHEREAS, utilities generate over 2.6 million tons of coal ash in Missouri every year; and

WHEREAS, devastating coal ash spills took place in December 2008 in Kingston, Tennessee and in November 2011 in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, both of which resulted in property damage and expensive cleanup; and

WHEREAS, a report released by Earthjustice in August 2011 listed Missouri as one of the weakest states in the country for regulating coal combustion waste; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the Department of Natural Resources, in issuing water pollution discharge permits for conventional coal-fueled electric generating units, and consistent with otherwise applicable law, to fully consider:

- (1) The need to require groundwater monitoring immediately at all new and existing coal ash ponds in the State of Missouri; and
- (2) The need to require clean-up at all coal ash ponds that are found to be leaking dangerous chemicals; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution does not amend any state law to which the Department of Natural Resources is subject, and shall be interpreted to be consistent with any requirements of such state or federal law; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Governor Jay Nixon and the Director of the Department of Natural Resources.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-FIRST DAY—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2013

President Pro Tem Dempsey in the Chair.

“Faith, hope and love abide these three; but the greatest of these is love.” (I Corinthians 13:13)

Loving Lord, on this proclaimed day of love, teach us to love one another, forgive one another and share the joys and laughter of our lives with one another. And as we return home to those You have given us to love, bind us with the cords of love that cannot be broken. Unleash in us a care and love for those we love that it is witnessed by those around us. And may our love flow into our communities and state in all that we say and do. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

President Kinder assumed the Chair.

WHEREAS, civil aviation plays a pivotal role in promoting cultural exchange, business, trade and tourism; and

WHEREAS, the development of international civil aviation in a safe and orderly manner is the supreme cause of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO); and

WHEREAS, with an excellent geographic location, Taiwan is a key aviation hub for regions in northeastern and southeastern Asia; and

WHEREAS, the Taipei Flight Information Region (FIR), bordering the FIRs of Fukuoka, Manila, Hong Kong and Shanghai, includes 14 international airways and 4 domestic airways, providing services for more than one million flights per year; and

WHEREAS, each year, approximately 40 million travelers enter, leave or pass through the Taipei FIR, making Taiwan a key part of air navigation in East Asia; and

WHEREAS, currently, more than 50 domestic and foreign airlines operate flights from Taiwan to 110 cities in the world and the annual number of passengers on international flights is approximately 30 million; and

WHEREAS, in 2010, the number of international passengers at Taiwan's largest airport – Taoyuan International Airport – ranked 16th worldwide, while international cargo ranked 9th, making Taiwan one of the busiest airspaces in the world; and

WHEREAS, without Taiwan's participation, international flight plans, regulations and procedure that the ICAO formulates will be incomplete and unsafe; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's exclusion from meaningful participation in UNFCCC has been to the detriment of both the Taiwanese people and the global community as Taiwan not only has the means but also incentive to make a meaningful contribution; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's request to participate in the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) is fully in line with the United States government's policy of supporting Taiwan's meaningful participation in United Nations specialized agencies; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly is supportive of all efforts to grant Taiwan official observer status at the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and, as a collaborative partner of the United States on a wide range of public issues, Taiwan should be afforded the opportunity to participate in global efforts aimed at reducing and preventing natural disasters; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the United States Secretary of State, the United States Secretary of Transportation, the Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and the Director-General of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Kansas City.

WHEREAS, improving child nutrition is the focal point of the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010; and

WHEREAS, the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act authorizes funding and sets policy for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's core child nutrition programs; and

WHEREAS, the nutrition programs authorized for funding are the National School Lunch Program, the School Breakfast Program, the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children, the Summer Food Service Program, and the Child and Adult Care Food Program; and

WHEREAS, the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act allows the U.S. Department of Agriculture, for the first time in over thirty years, the opportunity to make real reforms to school lunch and breakfast programs by improving the critical nutrition and hunger safety net for millions of children; and

WHEREAS, the outcome of the current changes to caloric guidelines and portion sizes is that more students are going hungry, the program cost has risen for both school districts and parents, and menu choice has been taken away at the local level. If high sugar content juices and soft drinks are not appropriate for purchase at schools, then neither should they be appropriate for purchase on the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, hereby urge the United States Congress to: reconsider the caloric guidelines and portion sizes that have been written into the rules; and urge the Congress to apply new nutritional purchasing guidelines to the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program; and

(2) A cash investment in a qualified security shall be deemed to have been made on the date of acquisition of the qualified security, as such date is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(3) The director of the department of revenue shall not allow tax credits of more than fifty thousand dollars for a single qualified Missouri business or a total of two hundred fifty thousand dollars in tax credits for a single year per investor who is a natural person or owner of a permitted entity investor. The total amount of tax credits allocated under this section shall not exceed six million dollars per year. The balance of unissued tax credits may be carried over for issuance in future years until December 31, 2024.

(4) At the beginning of each calendar year, the department shall equally designate the tax credits available during that year to each regional SBTDC. At the beginning of each calendar quarter, the department shall allocate to each regional SBTDC one-fourth of the total tax credits designated to such regional SBTDC for the calendar year such that the regional SBTDC can allocate tax credits among the qualified Missouri businesses. The department shall then issue tax credits to qualified investors for cash investments in such qualified Missouri businesses during that calendar quarter.

(5) At the end of each calendar quarter, each regional SBTDC shall report to the department any unallocated tax credits for the preceding quarter. Such report shall meet the requirements set forth in section 348.274. The department shall aggregate all such tax credits and reallocate them equally among the regional SBTDCs as soon as possible during the next consecutive calendar quarter. Each regional SBTDC shall receive such reallocation in addition to the new allocation of designated tax credits for such quarter.

(6) During the fourth calendar quarter, a regional SBTDC in need of additional tax credits for transactions closing in the fourth calendar quarter may request that another regional SBTDC with unallocated tax credits permit such unallocated tax credits to be allocated by the requesting SBTDC. No regional SBTDC shall be required to grant such request. When a granting SBTDC transfers the allocation of the unallocated tax credits to a requesting SBTDC under this subdivision, the granting SBTDC shall provide to the requesting SBTDC a written confirmation authorizing such transfer, the granting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274, and the requesting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274.

5. (1) Before an investor may be entitled to receive tax credits under this section and section 348.274, such investor shall have made a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified

Missouri business. The business shall have been approved by a regional SBTDC as a qualified Missouri business before the date on which the cash investment was made. (m) The business shall satisfy all other requirements of this section and section 348.274.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirements of subdivision (3) of this subsection, a business may be considered as a qualified Missouri business under the provisions of this section and section 348.274 if such business falls within a standard industrial classification code established by the department.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section and section 348.274 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2013, shall be invalid and void.

348.274. 1. (1) Each regional SBTDC is authorized to allocate tax credits to qualified Missouri businesses. The department is authorized to issue tax credits to qualified investors in such qualified Missouri businesses. Such tax credits shall be allocated to those qualified Missouri businesses which, as determined by the regional SBTDC, are most likely to provide the greatest economic benefit to the region, the state, or both. The regional SBTDC may allocate, and the department may issue, whole or partial tax credits based on the regional SBTDC's assessment of the qualified Missouri businesses. The regional SBTDC may consider numerous factors in such assessment, including but not limited to, the quality and experience of the management team, the size of the estimated market opportunity, the risk from current or future competition, the ability to defend intellectual property, the quality and utility of the business model, and the quality and reasonableness of financial projections for the business.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business for which a regional SBTDC has allocated tax credits such that the department can issue tax credits to the qualified investors of such qualified Missouri business shall submit to the regional SBTDC a report before such tax credits are issued. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of this report to the department. Such report shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business;

(b) Proof of such investment, including copies of the securities purchase agreements and cancelled checks or wire transfer receipts; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

2. (1) The state of Missouri shall not be held liable for any damages to any investor that makes an investment in any qualified security of a qualified Missouri business, any business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down, or any investor that makes an investment in a business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business shall have the obligation to notify the regional SBTDC that allocated tax credits to the qualified Missouri business and the department in a timely manner of any changes in the qualifications of the business or in the eligibility of investors to claim a tax credit for cash investment in a qualified security.

(3) The department shall provide the information specified in subdivision (3) of subsection 4 of this section to the department of revenue on an annual basis. The department shall conduct an annual review of the activities undertaken under this section and section 348.273 to ensure that tax credits issued under this section and section 348.273 are issued in compliance with the provisions of this section and section 348.273 or rules and regulations promulgated by each regional SBTDC or the department with respect to this section and section 348.273.

(4) If the department determines that a business is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of this section and section 348.273 to maintain its designation, the department, by written notice, shall inform the business that such business will lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business one hundred twenty days from the date of mailing of the notice unless such business corrects the deficiencies and is once again in compliance with the requirements for designation.

(5) At the end of the one hundred twenty-day period, if the qualified Missouri business is still not in substantial compliance, the department shall send a notice of loss of designation to the business, each regional SBTDC, the director of the department of revenue and to all known investors in the business.

(6) A business shall lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business under this section and section 348.273 by moving its operations outside Missouri within ten years after receiving financial assistance under this section and section 348.273.

(7) In the event that a business loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business, such business shall be precluded from being issued any additional tax credits with respect to the business, shall be precluded from being approved as a qualified Missouri business and shall repay any financial assistance to the regional SBTDC, in an amount to be determined by the regional SBTDC. Each qualified Missouri business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall enter into a repayment agreement with the regional SBTDC specifying the terms of such repayment obligation.

(8) Investors in a qualified Missouri business shall be entitled to keep all of the tax credits properly issued to such investors under this section and section 348.273.

(9) The portions of documents and other materials submitted to any regional SBTDC or the department that contain trade secrets shall be kept confidential and shall be maintained in a secured environment by the regional SBTDC and the department, as applicable. For the purposes of this section and section 348.273, "trade secrets" means any customer lists, formula, compound, production data, or compilation of information that will allow individuals within a commercial concern using such information the means to fabricate, produce, or compound an article of trade or perform any service having commercial value, which gives the user an opportunity to obtain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use such service.

(10) Each regional SBTDC and the department may prepare and adopt procedures concerning the performance of the duties placed upon each respective entity by this section and section 348.273.

3. Any qualified investor who makes a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified Missouri business may transfer the tax credits such qualified investor may receive under subsection 4 of section 348.273 to any natural person. Such transferee may claim the tax credit against the transferee's Missouri income tax liability as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 4 of section 348.273, subject to all restrictions and limitations set forth in this section and section 348.273. Only the full credit for any one investment shall be transferred and this interest shall only be transferred one time. Documentation of any tax credit transfer under this section shall be provided by the qualified investor in the manner required by the department.

4. (1) Each qualified Missouri business for which tax credits have been issued under this section and section 348.273 shall report to the applicable regional SBTDC on an annual basis, on or before February first. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of the reports to the department. Such reports shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business and has received tax credits for this investment during the preceding year;

(b) The amounts of these cash investments by each investor and a description of the qualified securities issued in consideration of such cash investments; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC or the department may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

(2) Each regional SBTDC shall report quarterly to the department on the allocation of the tax credits in the preceding calendar quarter. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of applications the regional SBTDC received;

(b) The number and ratio of successful applications to unsuccessful applications;

(c) The amount of tax credits allocated but not issued in the previous quarter, including what percentage was allocated to individuals and what percentage was allocated to investment firms;

(d) The amount of unallocated tax credits; and

(e) Such other information as reasonably agreed upon by each regional SBTDC and the department.

(3) The department shall also report annually to the governor, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives, on or before April first, on the allocation and issuance of the tax credits. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of tax credits issued in the previous fiscal year, including what percentage was issued to individuals and what percentage was issued to investment firms;

(b) The types of businesses that benefitted from the tax credits;

(c) The amount of allocated but unissued tax credits and the information about the unissued tax credits set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection;

(d) Any aggregate job creation or capital investment in the region that resulted from the use of the tax credits for a period of five years beginning from the date on which the tax credits were awarded;

(e) The manner in which the purpose of this section and section 348.273 has been carried out with regard to the region;

(f) The total cash investments made for the purchase of qualified securities of qualified Missouri businesses within the region during the preceding year and cumulatively since the effective date of this section and section 348.273;

(g) An estimate of jobs created and jobs preserved by cash investments made in qualified Missouri businesses within the region;

(h) An estimate of the multiplier effect on the economy of the region of the cash investments made under this section and section 348.273;

(i) Information regarding what businesses derived benefit from the tax credits remained in the region, what businesses ceased business, what businesses were purchased, and what businesses may have moved out-of-region or out-of-state and why.

(4) Any violation of the reporting requirements of this subsection by a qualified Missouri business may be grounds for the loss of designation of such qualified Missouri business, and such business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall be subject to the restrictions upon loss of designation set forth in subsection 2 of this section.

5. Notwithstanding sections 23.250 to 23.298 of the Missouri sunset act, sections 348.273 and 348.274 shall expire on December 31, 2024.”; and

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY—WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2013

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Kehoe in the Chair.

On motion of Senator Richard, the Senate recessed until 4:30 p.m.

RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the Senate was called to order by President Kinder.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Spread snow like a blanket and spread ice like ashes.” (Psalm 147:16)

Gracious Lord, we enjoy the beauty of the winter wonderland and very grateful for safe travel. We are thankful for those whose efforts make it possible for us to have cleared streets and work early in the day through the night so our roads are passable and emergency vehicles can assist those needing their service. TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2013

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Pro Tem Dempsey in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Yet you do not even know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.”
(James 4:14)

Loving God, it is easy to get caught up in the pressures and demands on us, that it is easy to forget what is truly important. Help us to be mindful of our limited time especially in those relationships You have given us that makes life sweet and part of the reason we work so hard. Open our hearts to truly be with our families and bless our limited time together. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, under federal Medicaid law, states are required to make disproportionate share hospital (DSH) payments to hospitals for providing health care to a vast number of low-income patients in an attempt to make up for financial losses by hospitals that do not receive payment for services rendered to uninsured patients and because Medicaid provider payment rates are far lower than those payments received by private insurance; and

WHEREAS, also under federal Medicaid law, the federal government reimburses states for a portion of the state's Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state's federal medical assistance percentage and each state receives an annual DSH allotment; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals reported providing $1.1 billion in uncompensated care to Missourians in 2011; and

WHEREAS, under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010, states are mandated to expand Medicaid eligibility for persons with incomes up to 133% of the federal poverty level; however, in June 2012, the United States Supreme Court found such mandate impermissible and now allows each state to decide whether to implement such a Medicaid expansion; and

WHEREAS, under the ACA, under the assumption at the time the law passed that all states were to implement the Medicaid expansion, the federal government is required to reduce more than $22 billion in DSH payments from 2014 to 2022; and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that Missouri will suffer cuts to both Medicaid and Medicare hospital payments in the amount of $3.3 billion from 2013 to 2020 with DSH cuts in the amount generally of $704 million from 2013 to 2019; and

WHEREAS, the federal cuts to DSH hospital payments are set to occur regardless of whether a state has elected to implement the Medicaid expansion under the ACA - a decision the United States Supreme Court found each state has a right to pursue; and

WHEREAS, Missouri hospitals have reported that it will be an "unsustainable situation for hospitals" to absorb more than $1 billion annually in uncompensated care while facing $3.3 billion in cuts:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the federal government to continue to reimburse states for a portion of the state's Medicaid DSH expenditures based on each state's federal medical assistance percentage for those states that have chosen not to implement the Medicaid expansion; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Governor Nixon work with the federal government to ensure that the reduction to such DSH payments do not occur; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and Governor Jay Nixon.

Also,

Mr. President: Your Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions and Ethics, to which were referred SB 73; SB 18; SS for SCS for SB 129; and SB 208, begs leave to report that it has examined the same and finds that the bills have been truly perfected and that the printed copies furnished the Senators are correct.

5. (1) Any data storage center project seeking a tax exemption under subsection 4 of this section shall submit a notice of intent and a project plan to the department of economic development, which shall identify each known constructing taxpayer and each known operating taxpayer for the project and include any additional information the department of economic development may reasonably require to determine eligibility for the exemption. The department of economic development shall review the project plan and determine whether the project is eligible for the exemption under subsection 4 of this section, conditional upon subsequent verification by the department that the project meets the requirements in subsection 1 of this section for an expanding facility project and the execution of the agreement specified in subsection 6 of this section. The department shall make such conditional determination within thirty days of submission by the operating taxpayer. Failure of the department to respond within thirty days shall result in a project plan being deemed conditionally approved.

(2) The department of economic development shall convey such conditional approval to the department of revenue and the identified project taxpayers. After a conditional approved facility has met the requirements in subsection 1 of this section, the project taxpayers shall provide proof of the same to the department of economic development. Upon verification of such proof, the department of economic development shall certify the project to the department of revenue as being eligible for the exemption dating retroactively to the first day of the expansion of the facility. The department of revenue, upon receipt of adequate proof of the amount of sales taxes paid since the first day of the expansion of the facility, shall issue a refund of taxes paid but eligible for exemption under subsection 4 of this section to any applicable project taxpayer and issue a certificate of exemption to any applicable project taxpayer for ongoing exemptions under subsection 4 of this section. The department of revenue shall issue such a refund within thirty days of receipt of certification from the department of economic development.

(3) Any project that does not meet the minimum investment or new job requirements of subsection 1 of this section may, at the discretion of the department of economic development, be awarded exemptions under subsection 4 of this section provided such exemption shall not exceed the projected net fiscal benefit to the state over a period of ten years.

(4) The commencement of the exemption period may be delayed at the option of the operating taxpayer, but not more than twenty-four months after the execution of the agreement required under subsection 6 of this section.

6. (1) The exemptions in subsections 2 and 4 of this section shall be tied to the new or expanding facility project. A certificate of exemption in the hands of a taxpayer that is no longer an operating or constructing taxpayer of the new or expanding facility project shall be invalid as of the date the taxpayer was no longer an operating or constructing taxpayer of the new or expanding facility project. New certificates of exemption shall be issued to successor constructing taxpayers and operating taxpayers at such new or expanding facility projects. The right to the exemption by successor taxpayers shall exist without regard to subsequent levels of investment in the new or expanding facility by successor taxpayers.

(2) In order to receive exemptions under subsection 2 or 4 of this section, the project taxpayers shall enter into an agreement with the department of economic development providing for repayment penalties in the event the data storage center project fails to:

(a) Comply with any of the requirements of this section; or

(b) Satisfy the investment or job creation projected in the notice of intent submitted for the project;

(3) The department of revenue shall credit any amounts remitted by the project taxpayers under this subsection to the fund to which the sales and use taxes exempted would have otherwise been credited.

7. The department of economic development and the department of revenue shall cooperate in conducting random audits to ensure that the intent of this section is followed.

8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no recipient of an exemption pursuant to this section shall be eligible for benefits under any business recruitment tax credit, as defined in section 135.800.

9. The department of economic development and the department of revenue shall jointly prescribe such rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2013, shall be invalid and void.

10. This section shall terminate on September 1, 2019. The termination of this section shall not be construed to limit or in any way impair the exemption for any project approved prior to the termination of this section.”; and

Further amend said bill, page 308, section 238.410, line 23 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“253.550. 1. (2) Any taxpayer applying for tax credits, provided under this section, which, on or before January 1, 2010, has filed an application with the department evidencing that such taxpayer:

6. 7. In lieu of the limitations on tax credit authorization provided under the provisions of subsections 5 and 6 of this section, the limitations on tax credit authorization provided under the provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section shall apply to:

(1) Any application submitted by a taxpayer, which has received approval from the department prior to the effective date of this act; or

(2) Any application for tax credits provided under this section for a project, which on or before the effective date of this act:

(a) Received an approved Part I from the Secretary of the United States Department of Interior and has incurred costs and expenses for an eligible property which exceed the lesser of fifteen percent of the total project costs or three million dollars; or

8. For each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2013, the department of economic development shall not approve applications for projects to receive less than two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars in tax credits which, in the aggregate, exceed five million dollars, increased by any amount of tax credits for which approval shall be rescinded under the provisions of section 253.559. The limitations on tax credit authorization provided under the provisions of this subsection, shall not apply to:

253.557. 1. If the amount of such credit exceeds the total tax liability for the year in which the rehabilitated property is placed in service, the amount that exceeds the state tax liability may be carried back to any of the three preceding years and carried forward for credit against the taxes imposed pursuant to chapter 143 and chapter 148, except for sections 143.191 to 143.265 for the succeeding ten years, or until the full credit is used, whichever occurs first. For all tax credits authorized under the provisions of sections 253.545 to 253.559 on or after the effective date of this act, if the total amount of such credit exceeds the total tax liability for the year in which the rehabilitated property is placed in service, the amount that exceeds the state tax liability may be carried forward for credit against the taxes imposed pursuant to chapter 143 and chapter 148, except for sections 143.191 to 143.265 for the succeeding two years, or until the full credit is used, whichever occurs first. Not-for-profit entities, including but not limited to corporations organized as not-for-profit corporations pursuant to chapter 355 shall be ineligible for the tax credits authorized under sections 253.545 [through 253.561] to 253.559. Any taxpayer that receives state tax credits under the provisions of sections 135.350 to 135.363 for a project that is not financed through tax exempt bonds issuance shall be ineligible for the state tax credits authorized under sections 253.545 to 253.559 for the same project. Taxpayers eligible for such tax credits may transfer, sell or assign the credits. Credits granted to a partnership, a limited liability company taxed as a partnership or multiple owners of property shall be passed through to the partners, members or owners respectively pro rata or pursuant to an executed agreement among [the] such partners, members or owners documenting an alternate distribution method.

2. The assignee of the tax credits, hereinafter the assignee for purposes of this subsection, may use acquired credits to offset up to one hundred percent of the tax liabilities otherwise imposed pursuant to chapter 143 and chapter 148, except for sections 143.191 to 143.265. The assignor shall perfect such transfer by notifying the department of economic development in writing within thirty calendar days following the effective date of the transfer and shall provide any information as may be required by the department of economic development to administer and carry out the provisions of this section.

253.559. 1. To obtain approval for tax credits allowed under sections 253.545 to 253.559, a taxpayer shall submit an application for tax credits to the department of economic development. Each application for approval, including any applications received for supplemental allocations of tax credits as provided under subsection 8 of this section, shall be prioritized for review and approval, in the order of the date on which the application was postmarked, with the oldest postmarked date receiving priority. Applications postmarked on the same day shall go through a lottery process to determine the order in which such applications shall be reviewed.

2. Each application shall be reviewed by the department of economic development for approval. In order to receive approval, an application, other than applications submitted under the provisions of subsection 8 of this section, shall include:

(1) Proof of ownership or site control. Proof of ownership shall include evidence that the taxpayer is the fee simple owner of the eligible property, such as a warranty deed or a closing statement. Proof of site control may be evidenced by a leasehold interest or an option to acquire such an interest. If the taxpayer is in the process of acquiring fee simple ownership, proof of site control shall include an executed sales contract or an executed option to purchase the eligible property;

(2) Floor plans of the existing structure, architectural plans, and, where applicable, plans of the proposed alterations to the structure, as well as proposed additions;

(3) The estimated cost of rehabilitation, the anticipated total costs of the project, the actual basis of the property, as shown by proof of actual acquisition costs, the anticipated total labor costs, the estimated project start date, and the estimated project completion date;

(4) Proof that the property is an eligible property and a certified historic structure or a structure in a certified historic district; and

(5) Any other information which the department of economic development may reasonably require to review the project for approval. Only the property for which a property address is provided in the application shall be reviewed for approval. Once selected for review, a taxpayer shall not be permitted to request the review of another property for approval in the place of the property contained in such application. Any disapproved application shall be removed from the review process. If an application is removed from the review process, the department of economic development shall notify the taxpayer in writing of the decision to remove such application. Disapproved applications shall lose priority in the review process. A disapproved application, which is removed from the review process, may be resubmitted, but shall be deemed to be a new submission for purposes of the priority procedures described in this section.

3. If the department of economic development deems the application sufficient, the taxpayer shall be notified in writing of the approval for an amount of tax credits equal to the amount provided under section 253.550 less any amount of tax credits previously approved. Such approvals shall be granted to applications in the order of priority established under this section and shall require full compliance thereafter with all other requirements of law as a condition to any claim for such credits.

4. Following approval of an application, the identity of the taxpayer contained in such application shall not be modified except:

(1) The taxpayer may add partners, members, or shareholders as part of the ownership structure, so long as the principal remains the same, provided however, that subsequent to the commencement of renovation and the expenditure of at least ten percent of the proposed rehabilitation budget, removal of the principal for failure to perform duties and the appointment of a new principal thereafter shall not constitute a change of the principal; or

(2) Where the ownership of the project is changed due to a foreclosure, deed in lieu of a foreclosure or voluntary conveyance, or a transfer in bankruptcy. Upon any such change in ownership, the taxpayer contained in such application shall notify the department of such change.

5. In the event that the department of economic development grants approval for tax credits equal to the applicable total amount available under subsection 2, 5, or 8 of section 253.550, or sufficient that when totaled with all other approvals, the applicable amount available under subsection 2, 5, or 8 of section 253.550 is exhausted, all taxpayers with applications then awaiting approval or thereafter submitted for approval shall be notified by the department of economic development that no additional approvals shall be granted during the fiscal year and shall be notified of the priority given to such taxpayer's application then awaiting approval. Such applications shall be kept on file by the department of economic development and shall be considered for approval for tax credits in the order established in this section in the event that additional credits become available due to the rescission of approvals or when a new fiscal year's allocation of credits becomes available for approval.

6. All taxpayers with applications receiving approval on or after the effective date of this act shall commence rehabilitation within two years of the date of issuance of the letter from the department of economic development granting the approval for tax credits. "Commencement of rehabilitation" shall mean that as of the date in which actual physical work, contemplated by the architectural plans submitted with the application, has begun, the taxpayer has incurred no less than ten percent of the estimated costs of rehabilitation provided in the application. Taxpayers with approval of a project shall submit evidence of compliance with the provisions of this subsection. If the department of economic development determines that a taxpayer has failed to comply with the requirements provided under this section, the approval for the amount of tax credits for such taxpayer shall be rescinded and such amount of tax credits shall then be included in the applicable total amount of tax credits, provided under subsection 2, 5, or 8 of section 253.550, from which approvals may be granted. Any taxpayer whose approval shall be subject to rescission shall be notified of such from the department of economic development and, upon receipt of such notice, may submit a new application for the project.

7. To claim the credit authorized under sections 253.550 to 253.559, a taxpayer with approval shall apply for final approval and issuance of tax credits from the department of economic development which, in consultation with the department of natural resources, shall determine the final amount of eligible rehabilitation costs and expenses and whether the completed rehabilitation meets the standards of the Secretary of the United States Department of the Interior for rehabilitation as determined by the state historic preservation officer of the Missouri department of natural resources. For financial institutions credits authorized pursuant to sections 253.550 to 253.561 shall be deemed to be economic development credits for purposes of section 148.064. The approval of all applications and the issuing of certificates of eligible credits to taxpayers shall be performed by the department of economic development. The department of economic development shall inform a taxpayer of final approval by letter and shall issue, to the taxpayer, tax credit certificates. The taxpayer shall attach the certificate to all Missouri income tax returns on which the credit is claimed.

8. Except as expressly provided in this subsection, tax credit certificates shall be issued in the final year that costs and expenses of rehabilitation of the project are incurred, or within the twelve-month period immediately following the conclusion of such rehabilitation. In the event the amount of eligible rehabilitation costs and expenses incurred by a taxpayer would result in the issuance of an amount of tax credits in excess of the amount provided under such taxpayer's approval granted under subsection 3 of this section, such taxpayer may apply to the department for issuance of tax credits in an amount equal to such excess. Applications for issuance of tax credits in excess of the amount provided under a taxpayer's application shall be made on a form prescribed by the department. Such applications shall be subject to all provisions regarding priority provided under subsection 1 of this section.

9. The department of economic development shall determine, on an annual basis, the overall economic impact to the state from the rehabilitation of eligible property.

10. By no later than January 1, 2014, the department of economic development shall propose rules to implement the provisions of sections 253.550 to 253.559. Prior to proposing such rules, the department shall conduct a stakeholder process designed to solicit input from interested parties. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated herein shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this act, shall be invalid and void.

348.273. 1. This section and section 348.274 shall be known and may be cited as the "Missouri Angel Investment Incentive Act".

2. As used in this section and section 348.274, the following terms mean:

(10) “Tax credit”, a credit against the tax otherwise due under chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265.

3. The Missouri angel investment incentive act shall be administered by the regional SBTDCs and the department, with the primary goal of encouraging individuals to provide seed-capital financing for emerging Missouri businesses engaged in the development, implementation, and commercialization of innovative technologies, products, and services. Each regional SBTDC shall establish a regional committee consisting of no fewer than three but no more than five persons for the purpose of reviewing applications from businesses requesting designation as a qualified Missouri business and allocating the amount of available tax credits among the qualified Missouri businesses. The department shall establish its own rules of procedure, including the form and substance of applications to be used by each regional SBTDC and the criteria to be considered by each regional SBTDC when evaluating a qualified Missouri business, such applications and criteria to be not less than the minimum requirements set forth in subsection 5 of this section. The department shall issue tax credits to qualified investors that make cash investments in qualified Missouri businesses that have been allocated available tax credits by a regional SBTDC.

4. (1) A tax credit shall be allowed for an investor’s cash investment in the qualified securities of a qualified Missouri business. The credit shall be in a total amount equal to fifty percent of such investor’s cash investment in any qualified Missouri business, subject to the limitations set forth in this subsection. This tax credit may be used in its entirety in the taxable year in which the cash investment is made except that no tax credit shall be allowed in a year prior to the year beginning January 1, 2014. If the amount by which that portion of the credit allowed by this section exceeds the investor’s liability in any one taxable year, the remaining portion of the credit may be carried forward five years or until the total amount of the credit is used, whichever occurs first. If the investor is a permitted entity investor, the credit provided by this section shall be claimed by the owners of the permitted entity investor in proportion to their equity investment in the permitted entity investor.

(2) A cash investment in a qualified security shall be deemed to have been made on the date of acquisition of the qualified security, as such date is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(3) The director of the department of revenue shall not allow tax credits of more than fifty thousand dollars for a single qualified Missouri business or a total of two hundred fifty thousand dollars in tax credits for a single year per investor who is a natural person or owner of a permitted entity investor. No tax credits authorized by this section and section 348.274 shall be allowed for any cash investments in qualified securities for any year beginning after December 31, 2019. The total amount of tax credits allocated under this section shall not exceed six million dollars per year.

(4) At the beginning of each calendar year, the department shall equally designate the tax credits available during that year to each regional SBTDC. At the beginning of each calendar quarter, the department shall allocate to each regional SBTDC one-fourth of the total tax credits designated to such regional SBTDC for the calendar year such that the regional SBTDC can allocate tax credits among the qualified Missouri businesses. The department shall then issue tax credits to qualified investors for cash investments in such qualified Missouri businesses during that calendar quarter.

(5) At the end of each calendar quarter, each regional SBTDC shall report to the department any unallocated tax credits for the preceding quarter. Such report shall meet the requirements set forth in section 348.274. The department shall aggregate all such tax credits and reallocate them equally among the regional SBTDCs as soon as possible during the next consecutive calendar quarter. Each regional SBTDC shall receive such reallocation in addition to the new allocation of designated tax credits for such quarter.

(6) During the fourth calendar quarter, a regional SBTDC in need of additional tax credits for transactions closing in the fourth calendar quarter may request that another regional SBTDC with unallocated tax credits permit such unallocated tax credits to be allocated by the requesting SBTDC. No regional SBTDC shall be required to grant such request. When a granting SBTDC transfers the allocation of the unallocated tax credits to a requesting SBTDC under this subdivision, the granting SBTDC shall provide to the requesting SBTDC a written confirmation authorizing such transfer, the granting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274, and the requesting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274.

5. (1) Before an investor may be entitled to receive tax credits under this section and section 348.274, such investor shall have made a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified Missouri business. The business shall have been approved by a regional SBTDC as a qualified Missouri business before the date on which the cash investment was made. To be designated as a qualified Missouri business, a business shall make application to a regional SBTDC in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The application by a business to a regional SBTDC shall be in the form and substance as required by the department, but shall include at least the following:

(a) The name of the business and certified copies of the organizational documents of the business;

(b) A business plan, including a description of the business and the management, product, market, and financial plan of the business;

(e) A statement of the amount, timing, and projected use of the proceeds to be raised from the proposed sale of qualified securities; and

(f) Such other information as the regional SBTDC or the department may reasonably request.

(3) The designation of a business as a qualified Missouri business shall be made by the regional SBTDC, and such designation shall be renewed annually. A business shall be so designated if the regional SBTDC determines, based upon the application submitted by the business and any additional investigation the regional SBTDC shall make, that such business meets the criteria established by the department. Such criteria shall include at least the following:

(a) The business shall not have had annual gross revenues of more than five million dollars in the most recent tax year of the business;

(b) Businesses that are not bioscience businesses shall have been in operation for less than five years, and bioscience businesses shall have been in operation for less than ten years;

(c) The ability of investors in the business to receive tax credits for cash investments in qualified securities of the business is beneficial, because funding otherwise available for the business is not available on commercially reasonable terms;

(d) The business shall not have ownership interests including, but not limited to, common or preferred shares of stock, that can be traded via a public stock exchange before the date that a qualifying investment is made;

(e) The business shall not be engaged primarily in any one or more of the following enterprises:

a. The business of banking, savings and loan or lending institutions, credit or finance, or financial brokerage or investments;

b. The provision of professional services, such as legal, accounting, or engineering services;

c. Governmental, charitable, religious, or trade organizations;

d. The ownership, development brokerage, sales, or leasing of real estate;

e. Insurance;

f. Construction or construction management or contracting;

g. Business consulting or brokerage;

h. Any business engaged primarily as a passive business, having irregular or noncontinuous operations, or deriving substantially all of the income of the business from passive investments that generate interest, dividends, royalties, or capital gains, or any business arrangements the effect of which is to immunize an investor from risk of loss;

i. Any activity that is in violation of the law;

j. Any business raising money primarily to purchase real estate, land, or fixtures; and

k. Any gambling related business;

(f) The business has a reasonable chance of success;

(g) The business has the reasonable potential to create measurable employment within the region, this state, or both;

(h) The business has an innovative and proprietary technology, product, or service;

(i) The existing owners of the business and other founders have made or are committed to make a substantial financial and time commitment to the business;

(j) The securities to be issued and purchased are qualified securities;

(k) The business has the reasonable potential to address the needs and opportunities specific to the region or this state, or both;

(l) The business has made binding commitments to the regional SBTDC for adequate reporting of financial data, including a requirement for an annual report, or, if required by the regional SBTDC, an annual audit of the financial and operational records of the business, the right of access to the financial records of the business, and the right of the regional SBTDC to record and publish normal and customary data and information related to the issuance of tax credits that are not otherwise determined to be trade or business secrets; and

(m) The business shall satisfy all other requirements of this section and section 348.274.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirements of subdivision (3) of this subsection, a business may be considered as a qualified Missouri business under the provisions of this section and section 348.274 if such business falls within a standard industrial classification code established by the department.

(5) A qualified Missouri business shall have the burden of proof to demonstrate to the regional SBTDC the qualifications of the business under this section.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section and section 348.274 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2013, shall be invalid and void.

348.274. 1. (1) Each regional SBTDC is authorized to allocate tax credits to qualified Missouri businesses. The department is authorized to issue tax credits to qualified investors in such qualified Missouri businesses. Such tax credits shall be allocated to those qualified Missouri businesses which, as determined by the regional SBTDC, are most likely to provide the greatest economic benefit to the region, the state, or both. The regional SBTDC may allocate, and the department may issue, whole or partial tax credits based on the regional SBTDC's assessment of the qualified Missouri businesses. The regional SBTDC may consider numerous factors in such assessment, including but not limited to, the quality and experience of the management team, the size of the estimated market opportunity, the risk from current or future competition, the ability to defend intellectual property, the quality and utility of the business model, and the quality and reasonableness of financial projections for the business.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business for which a regional SBTDC has allocated tax credits such that the department can issue tax credits to the qualified investors of such qualified Missouri business shall submit to the regional SBTDC a report before such tax credits are issued. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of this report to the department. Such report shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business;

(b) Proof of such investment, including copies of the securities purchase agreements and cancelled checks or wire transfer receipts; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

2. (1) The state of Missouri shall not be held liable for any damages to any investor that makes an investment in any qualified security of a qualified Missouri business, any business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down, or any investor that makes an investment in a business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business shall have the obligation to notify the regional SBTDC that allocated tax credits to the qualified Missouri business and the department in a timely manner of any changes in the qualifications of the business or in the eligibility of investors to claim a tax credit for cash investment in a qualified security.

(3) The department shall provide the information specified in subdivision (3) of subsection 4 of this section to the department of revenue on an annual basis. The department shall conduct an annual review of the activities undertaken under this section and section 348.273 to ensure that tax credits issued under this section and section 348.273 are issued in compliance with the provisions of this section and section 348.273 or rules and regulations promulgated by each regional SBTDC or the department with respect to this section and section 348.273.

(4) If the department determines that a business is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of this section and section 348.273 to maintain its designation, the department, by written notice, shall inform the business that such business will lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business one hundred twenty days from the date of mailing of the notice unless such business corrects the deficiencies and is once again in compliance with the requirements for designation.

(5) At the end of the one hundred twenty-day period, if the qualified Missouri business is still not in substantial compliance, the department shall send a notice of loss of designation to the business, each regional SBTDC, the director of the department of revenue and to all known investors in the business.

(6) A business shall lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business under this section and section 348.273 by moving its operations outside Missouri within ten years after receiving financial assistance under this section and section 348.273.

(7) In the event that a business loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business, such business shall be precluded from being issued any additional tax credits with respect to the business, shall be precluded from being approved as a qualified Missouri business and shall repay any financial assistance to the regional SBTDC, in an amount to be determined by the regional SBTDC. Each qualified Missouri business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall enter into a repayment agreement with the regional SBTDC specifying the terms of such repayment obligation.

(8) Investors in a qualified Missouri business shall be entitled to keep all of the tax credits properly issued to such investors under this section and section 348.273.

(9) The portions of documents and other materials submitted to any regional SBTDC or the department that contain trade secrets shall be kept confidential and shall be maintained in a secured environment by the regional SBTDC and the department, as applicable. For the purposes of this section and section 348.273, “trade secrets” means any customer lists, formula, compound, production data, or compilation of information that will allow individuals within a commercial concern using such information the means to fabricate, produce, or compound an article of trade or perform any service having commercial value, which gives the user an opportunity to obtain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use such service.

(10) Each regional SBTDC and the department may prepare and adopt procedures concerning the performance of the duties placed upon each respective entity by this section and section 348.273.

3. Any qualified investor who makes a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified Missouri business may transfer the tax credits such qualified investor may receive under subsection 4 of section 348.273 to any natural person. Such transferee may claim the tax credit against the transferee's Missouri income tax liability as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 4 of section 348.273, subject to all restrictions and limitations set forth in this section and section 348.273. Only the full credit for any one investment shall be transferred and this interest shall only be transferred one time. Documentation of any tax credit transfer under this section shall be provided by the qualified investor in the manner required by the department.

4. (1) Each qualified Missouri business for which tax credits have been issued under this section and section 348.273 shall report to the applicable regional SBTDC on an annual basis, on or before February first. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of the reports to the department. Such reports shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business and has received tax credits for this investment during the preceding year;

(b) The amounts of these cash investments by each investor and a description of the qualified securities issued in consideration of such cash investments; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC or the department may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

(2) Each regional SBTDC shall report quarterly to the department on the allocation of the tax credits in the preceding calendar quarter. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of applications the regional SBTDC received;

(b) The number and ratio of successful applications to unsuccessful applications;

(c) The amount of tax credits allocated but not issued in the previous quarter, including what percentage was allocated to individuals and what percentage was allocated to investment firms;

(d) The amount of unallocated tax credits; and

(e) Such other information as reasonably agreed upon by each regional SBTDC and the department.

(3) The department shall also report annually to the governor, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives, on or before April first, on the allocation and issuance of the tax credits. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of tax credits issued in the previous fiscal year, including what percentage was issued to individuals and what percentage was issued to investment firms;

(b) The types of businesses that benefitted from the tax credits;

(c) The amount of allocated but unissued tax credits and the information about the unissued tax credits set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection;

(d) Any aggregate job creation or capital investment in the region that resulted from the use of the tax credits for a period of five years beginning from the date on which the tax credits were awarded;

(e) The manner in which the purpose of this section and section 348.273 has been carried out with regard to the region;

(f) The total cash investments made for the purchase of qualified securities of qualified Missouri businesses within the region during the preceding year and cumulatively since the effective date of this section and section 348.273;

(g) An estimate of jobs created and jobs preserved by cash investments made in qualified Missouri businesses within the region;

(h) An estimate of the multiplier effect on the economy of the region of the cash investments made under this section and section 348.273;

(i) Information regarding what businesses derived benefit from the tax credits remained in the region, what businesses ceased business, what businesses were purchased, and what businesses may have moved out-of-region or out-of-state and why.

(4) Any violation of the reporting requirements of this subsection by a qualified Missouri business may be grounds for the loss of designation of such qualified Missouri business, and such business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall be subject to the restrictions upon loss of designation set forth in subsection 2 of this section.

5. Notwithstanding sections 23.250 to 23.298 of the Missouri sunset act, sections 348.273 and 348.274 shall expire on December 31, 2019.

447.708. 1. For eligible projects, the director of the department of economic development, with notice to the directors of the departments of natural resources and revenue, and subject to the other provisions of sections 447.700 to 447.718, may not create a new enterprise zone but may decide that a prospective operator of a facility being remedied and renovated pursuant to sections 447.700 to 447.718 may receive the tax credits and exemptions pursuant to sections 135.100 to 135.150 and sections 135.200 to 135.257. The tax credits allowed pursuant to this subsection shall be used to offset the tax imposed by chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265, or the tax otherwise imposed by chapter 147, or the tax otherwise imposed by chapter 148. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, the department shall not authorize tax credits and exemptions pursuant to this subsection after the effective date of this act. For purposes of this subsection:

(1) For receipt of the ad valorem tax abatement pursuant to section 135.215, the eligible project must create at least ten new jobs or retain businesses which supply at least twenty-five existing jobs. The city, or county if the eligible project is not located in a city, must provide ad valorem tax abatement of at least fifty percent for a period not less than ten years and not more than twenty-five years;

(2) For receipt of the income tax exemption pursuant to section 135.220 and tax credit for new or expanded business facilities pursuant to sections 135.100 to 135.150, and 135.225, the eligible project must create at least ten new jobs or retain businesses which supply at least twenty-five existing jobs, or combination thereof. For purposes of sections 447.700 to 447.718, the tax credits described in section 135.225 are modified as follows: the tax credit shall be four hundred dollars per employee per year, an additional four hundred dollars per year for each employee exceeding the minimum employment thresholds of ten and twenty-five jobs for new and existing businesses, respectively, an additional four hundred dollars per year for each person who is a person difficult to employ as defined by section 135.240, and investment tax credits at the same amounts and levels as provided in subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of section 135.225;

(3) For eligibility to receive the income tax refund pursuant to section 135.245, the eligible project must create at least ten new jobs or retain businesses which supply at least twenty-five existing jobs, or combination thereof, and otherwise comply with the provisions of section 135.245 for application and use of the refund and the eligibility requirements of this section;

(4) The eligible project operates in compliance with applicable environmental laws and regulations, including permitting and registration requirements, of this state as well as the federal and local requirements;

(5) The eligible project operator shall file such reports as may be required by the director of economic development or the director's designee;

(6) The taxpayer may claim the state tax credits authorized by this subsection and the state income exemption for a period not in excess of ten consecutive tax years. For the purpose of this section, "taxpayer" means an individual proprietorship, partnership or corporation described in section 143.441 or 143.471 who operates an eligible project. The director shall determine the number of years the taxpayer may claim the state tax credits and the state income exemption based on the projected net state economic benefits attributed to the eligible project;

(7) For the purpose of meeting the new job requirement prescribed in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection, it shall be required that at least ten new jobs be created and maintained during the taxpayer's tax period for which the credits are earned, in the case of an eligible project that does not replace a similar facility in Missouri. "New job" means a person who was not previously employed by the taxpayer or related taxpayer within the twelve-month period immediately preceding the time the person was employed by that taxpayer to work at, or in connection with, the eligible project on a full-time basis. "Full-time basis" means the employee works an average of at least thirty-five hours per week during the taxpayer's tax period for which the tax credits are earned. For the purposes of this section, related taxpayer has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (9) of section 135.100;

(8) For the purpose of meeting the existing job retention requirement, if the eligible project replaces a similar facility that closed elsewhere in Missouri prior to the end of the taxpayer's tax period in which the tax credits are earned, it shall be required that at least twenty-five existing jobs be retained at, and in connection with the eligible project, on a full-time basis during the taxpayer's tax period for which the credits are earned. "Retained job" means a person who was previously employed by the taxpayer or related taxpayer, at a facility similar to the eligible project that closed elsewhere in Missouri prior to the end of the taxpayer's tax period in which the tax credits are earned, within the tax period immediately preceding the time the person was employed by the taxpayer to work at, or in connection with, the eligible project on a full-time basis. "Full-time basis" means the employee works an average of at least thirty-five hours per week during the taxpayer's tax period for which the tax credits are earned;

(9) In the case where an eligible project replaces a similar facility that closed elsewhere in Missouri prior to the end of the taxpayer's tax period in which the tax credits are earned, the owner and operator of the eligible project shall provide the director with a written statement explaining the reason for discontinuing operations at the closed facility. The statement shall include a comparison of the activities performed at the closed facility prior to the date the facility ceased operating, to the activities performed at the eligible project, and a detailed account describing the need and rationale for relocating to the eligible project. If the director finds the relocation to the eligible project significantly impaired the economic stability of the area in which the closed facility was located, and that such move was detrimental to the overall economic development efforts of the state, the director may deny the taxpayer's request to claim tax benefits;

(10) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, for the purpose of this section, the number of new jobs created and maintained, the number of existing jobs retained, and the value of new qualified investment used at the eligible project during any tax year shall be determined by dividing by twelve, in the case of jobs, the sum of the number of individuals employed at the eligible project, or in the case of new qualified investment, the value of new qualified investment used at the eligible project, on the last business day of each full calendar month of the tax year. If the eligible project is in operation for less than the entire tax year, the number of new jobs created and maintained, the number of existing jobs retained, and the value of new qualified investment created at the eligible project during any tax year shall be determined by dividing the sum of the number of individuals employed at the eligible project, or in the case of new qualified investment, the value of new qualified investment used at the eligible project, on the last business day of each full calendar month during the portion of the tax year during which the eligible project was in operation, by the number of full calendar months during such period;

(11) For the purpose of this section, "new qualified investment" means new business facility investment as defined and as determined in subdivision (7) of section 135.100 which is used at and in connection with the eligible project. "New qualified investment" shall not include small tools, supplies and inventory. "Small tools" means tools that are portable and can be hand held.

2. The determination of the director of economic development pursuant to subsection 1 of this section shall not affect requirements for the prospective purchaser to obtain the approval of the granting of real property tax abatement by the municipal or county government where the eligible project is located.

3. (1) The director of the department of economic development, with the approval of the director of the department of natural resources, may, [in addition to the tax credits allowed in subsection 1 of this section,] grant a remediation tax credit to the applicant for up to one hundred percent of the costs of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, professional engineering, consulting and architectural fees, permitting fees and expenses, demolition, asbestos abatement, and direct utility charges for performing the voluntary remediation activities for the preexisting hazardous substance contamination and releases, including, but not limited to, the costs of performing operation and maintenance of the remediation equipment at the property beyond the year in which the systems and equipment are built and installed at the eligible project and the costs of performing the voluntary remediation activities over a period not in excess of four tax years following the taxpayer's tax year in which the system and equipment were first put into use at the eligible project, provided the remediation activities are the subject of a plan submitted to, and approved by, the director of natural resources pursuant to sections 260.565 to 260.575. The tax credit may also include up to one hundred percent of the costs of demolition that are not directly part of the remediation activities, provided that the demolition is on the property where the voluntary remediation activities are occurring, the demolition is necessary to accomplish the planned use of the facility where the remediation activities are occurring, and the demolition is part of a redevelopment plan approved by the municipal or county government and the department of economic development. The demolition may occur on an adjacent property if the project is located in a municipality which has a population less than twenty thousand and the above conditions are otherwise met. The adjacent property shall independently qualify as abandoned or underutilized. The amount of the credit available for demolition not associated with remediation cannot exceed the total amount of credits approved for remediation including demolition required for remediation.

(2) The amount of remediation tax credits issued shall be limited to the least amount necessary to cause the project to occur, as determined by the director of the department of economic development.

(3) The director may, with the approval of the director of natural resources, extend the tax credits allowed for performing voluntary remediation maintenance activities, in increments of three-year periods, not to exceed five consecutive three-year periods. The tax credits allowed in this subsection shall be used to offset the tax imposed by chapter 143, excluding withholding tax imposed by sections 143.191 to 143.265, or the tax otherwise imposed by chapter 147, or the tax otherwise imposed by chapter 148. The remediation tax credit may be taken in the same tax year in which the tax credits are received or may be taken over a period not to exceed twenty years.

(4) The project facility shall be projected to create at least ten new jobs or at least twenty-five retained jobs, or a combination thereof, as determined by the department of economic development, to be eligible for tax credits pursuant to this section.

(5) No more than seventy-five percent of earned remediation tax credits may be issued when the remediation costs were paid, and the remaining percentage may be issued when the department of natural resources issues a letter of completion letter or covenant not to sue following completion of the voluntary remediation activities. It shall not include any costs associated with ongoing operational environmental compliance of the facility or remediation costs arising out of spills, leaks, or other releases arising out of the ongoing business operations of the facility. In the event the department of natural resources issues a letter of completion for a portion of a property, an impacted media such as soil or groundwater, or for a site or a portion of a site improvement, a prorated amount of the remaining percentage may be released based on the percentage of the total site receiving a letter of completion.

4. In the exercise of the sound discretion of the director of the department of economic development or the director's designee, the tax credits and exemptions described in this section may be terminated, suspended or revoked, if the eligible project fails to continue to meet the conditions set forth in this section. In making such a determination, the director shall consider the severity of the condition violation, actions taken to correct the violation, the frequency of any condition violations and whether the actions exhibit a pattern of conduct by the eligible facility owner and operator. The director shall also consider changes in general economic conditions and the recommendation of the director of the department of natural resources, or his or her designee, concerning the severity, scope, nature, frequency and extent of any violations of the environmental compliance conditions. The taxpayer or person claiming the tax credits or exemptions may appeal the decision regarding termination, suspension or revocation of any tax credit or exemption in accordance with the procedures outlined in subsections 4 to 6 of section 135.250. The director of the department of economic development shall notify the directors of the departments of natural resources and revenue of the termination, suspension or revocation of any tax credits as determined in this section or pursuant to the provisions of section 447.716.

5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no taxpayer shall earn the tax credits, exemptions or refund otherwise allowed in subdivisions (2), (3) and (4) of subsection 1 of this section and the tax credits otherwise allowed in section 135.110, or the tax credits, exemptions and refund otherwise allowed in sections 135.215, 135.220, 135.225 and 135.245, respectively, for the same facility for the same tax period.

6. The total amount of the tax credits allowed in subsection 1 of this section may not exceed the greater of:

(1) That portion of the taxpayer's income attributed to the eligible project; or

(2) One hundred percent of the total business' income tax if the eligible facility does not replace a similar facility that closed elsewhere in Missouri prior to the end of the taxpayer's tax period in which the tax credits are earned, and further provided the taxpayer does not operate any other facilities besides the eligible project in Missouri; fifty percent of the total business' income tax if the eligible facility replaces a similar facility that closed elsewhere in Missouri prior to the end of the taxpayer's tax period in which the credits are earned, and further provided the taxpayer does not operate any other facilities besides the eligible project in Missouri; or twenty-five percent of the total business income if the taxpayer operates, in addition to the eligible facility, any other facilities in Missouri. In no case shall a taxpayer operating more than one eligible project in Missouri be allowed to offset more than twenty-five percent of the taxpayer's business income in any tax period. That portion of the taxpayer's income attributed to the eligible project as referenced in subdivision (1) of this subsection, for which the credits allowed in sections 135.110 and 135.225 and subsection 3 of this section, may apply, shall be determined in the same manner as prescribed in subdivision (6) of section 135.100. That portion of the taxpayer's franchise tax attributed to the eligible project for which the remediation tax credit may offset, shall be determined in the same manner as prescribed in paragraph (a) of subdivision (6) of section 135.100.

7. Taxpayers claiming the state tax benefits allowed in subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection 1 of this section shall be required to file all applicable tax credit applications, forms and schedules prescribed by the director during the taxpayer's tax period immediately after the tax period in which the eligible project was first put into use. Otherwise, the taxpayer's right to claim such state tax benefits shall be forfeited. Unused business facility and enterprise zone tax credits shall not be carried forward but shall be initially claimed for the tax period during which the eligible project was first capable of being used, and during any applicable subsequent tax periods.

8. Taxpayers claiming the remediation tax credit allowed in subsection 3 of this section shall be required to file all applicable tax credit applications, forms and schedules prescribed by the director during the taxpayer's tax period immediately after the tax period in which the eligible project was first put into use, or during the taxpayer's tax period immediately after the tax period in which the voluntary remediation activities were performed.

9. The recipient of remediation tax credits, for the purpose of this subsection referred to as assignor, may assign, sell or transfer, in whole or in part, the remediation tax credit allowed in subsection 3 of this section to any other person, for the purpose of this subsection referred to as assignee. To perfect the transfer, the assignor shall provide written notice to the director of the assignor's intent to transfer the tax credits to the assignee, the date the transfer is effective, the assignee's name, address and the assignee's tax period and the amount of tax credits to be transferred. The number of tax periods during which the assignee may subsequently claim the tax credits shall not exceed twenty tax periods, less the number of tax periods the assignor previously claimed the credits before the transfer occurred.

10. In the case where an operator and assignor of an eligible project has been certified to claim state tax benefits allowed in subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection 1 of this section, and sells or otherwise transfers title of the eligible project to another taxpayer or assignee who continues the same or substantially similar operations at the eligible project, the director shall allow the assignee to claim the credits for a period of time to be determined by the director; except that, the total number of tax periods the tax credits may be earned by the assignor and the assignee shall not exceed ten. To perfect the transfer, the assignor shall provide written notice to the director of the assignor's intent to transfer the tax credits to the assignee, the date the transfer is effective, the assignee's name, address, and the assignee's tax period, and the amount of tax credits to be transferred.

11. For the purpose of the state tax benefits described in this section, in the case of a corporation described in section 143.471 or partnership, in computing Missouri's tax liability, such state benefits shall be allowed to the following:

- (1) The shareholders of the corporation described in section 143.471;
- (2) The partners of the partnership.

The credit provided in this subsection shall be apportioned to the entities described in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection in proportion to their share of ownership on the last day of the taxpayer's tax period.

12. For each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2013, no more than twenty million dollars in tax credits shall be authorized under the provisions of section 447.700 to 447.718.”; and

The tax credits authorized under this section shall be nontransferable. To the extent tax credit issued under this section exceeds a taxpayer's state income tax liability, such excess shall be considered an overpayment of tax and shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

2. The director of the department of revenue shall promulgate rules and regulations to administer the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2007, shall be invalid and void.]”;

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 6

Amend Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 26, 11 and 31, Page 12, Section 143.071, Line 5 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“143.121. 1. The Missouri adjusted gross income of a resident individual shall be the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income subject to the modifications in this section.

2. There shall be added to the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income:

(1) The amount of any federal income tax refund received for a prior year which resulted in a Missouri income tax benefit;

(2) Interest on certain governmental obligations excluded from federal gross income by Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code. The previous sentence shall not apply to interest on obligations of the state of Missouri or any of its political subdivisions or authorities and shall not apply to the interest described in subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section. The amount added pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by the amounts applicable to such interest that would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the taxpayer except only for the application of Section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code. The reduction shall only be made if it is at least five hundred dollars;

(3) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 to the extent the amount deducted relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent the amount deducted exceeds the amount that would have been deductible pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as in effect on January 1, 2002;

(4) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable income for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, other than the deduction allowed by Section 172(b)(1)(G) and Section 172(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for a net operating loss the taxpayer claims in the tax year in which the net operating loss occurred or carries forward for a period of more than twenty years and carries backward for more than two years. Any amount of net operating loss taken against federal taxable income but disallowed for Missouri income tax purposes pursuant to this subdivision after June 18, 2002, may be carried forward and taken against any income on the Missouri income tax return for a period of not more than twenty years from the year of the initial loss; and

(5) For nonresident individuals in all taxable years ending on or after December 31, 2006, the amount of any property taxes paid to another state or a political subdivision of another state for which a deduction was allowed on such nonresident's federal return in the taxable year unless such state, political subdivision of a state, or the District of Columbia allows a subtraction from income for property taxes paid to this state for purposes of calculating income for the income tax for such state, political subdivision of a state, or the District of Columbia.

3. There shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the following amounts to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from Missouri income taxes pursuant to the laws of the United States. The amount subtracted pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the described obligations or securities and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this subdivision. The reduction in the previous sentence shall only apply to the extent that such expenses including amortizable bond premiums are deducted in determining the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income or included in the taxpayer's Missouri itemized deduction. The reduction shall only be made if the expenses total at least five hundred dollars;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis to the taxpayer for Missouri income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes on December 31, 1972, that does not exceed such difference in basis. If a gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to one-half of such portion of the gain;

(3) The amount necessary to prevent the taxation pursuant to this chapter of any annuity or other amount of income or gain which was properly included in income or gain and was taxed pursuant to the laws of Missouri for a taxable year prior to January 1, 1973, to the taxpayer, or to a decedent by reason of whose death the taxpayer acquired the right to receive the income or gain, or to a trust or estate from which the taxpayer received the income or gain;

(4) Accumulation distributions received by a taxpayer as a beneficiary of a trust to the extent that the same are included in federal adjusted gross income;

(5) The amount of any state income tax refund for a prior year which was included in the federal adjusted gross income;

(6) The portion of capital gain specified in section 135.357 that would otherwise be included in federal adjusted gross income;

(7) The amount that would have been deducted in the computation of federal taxable income pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect on January 1, 2002, to the extent that amount relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent that amount exceeds the amount actually deducted pursuant to Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002;

(8) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the amount of any income received for military service while the taxpayer serves in a combat zone which is included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise excluded therefrom. As used in this section, “combat zone” means any area which the President of the United States by Executive Order designates as an area in which Armed Forces of the United States are or have engaged in combat. Service is performed in a combat zone only if performed on or after the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the commencing of combat activities in such zone, and on or before the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the termination of combatant activities in such zone; [and]

(9) For all tax years ending on or after July 1, 2002, with respect to qualified property that is sold or otherwise disposed of during a taxable year by a taxpayer and for which an addition modification was made under subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, the amount by which addition modification made under subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section on qualified property has not been recovered through the additional subtractions provided in subdivision (7) of this subsection; and

(10) An amount equal to three thousand dollars for any taxpayer that has previous military service in a combat zone and if discharged, under honorable conditions.

4. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income the taxpayer’s share of the Missouri fiduciary adjustment provided in section 143.351.

5. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income the modifications provided in section 143.411.

6. In addition to the modifications to a taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income in this section, to calculate Missouri adjusted gross income there shall be subtracted from the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income any gain recognized pursuant to Section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, arising from compulsory or involuntary conversion of property as a result of condemnation or the imminence thereof.

7. (1) As used in this subsection, “qualified health insurance premium” means the amount paid during the tax year by such taxpayer for any insurance policy primarily providing health care coverage for the taxpayer, the taxpayer’s spouse, or the taxpayer’s dependents.

(2) In addition to the subtractions in subsection 3 of this section, one hundred percent of the amount of qualified health insurance premiums shall be subtracted from the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income to the extent the amount paid for such premiums is included in federal taxable income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with proof of the amount of qualified health insurance premiums paid.

8. (1) Beginning January 1, 2009, in addition to the subtractions provided in this section, one hundred percent of the cost incurred by a taxpayer for a home energy audit conducted by an entity certified by the department of natural resources under section 640.153 or the implementation of any energy efficiency recommendations made in such an audit shall be subtracted from the taxpayer’s federal adjusted gross income to the extent the amount paid for any such activity is included in federal taxable income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with a summary of any recommendations made in a qualified home energy audit, the name and certification number of the qualified home energy auditor who conducted the audit, and proof of the amount paid for any activities under this subsection for which a deduction is claimed. The taxpayer shall also provide a copy of the summary of any recommendations made in a qualified home energy audit to the department of natural resources.

(2) At no time shall a deduction claimed under this subsection by an individual taxpayer or taxpayers filing combined returns exceed one thousand dollars per year or cumulatively exceed two thousand dollars per taxpayer or taxpayers filing combined returns.

(3) Any deduction claimed under this subsection shall be claimed for the tax year in which the qualified home energy audit was conducted or in which the implementation of the energy efficiency recommendations occurred. If implementation of the energy efficiency recommendations occurred during more than one year, the deduction may be claimed in more than one year, subject to the limitations provided under subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(4) A deduction shall not be claimed for any otherwise eligible activity under this subsection if such activity qualified for and received any rebate or other incentive through a state-sponsored energy program or through an electric corporation, gas corporation, electric cooperative, or municipally owned utility.

9. The provisions of subsection 8 of this section shall expire on December 31, 2013.”; and

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-SECOND DAY—THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 2013

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“God is love. He didn’t need us. But he wanted us. And that is the most amazing thing.” (Rick Warren)

Creator God, we are so aware that You are a loving God who wants us to love one another and especially those You have given us to love. It is such an amazing thing to know that our human relationships reflect, in such a finite way, the love You have for Your creation. Yet help us to express this love in the most caring of ways so others may know Your love through us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY—TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2013

President Kinder in the Chair.

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue.” (Proverbs 18:21)

Almighty God, we are thankful for this time to share ideas and assist and improve the bills before us. Our words have great importance and power for those we address our concerns and direct our efforts. We pray that You will guide our tongues, for we know they have the power to change one’s life simply by the words we speak. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Senator Richard announced photographers from KRCG-TV and KOMU-TV were given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber.

The Lieutenant Governor was present.

Senator Nieves offered Senate Resolution No. 472, regarding Kenneth O. Baker, Saint Louis, which was adopted.

Senator Nieves offered Senate Resolution No. 473, regarding Merrill C. Hinzpeter, Chesterfield, which was adopted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 13

WHEREAS, the Army 2020 Force Structure Realignment Programmatic Environmental Assessment (PEA) includes a plan to reduce the Army's end strength and realign its forces over the coming years which will affect 21 Army installations across the country, including Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, these Army reductions and realignments that may occur from Fiscal Year 2013-2020 will result in significant impacts to a variety of economic measures in communities neighboring these 21 installations; and

WHEREAS, the PEA specifically references the impact of force structure reductions at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, including reduction in employment, income, regional population, and sales; and

WHEREAS, Fort Leonard Wood currently has a permanent workforce of approximately 9,500 soldiers and Army civilians, not including trainees, students, family members, other service members, contractors, and non-full time employees; and

WHEREAS, the Programmatic Environmental Assessment proposes a loss of up to 3,900 of these soldiers and Army civilians, which is a loss of 41% of permanent staff and an added loss of 450 direct and 504 indirect jobs across the community; and

WHEREAS, the economic impact across the three-county region, as defined in the study, would be devastating. The study shows a loss of 8% in annual sales, 6.75% in tax revenue, 11.21% in employment, and 7.5% in population; and

WHEREAS, as the study notes, only a portion of the potential loss is considered in the study. The study states that there may also be a loss of 10% of training load and an unknown percentage of other services not factored into the analysis. With this additional loss, the overall loss would be catastrophic for the region; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the impact would be felt in Pulaski County, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the study projects a loss of almost 3,700 K-12 school students in the region, with a majority of the loss in the Waynesville School District that provides K-12 schools on Fort Leonard Wood and the immediate vicinity; and

WHEREAS, Waynesville School District has approximately 6,000 students enrolled today. Assuming 85% of the loss in that school district, the district would realize a 52% loss of its current enrollment; and

WHEREAS, to continue to provide the highest level of quality education, the Waynesville School District has recently invested in several new facilities, a high school, elementary school, and career center. These facilities are heavily dependent on continuing federal impact aid for construction bond funding. Based on the projected level of impact aid loss, the district would be placed in serious financial jeopardy; and

WHEREAS, the impact of these losses would be felt not only in the communities surrounding Fort Leonard Wood, but the entire State of Missouri. The full impact of the state if the troop reduction goes forward has yet to be determined, but it is certain it would be significant, because Fort Leonard Wood is one of the largest employers in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Fort Leonard Wood is an important asset for the Army and the Department of Defense through pioneering the concepts of multiple schools at one location, and multi-service training and education; and

WHEREAS, the Army has made a multi-billion dollar investment in new infrastructure at the installation and its operating costs are among the lowest in the country. Fort Leonard Wood should be considered for additional mission growths, not reductions; and

WHEREAS, final decisions will be made over the next several years. The projected $233 million in economic loss and 6,441 jobs affected as a result of the proposed Army reductions will have a significant impact to the State of Missouri and catastrophic to the region:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby strongly urge the Department of Defense to reconsider the reduction and realignment of Army forces at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, and continue full operation at this installation, which has one of the lowest installation operating costs in the country; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Secretary of the United States Department of Defense, the United States Army Environment Command, and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Senator Lamping moved that SCR 5, with SCS, be taken up for adoption, which motion prevailed.

Senator Lamping moved that SCS for SCR 5 be adopted, which motion prevailed.

On motion of Senator Lamping, SCR 5, as amended by SCS, was adopted by the following vote:

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and adopted HCR 9.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, Article I, Section VIII of the United States Constitution requires the United States Congress to regulate the value of our currency and maintain strict control over the monetary policy of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, since its institution in 1913, the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States, by inflating the money supply and manipulating interest rates, has eroded the purchasing power of the dollar by approximately 95%, created price instability, and has contributed to boom and bust business cycles; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States and the United States Treasury have levied the burden of debt on American taxpayers to the degree of several trillion dollars; and

WHEREAS, a partial audit of the Federal Reserve has informed the American people that trillions of dollars were used to bail out foreign banks without the consent of the United States Congress; and

WHEREAS, agreements made by the Federal Reserve with foreign powers and foreign banking institutions should be subject to Congressional oversight; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Reserve refuses to fully disclose the details of its emergency lending practices; and

WHEREAS, allowing the Federal Reserve to operate our nation's monetary system without full disclosure and transparency has led to a lower quality of life for the American people and abuse verified by the United States Government Accountability Office in its 2011 Report to Congress; and

WHEREAS, a complete audit of the Federal Reserve, for the first time in its history, would provide answers to the American people about how our money is being spent, where our money is being spent, and at what cost:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby strongly urge the United States Congress to pass the Federal Reserve Transparency Act to require a complete audit of the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States in order to hold the Federal Reserve accountable to the United States Congress and the American people in accordance with Article I, Section VIII of the United States Constitution, which pertains to monetary policy that directly impacts the nation's immediate economic environment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Ben Bernanke, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States; Timothy Geithner, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States; John Boehner, Speaker of the United States House of Representatives; Harry Reid, Majority Leader of the United States Senate; and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and adopted HCR 7.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri has a rich and complex history; and

WHEREAS, the lives of Missourians are enriched by a broad and deep understanding of that history; and

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri was formally admitted into the Union of the United States of America on August 10, 1821; and

WHEREAS, the year 2021 marks the bicentennial of the State of Missouri's admission into the Union; and

WHEREAS, commemorative events drawing attention to the passage of historical milestones offer significant opportunities for generating interest in documenting and celebrating the exceptionalism of a state's history; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri General Assembly, through Chapter 183 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, authorized the State Historical Society of Missouri to act as a "trustee" of the state's history; and

WHEREAS, the State Historical Society of Missouri is responsible for collecting, preserving and sharing the materials for the study of the history of Missouri and the heritage of Missourians; and

WHEREAS, since its creation in 1898, the State Historical Society of Missouri has become the premier institution for the study and celebration of Missouri state and local history and aspires to build the Center for Missouri Studies; and

WHEREAS, statewide commemorations require significant preparation and planning over multiple years:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby direct the State Historical Society of Missouri to develop plans, ideas and proposals to commemorate and celebrate the State of Missouri's bicentennial; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the State Historical Society of Missouri ready itself to provide guidance and direction to a statewide effort to promote and celebrate the State of Missouri's rich and complex history through and beyond a bicentennial celebration in the year 2021; and

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

The following messages were received from the House of Representatives through its Chief Clerk:

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and adopted HCR 16.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 16

WHEREAS, women have served honorably and with courage in all of America's wars and conflicts since the American Revolution; and

WHEREAS, the United States military has evolved from a predominantly male force to a force of over 14% women who are currently serving on active duty, and nearly 17% serving in the Reserves and National Guard; and

WHEREAS, the population of women veterans is increasing exponentially from 1.1 million in 1980 to a projection of nearly 2 million by 2020, and will comprise more than 10% of the veteran population; and

WHEREAS, the projected population of male veterans is expected to continue to decline; and

WHEREAS, given that an unprecedented number of women are serving in the military and participating in Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom, the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) is working to provide consistent, comprehensive, and quality health care and benefits to women veterans of all eras; and

WHEREAS, the number of women veterans has increased over the last decade because there is an increasing number and proportion of women who are entering and leaving the military, and women are living longer than men and have a younger age distribution compared to male veterans; and

WHEREAS, even though the VA has been at the forefront of health care and lifestyle solutions affecting an aging male population, there is now a growing need to improve health care services for women veterans, ensure clinicians are properly trained to provide primary care and gender specific care to women of all ages, and identify innovative courses of treatment and solutions to obstacles that are unique to women veterans; and

WHEREAS, with a rapidly increasing number of women serving in the military today and returning from deployments as seasoned veterans, and some with exposure to combat, VA facilities and veterans service organizations are working to ensure that the post-deployment mental and physical health needs unique to women veterans are also met; and

WHEREAS, even though the roles of women in the military have changed over time and will continue to change, they deserve to be acknowledged for their military service and treated with equal respect:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby encourages the Missouri Veterans Commission and its women veterans state coordinator to work in conjunction with the National Foundation for Women Legislators and the Center for Women Veterans at the United States Department of Veterans Affairs to reach out to all women veterans within the State of Missouri to encourage them to bring their specific needs and concerns to the attention of agency officials so that state legislators and agency officials may work together to identify unique issues impacting women veterans and consider policy solutions that will improve the quality of life for women veterans within this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly formally honors all of the women in this state who have heroically answered their call to duty and recognizes the important role women have played in shaping this great nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and adopted HCR 19.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 19

WHEREAS, the United States relies - and will continue to rely for many years - on gasoline, diesel, and jet fuel, as well as renewable and alternative sources of energy; and

WHEREAS, in order to fuel our economy, the United States will need more oil and natural gas while also requiring additional alternative energy sources; and

WHEREAS, the United States accounts for 20% of world energy consumption and is the world's largest petroleum consumer. The United States consumes more than 15 million barrels of oil each day, with forecast suggesting that this will not change for decades; and

WHEREAS, even with new technology, oil discoveries, alternative fuels, and conservation efforts, the United States will remain dependent on imported energy for decades to come. A secure supply of crude oil is not only needed for Americans to continue to heat their homes, cook their food, and drive their vehicles, but to allow the United States economy to thrive and grow free from the potential threats and disruptions of crude oil supply from less secure parts of the world; and

WHEREAS, the growing production of conflict-free oil from Canada's oil sands and the Bakken formation in Saskatchewan, Montana, North Dakota, and South Dakota can replace crude imported from countries that do not share American values, but additional pipeline capacity to refineries in the United States Midwest and Gulf Coast is required; and

WHEREAS, increasing energy imports from Canada makes sense for the United States. Canada is a trusted neighbor with a stable democratic government, strong environmental standards equal to that of the United States, and some of the most stringent human rights and worker protection laws in the world; and

WHEREAS, improvements in production technology have reduced the carbon footprint of Canadian oil sands development by 26% on a per barrel basis since 1990. Oil sands production accounts for 6.9% of Canada's greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and 0.1% (1/100th) of global GHG emissions. Total emissions from Canada's oil sands sector was 48 megatons in 2010, equivalent to 0.5% of United States GHG emissions. Oil sands crude has similar CO₂ emissions to other heavy oils and is 6% more carbon-intensive than the average crude refined in the United States on a wells-to-wheels basis; and

WHEREAS, the 57 refineries in the Gulf Coast region provide a total refining capacity of approximately 8.7 million barrels per day (bpd), or half of United States refining capacity. In 2011, these refineries imported approximately 5 million bpd of crude oil from more than 30 countries, with the top four suppliers being Mexico (22%), Saudi Arabia (17%), Venezuela (16%), and Nigeria (9%). Imports from Mexico and Venezuela are declining as production from those countries decreases and supply contracts expire. Once completed, TransCanada's Keystone XL Pipeline and Gulf Coast Expansion projects could displace roughly 40% of the oil the United States currently imports from the Persian Gulf and Venezuela; and

WHEREAS, the Keystone XL Pipeline project has been subject to the most thorough public consultation process of any proposed United States pipeline, and the subject of multiple environmental impacts statements and several United States Department of State studies which have concluded that it poses the least impact to the environment and is much safer than other modes of transporting crude oil; and

WHEREAS, the original Keystone Pipeline, which spans across the northern part of Missouri, supplies over 500,000 barrels of North American crude oil to American refiners in the Midwest. When completed, the Keystone XL Pipeline will carry 830,000 barrels of North American crude oil to American refineries in the Gulf Coast region which will make its way back to Missouri in the form of gasoline, diesel, and jet fuel; and

WHEREAS, the Keystone XL Pipeline project will create approximately 9,000 construction jobs. The Gulf Coast Expansion project is a $2.3 billion project that has created approximately 4,000 construction jobs. Combined, these projects support yet another 7,000 manufacturing jobs. 75% of the pipe used to build the Keystone XL Pipeline in the United States will come from North American mills, including half made by United States workers. Goods for the pipeline valued at approximately $800 million have already been sourced from United States manufacturers:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby strongly:

- (1) Support continued and increased development and delivery of oil derived from North American oil reserves to United States refineries;
- (2) Urge the United States Congress to support continued and increased development and delivery of oil from Canada to the United States;
- (3) Urge the President of the United States to support the continued and increased importation of oil derived from the Bakken formation in Montana, North Dakota, and South Dakota, as well as Canadian oil sands;
- (4) Urge the United States Secretary of State to approve the newly routed pipeline application from TransCanada to reduce dependence on unstable governments, create new jobs, improve our national security, and strengthen ties with an important ally; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President Pro Tem of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and passed HB 85, entitled:

An Act to repeal section 304.180, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to emergency utility response permits.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the state of Missouri has executed 353 people since becoming a state, and 47 more currently sit on death row; and

WHEREAS, a team assembled by the American Bar Association, in its review of the death penalty in Missouri, found the state in compliance with only 9 out of 95 best practices to ensure that innocent people are not executed; and

WHEREAS, several people have been wrongfully convicted of murder in the state because of eyewitness misidentification, false confessions, and untruthful jailhouse informant testimony; and

WHEREAS, other states, including Illinois in 2011, have abolished the death penalty and noted the significant number of people on death row who were later found innocent; and

WHEREAS, the state's deputy public defender has testified that abolishing the death penalty would alleviate attorney shortages within the state's public defender system without the need for additional appropriations because staff members currently assigned to capital cases could be reassigned to other divisions; and

WHEREAS, death penalty cases cost the underfunded Missouri state public defender system 7 to 10 times more to defend than other murder cases; and

WHEREAS, a comparison of the costs of death penalty cases to other murder cases in the state of Kansas found that costs of adjudicating the death penalty cases exceeded the costs of other homicide cases by 70 percent; and

WHEREAS, a study in Florida determined the state would save $51 million each year if it abolished the death penalty; and

WHEREAS, the death penalty has been ranked by a national survey of police chiefs as the least effective tool for reducing violent crime and eighty-eight percent of criminologists have found the death penalty does not curtail incidents of murder; and

WHEREAS, a comprehensive study of the costs of the death penalty is necessary to determine how much this ineffective public policy is costing the state of Missouri in these times of significant budgetary shortages; and

WHEREAS, Section 23.170, RSMo, requires the Oversight Division of the Committee on Legislative Research to conduct audits as directed by any concurrent resolution duly adopted by the General Assembly:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby direct the Oversight Division of the Committee on Legislative Research to study the costs, both direct and indirect, born by county and state governments in the prosecution and defense of at least ten cases filed on or after January 1, 1990, in which a death sentence was sought and was imposed and compare such costs to the costs of an equal number of first degree murder cases filed on or after January 1, 1990, in which a death sentence was not sought and the defendant was sentenced to life without the possibility for parole, and an equal number of first degree murder cases filed on or after January 1, 1990, in which a death sentence was sought, but the defendant was sentenced to life without the possibility for parole at the conclusion of a sentencing phase. The comparison shall include, as estimated by the Oversight Division to be related to the cases, the costs of staff salaries, benefits, contracts for assistance, and operating expenses for: the attorney general's office; the department of corrections, including costs related to housing inmates sentenced to death and carrying out the death penalty; prosecuting and circuit attorneys, including expenses in preparing for the presentation of aggravating and mitigating circumstances with respect to sentencing proceedings in death penalty cases, expert witness fees, and additional investigations; the Missouri state public defender system; and the supreme court, courts of appeals, and circuit courts; and

In times of sorrow and hurt, troubles and heartaches and especially those times we have failed You, help us to remember that You are truly our Father and we are Your children. Let us with boldness and with confidence ask as dear children to trust always in Your love and mercy and find grace in times of need. And we pray for Senator McKenna’s family at the death of his grandmother. We pray for Your comfort to be with them through their grief, remembering the grace and mercy You have for Your children. 3. The Missouri angel investment incentive act shall be administered by the regional SBTDCs and the department, with the primary goal of encouraging individuals to provide seed-capital financing for emerging Missouri businesses engaged in the development, implementation, and commercialization of innovative technologies, products, and services. Each regional SBTDC shall establish a regional committee consisting of no fewer than three but no more than five persons for the purpose of reviewing applications from businesses requesting designation as a qualified Missouri business and allocating the amount of available tax credits among the qualified Missouri businesses. The department shall establish its own rules of procedure, including the form and substance of applications to be used by each regional SBTDC and the criteria to be considered by each regional SBTDC when evaluating a qualified Missouri business, such applications and criteria to be not less than the minimum requirements set forth in subsection 5 of this section. The department shall issue tax credits to qualified investors that make cash investments in qualified Missouri businesses that have been allocated available tax credits by a regional SBTDC.

4. (1) A tax credit shall be allowed for an investor's cash investment in the qualified securities of a qualified Missouri business. The credit shall be in a total amount equal to fifty percent of such investor's cash investment in any qualified Missouri business, subject to the limitations set forth in this subsection. This tax credit may be used in its entirety in the taxable year in which the cash investment is made except that no tax credit shall be allowed in a year prior to the year beginning January 1, 2014. If the amount by which that portion of the credit allowed by this section exceeds the investor's liability in any one taxable year, the remaining portion of the credit may be carried forward five years or until the total amount of the credit is used, whichever occurs first. If the investor is a permitted entity investor, the credit provided by this section shall be claimed by the owners of the permitted entity investor in proportion to their equity investment in the permitted entity investor.

(2) A cash investment in a qualified security shall be deemed to have been made on the date of acquisition of the qualified security, as such date is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(3) The director of the department of revenue shall not allow tax credits of more than fifty thousand dollars for a single qualified Missouri business or a total of two hundred fifty thousand dollars in tax credits for a single year per investor who is a natural person or owner of a permitted entity investor. No tax credits authorized by this section and section 348.274 shall be allowed for any cash investments in qualified securities for any year beginning after December 31, 2019. The total amount of tax credits allocated under this section shall not exceed six million dollars per year.

(4) At the beginning of each calendar year, the department shall equally designate the tax credits available during that year to each regional SBTDC. At the beginning of each calendar quarter, the department shall allocate to each regional SBTDC one-fourth of the total tax credits designated to such regional SBTDC for the calendar year such that the regional SBTDC can allocate tax credits among the qualified Missouri businesses. The department shall then issue tax credits to qualified investors for cash investments in such qualified Missouri businesses during that calendar quarter.

(5) At the end of each calendar quarter, each regional SBTDC shall report to the department any unallocated tax credits for the preceding quarter. Such report shall meet the requirements set forth in section 348.274. The department shall aggregate all such tax credits and reallocate them equally among the regional SBTDCs as soon as possible during the next consecutive calendar quarter. Each regional SBTDC shall receive such reallocation in addition to the new allocation of designated tax credits for such quarter.

(6) During the fourth calendar quarter, a regional SBTDC in need of additional tax credits for transactions closing in the fourth calendar quarter may request that another regional SBTDC with unallocated tax credits permit such unallocated tax credits to be allocated by the requesting SBTDC. No regional SBTDC shall be required to grant such request. When a granting SBTDC transfers the allocation of the unallocated tax credits to a requesting SBTDC under this subdivision, the granting SBTDC shall provide to the requesting SBTDC a written confirmation authorizing such transfer, the granting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274, and the requesting SBTDC shall include a copy of such written confirmation in its reports provided under section 348.274.

5. (1) Before an investor may be entitled to receive tax credits under this section and section 348.274, such investor shall have made a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified Missouri business. The business shall have been approved by a regional SBTDC as a qualified Missouri business before the date on which the cash investment was made. To be designated as a qualified Missouri business, a business shall make application to a regional SBTDC in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The application by a business to a regional SBTDC shall be in the form and substance as required by the department, but shall include at least the following:

- (a) The name of the business and certified copies of the organizational documents of the business;
- (b) A business plan, including a description of the business and the management, product, market, and financial plan of the business;

- (e) A statement of the amount, timing, and projected use of the proceeds to be raised from the proposed sale of qualified securities; and
- (f) Such other information as the regional SBTDC or the department may reasonably request.

(3) The designation of a business as a qualified Missouri business shall be made by the regional SBTDC, and such designation shall be renewed annually. A business shall be so designated if the regional SBTDC determines, based upon the application submitted by the business and any additional investigation the regional SBTDC shall make, that such business meets the criteria established by the department. Such criteria shall include at least the following:

- (a) The business shall not have had annual gross revenues of more than five million dollars in the most recent tax year of the business;
- (b) Businesses that are not bioscience businesses shall have been in operation for less than five years, and bioscience businesses shall have been in operation for less than ten years;
- (c) The ability of investors in the business to receive tax credits for cash investments in qualified securities of the business is beneficial, because funding otherwise available for the business is not available on commercially reasonable terms;
- (d) The business shall not have ownership interests including, but not limited to, common or preferred shares of stock, that can be traded via a public stock exchange before the date that a qualifying investment is made;
- (e) The business shall not be engaged primarily in any one or more of the following enterprises:

- a. The business of banking, savings and loan or lending institutions, credit or finance, or financial brokerage or investments;

 - j. Any business raising money primarily to purchase real estate, land, or fixtures; and

 - (m) The business shall satisfy all other requirements of this section and section 348.274.

- (5) A qualified Missouri business shall have the burden of proof to demonstrate to the regional SBTDC the qualifications of the business under this section.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section and section 348.274 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2013, shall be invalid and void.

348.274. 1. (1) Each regional SBTDC is authorized to allocate tax credits to qualified Missouri businesses. The department is authorized to issue tax credits to qualified investors in such qualified Missouri businesses. Such tax credits shall be allocated to those qualified Missouri businesses which, as determined by the regional SBTDC, are most likely to provide the greatest economic benefit to the region, the state, or both. The regional SBTDC may allocate, and the department may issue, whole or partial tax credits based on the regional SBTDC's assessment of the qualified Missouri businesses. The regional SBTDC may consider numerous factors in such assessment, including but not limited to, the quality and experience of the management team, the size of the estimated market opportunity, the risk from current or future competition, the ability to defend intellectual property, the quality and utility of the business model, and the quality and reasonableness of financial projections for the business.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business for which a regional SBTDC has allocated tax credits such that the department can issue tax credits to the qualified investors of such qualified Missouri business shall submit to the regional SBTDC a report before such tax credits are issued. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of this report to the department. Such report shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business;

(b) Proof of such investment, including copies of the securities purchase agreements and cancelled checks or wire transfer receipts; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

2. (1) The state of Missouri shall not be held liable for any damages to any investor that makes an investment in any qualified security of a qualified Missouri business, any business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down, or any investor that makes an investment in a business that applies to be designated as a qualified Missouri business and is turned down.

(2) Each qualified Missouri business shall have the obligation to notify the regional SBTDC that allocated tax credits to the qualified Missouri business and the department in a timely manner of any changes in the qualifications of the business or in the eligibility of investors to claim a tax credit for cash investment in a qualified security.

(3) The department shall provide the information specified in subdivision (3) of subsection 4 of this section to the department of revenue on an annual basis. The department shall conduct an annual review of the activities undertaken under this section and section 348.273 to ensure that tax credits issued under this section and section 348.273 are issued in compliance with the provisions of this section and section 348.273 or rules and regulations promulgated by each regional SBTDC or the department with respect to this section and section 348.273.

(4) If the department determines that a business is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of this section and section 348.273 to maintain its designation, the department, by written notice, shall inform the business that such business will lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business one hundred twenty days from the date of mailing of the notice unless such business corrects the deficiencies and is once again in compliance with the requirements for designation.

(5) At the end of the one hundred twenty-day period, if the qualified Missouri business is still not in substantial compliance, the department shall send a notice of loss of designation to the business, each regional SBTDC, the director of the department of revenue and to all known investors in the business.

(6) A business shall lose its designation as a qualified Missouri business under this section and section 348.273 by moving its operations outside Missouri within ten years after receiving financial assistance under this section and section 348.273.

(7) In the event that a business loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business, such business shall be precluded from being issued any additional tax credits with respect to the business, shall be precluded from being approved as a qualified Missouri business and shall repay any financial assistance to the regional SBTDC, in an amount to be determined by the regional SBTDC. Each qualified Missouri business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall enter into a repayment agreement with the regional SBTDC specifying the terms of such repayment obligation.

(8) Investors in a qualified Missouri business shall be entitled to keep all of the tax credits properly issued to such investors under this section and section 348.273.

(9) The portions of documents and other materials submitted to any regional SBTDC or the department that contain trade secrets shall be kept confidential and shall be maintained in a secured environment by the regional SBTDC and the department, as applicable. For the purposes of this section and section 348.273, “trade secrets” means any customer lists, formula, compound, production data, or compilation of information that will allow individuals within a commercial concern using such information the means to fabricate, produce, or compound an article of trade or perform any service having commercial value, which gives the user an opportunity to obtain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use such service.

(10) Each regional SBTDC and the department may prepare and adopt procedures concerning the performance of the duties placed upon each respective entity by this section and section 348.273.

3. Any qualified investor who makes a cash investment in a qualified security of a qualified Missouri business may transfer the tax credits such qualified investor may receive under subsection 4 of section 348.273 to any natural person. Such transferee may claim the tax credit against the transferee’s Missouri income tax liability as provided in subdivision (1) of subsection 4 of section 348.273, subject to all restrictions and limitations set forth in this section and section 348.273. Only the full credit for any one investment shall be transferred and this interest shall only be transferred one time. Documentation of any tax credit transfer under this section shall be provided by the qualified investor in the manner required by the department.

4. (1) Each qualified Missouri business for which tax credits have been issued under this section and section 348.273 shall report to the applicable regional SBTDC on an annual basis, on or before February first. The regional SBTDC shall provide copies of the reports to the department. Such reports shall include the following:

(a) The name, address, and taxpayer identification number of each investor who has made cash investment in the qualified securities of the qualified Missouri business and has received tax credits for this investment during the preceding year;

(b) The amounts of these cash investments by each investor and a description of the qualified securities issued in consideration of such cash investments; and

(c) Any additional information as the regional SBTDC or the department may reasonably require under this section and section 348.273.

(2) Each regional SBTDC shall report quarterly to the department on the allocation of the tax credits in the preceding calendar quarter. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of applications the regional SBTDC received;

(b) The number and ratio of successful applications to unsuccessful applications;

(c) The amount of tax credits allocated but not issued in the previous quarter, including what percentage was allocated to individuals and what percentage was allocated to investment firms;

(d) The amount of unallocated tax credits; and

(e) Such other information as reasonably agreed upon by each regional SBTDC and the department.

(3) The department shall also report annually to the governor, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives, on or before April first, on the allocation and issuance of the tax credits. Such reports shall include:

(a) The amount of tax credits issued in the previous fiscal year, including what percentage was issued to individuals and what percentage was issued to investment firms;

(b) The types of businesses that benefitted from the tax credits;

(c) The amount of allocated but unissued tax credits and the information about the unissued tax credits set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection;

(d) Any aggregate job creation or capital investment in the region that resulted from the use of the tax credits for a period of five years beginning from the date on which the tax credits were awarded;

(e) The manner in which the purpose of this section and section 348.273 has been carried out with regard to the region;

(f) The total cash investments made for the purchase of qualified securities of qualified Missouri businesses within the region during the preceding year and cumulatively since the effective date of this section and section 348.273;

(g) An estimate of jobs created and jobs preserved by cash investments made in qualified Missouri businesses within the region;

(h) An estimate of the multiplier effect on the economy of the region of the cash investments made under this section and section 348.273;

(i) Information regarding what businesses derived benefit from the tax credits remained in the region, what businesses ceased business, what businesses were purchased, and what businesses may have moved out-of-region or out-of-state and why.

(4) Any violation of the reporting requirements of this subsection by a qualified Missouri business may be grounds for the loss of designation of such qualified Missouri business, and such business that loses its designation as a qualified Missouri business shall be subject to the restrictions upon loss of designation set forth in subsection 2 of this section.

5. Notwithstanding sections 23.250 to 23.298 of the Missouri sunset act, sections 348.273 and 348.274 shall expire on December 31, 2019.”; and “249.424. 1. If approved by a majority of the voters voting on the proposal, and upon the adoption of a resolution by a majority of the sewer district’s board of trustees, any sewer district established and organized under this chapter, may levy and impose annually a fee not to exceed fifty dollars per year within its boundaries for the repair of lateral sewer service lines on or connecting residential property having six or less dwelling units, except that the fee shall not be imposed on property in the sewer district that is located within any city, town, village, or unincorporated areas of a county that already imposes a fee under section 249.422. Any sewer district that establishes or increases the fee used to repair any portion of the lateral sewer service line shall include all defective portions of the lateral sewer service line from the residential structure to its connection with the public sewer system line. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 448, the fee imposed pursuant to this chapter shall be imposed upon condominiums that have six or fewer condominium units per building and each condominium unit shall be responsible for its proportionate share of any fee charged pursuant to this chapter, and in addition, any condominium unit shall, if determined to be responsible for and served by its own individual lateral sewer line, be treated as an individual residence regardless of the number of units in the development. It shall be the responsibility of the condominium owner or condominium association who are of the opinion that they are not properly classified as provided in this section to notify the sewer district.

2. The question shall be submitted to the registered voters who reside within the boundaries of the sewer district, excluding any voters who live within the boundaries of any city, town, village, or unincorporated areas of a county that already imposes a fee under section 249.422. The question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

Shall a maximum charge not to exceed fifty dollars be assessed annually on residential property for each lateral sewer service line serving six or less dwelling units on that property and condominiums that have six or less condominium units per building and any condominium responsible for its own individual lateral sewer line to provide funds to pay the cost of certain repairs of those lateral sewer service lines which may be billed quarterly or annually?

☐ YES

☐ NO

3. If a majority of the voters voting thereon approve the proposal provided for in subsection 2 of this section, any sewer district established and organized under this chapter may, upon the adoption of a resolution by a majority of the sewer district's board of trustees, collect and administer such fee in order to protect the public health, welfare, peace, and safety. The funds collected shall be deposited in a special account to be used solely for the purpose of paying for all or a portion of the costs reasonably associated with and necessary to administer and carry out the defective lateral sewer service line repairs. All interest generated on deposited funds shall be accrued to the special account established for the repair of lateral sewer service lines.

4. The collector in any county containing a sewer district that adopts a resolution under this section to collect a fee for the repair of lateral sewer service lines may add such fee to the general tax levy bills of property owners within the boundaries of the sewer district, excluding property located in any city, town, village, or unincorporated areas of the county that already imposes a fee under section 249.422. All revenues received on such combined bill for the purpose of providing for the repair of lateral sewer service lines shall be separated from all other revenues so collected and credited to the special account established by the sewer district under subsection 3 of this section.

5. If a city, town, village, or county, which is within the sewer district and imposed a fee under section 249.422, later rescinds such fee after voters authorized the fee provided under this section, the sewer district may submit the question provided under subsection 2 of this section to the registered voters of such city, town, village, or county that have property within the boundaries of the sewer district. If a majority of votes voting on the proposal approve, the sewer district may levy and impose the fee as provided under this section on property within such city, town, village, or county.”; and

Any actual charges or fees by a state or local governmental entity not associated in any way with the water supply district may be passed on to their customers without a vote.

2. In any county with a charter form of government and with more than three hundred thousand but with fewer than four hundred fifty thousand inhabitants, if any water supply district does not actually process or treat sewage or wastewater but pays another governmental entity for providing such service, the water supply district shall not charge and collect from its customers a premium, fee, tax, assessment, or other charge however denominated more than the rate it actually pays to such other entity without a majority vote of the qualified voters of the water supply district voting thereon on any public election day in August or November. The charges may be set as a flat fee or based upon the amount of water supplied to the premises and shall be in addition to those charges which may be levied and collected for maintenance, repair and administration expenses as provided for in section 249.640. Any private water company, public water supply district, or municipality supplying water to the premises located within a sewer district shall, upon reasonable request, make available to such sewer district its records and books so that such sewer district may obtain therefrom such data as may be necessary to calculate the charges for sewer service. The county commission shall file with the recorder of deeds a similar notice when the delinquent amounts, plus interest and any recording fees or attorney's fees, have been paid in full. The lien hereby created may be enforced by suit or foreclosure.

3. Should a lien be placed upon a customer's property by a public sewer district for unpaid sewer charges, the lien shall have priority as and be enforced in the same manner as taxes levied for state and county purposes.

4. Should the sewer charges remain unpaid for a period in excess of three months, the district, after notice to the customer [by certified mail], shall have the authority at its discretion to disconnect the customer's sewer line from the district's line or request any private water company, public water supply district, or any municipality supplying water to the premises to discontinue service to the customer until such time as the sewer charges and all related costs of this section are paid.”; and

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 252, Page 1, In the Title, Line 3 of said page, by striking "the receipt, collection,"; and Further amend said bill and page, section A, line 3 of said page, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"50.535. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 50.525 to 50.745, the fee collected pursuant to subsections 10 and 11 of section 571.101 shall be deposited by the county treasurer into a separate interest-bearing fund to be known as the "County Sheriff's Revolving Fund" to be expended at the direction of the county or city sheriff or his or her designee as provided in this section.

2. No prior approval of the expenditures from this fund shall be required by the governing body of the county or city not within a county, nor shall any prior audit or encumbrance of the fund be required before any expenditure is made by the sheriff from this fund. This fund shall only be used by law enforcement agencies for the purchase of equipment, to provide training, and to make necessary expenditures to process applications for concealed carry [endorsements] permits or renewals, including but not limited to the purchase of equipment, information and data exchange, training, fingerprinting and background checks, employment of additional personnel, and any expenditure necessitated by an action under section 571.114 or 571.117. This fund may be audited by the state auditor's office or the appropriate auditing agency.

3. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the sheriff of every county, regardless of classification, is authorized to pay, from the sheriff's revolving fund, all reasonable and necessary costs and expenses for activities or services occasioned by compliance with sections 571.101 to 571.121. Such was the intent of the general assembly in original enactment of this section and sections 571.101 to 571.121, and it is made express by this section in light of the decision in Brooks v. State of Missouri, (Mo. Sup. Ct. February 26, 2004). The application and renewal fees to be charged pursuant to section 571.101 shall be based on the sheriff's good faith estimate, made during regular budgeting cycles, of the actual costs and expenses to be incurred by reason of compliance with sections 571.101 to 571.121. If the maximum fee permitted by section 571.101 is inadequate to cover the actual reasonable and necessary expenses in a given year, and there are not sufficient accumulated unexpended funds in the revolving fund, a sheriff may present specific and verified evidence of the unreimbursed expenses to the office of administration, which upon certification by the attorney general shall reimburse such sheriff for those expenses from an appropriation made for that purpose.

4. If pursuant to subsection [12] 13 of section 571.101, the sheriff of a county of the first classification designates one or more chiefs of police of any town, city, or municipality within such county to accept and process applications for [certificates of qualification to obtain a concealed carry endorsement] concealed carry permits, then that sheriff shall reimburse such chiefs of police, out of the moneys deposited into this fund, for any reasonable expenses related to accepting and processing such applications.”; and

Further amend said bill and page, section 302.065, line 17 of said page, by striking all of said line; and

Further amend said bill and section, page 2, lines 1-26 of said page, by striking all of said lines; and further amend said section by renumbering the remaining subsections accordingly; and

Further amend said bill and section, page 3, line 10 of said page, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

“302.181. 1. The license issued pursuant to the provisions of sections 302.010 to 302.340 shall be in such form as the director shall prescribe, but the license shall be a card made of plastic or other comparable material. All licenses shall be manufactured of materials and processes that will prohibit, as nearly as possible, the ability to reproduce, alter, counterfeit, forge, or duplicate any license without ready detection. All licenses shall bear the licensee’s Social Security number, if the licensee has one, and if not, a notarized affidavit must be signed by the licensee stating that the licensee does not possess a Social Security number, or, if applicable, a certified statement must be submitted as provided in subsection 4 of this section. The license shall also bear the expiration date of the license, the classification of the license, the name, date of birth, residence address including the county of residence or a code number corresponding to such county established by the department, and brief description and colored photograph or digitized image of the licensee, and a facsimile of the signature of the licensee. The director shall provide by administrative rule the procedure and format for a licensee to indicate on the back of the license together with the designation for an anatomical gift as provided in section 194.240 the name and address of the person designated pursuant to sections 404.800 to 404.865 as the licensee’s attorney in fact for the purposes of a durable power of attorney for health care decisions. No license shall be valid until it has been so signed by the licensee. If any portion of the license is prepared by a private firm, any contract with such firm shall be made in accordance with the competitive purchasing procedures as established by the state director of the division of purchasing. For all licenses issued or renewed after March 1, 1992, the applicant’s Social Security number shall serve as the applicant’s license number. Where the licensee has no Social Security number, or where the licensee is issued a license without a Social Security number in accordance with subsection 4 of this section, the director shall issue a license number for the licensee and such number shall also include an indicator showing that the number is not a Social Security number.

2. All film involved in the production of photographs for licenses shall become the property of the department of revenue.

3. The license issued shall be carried at all times by the holder thereof while driving a motor vehicle, and shall be displayed upon demand of any officer of the highway patrol, or any police officer or peace officer, or any other duly authorized person, for inspection when demand is made therefor.

Failure of any operator of a motor vehicle to exhibit his or her license to any duly authorized officer shall be presumptive evidence that such person is not a duly licensed operator.

4. The director of revenue shall issue a commercial or noncommercial driver’s license without a Social Security number to an applicant therefor, who is otherwise qualified to be licensed, upon presentation to the director of a certified statement that the applicant objects to the display of the Social Security number on the license. The director shall assign an identification number, that is not based on a Social Security number, to the applicant which shall be displayed on the license in lieu of the Social Security number.

5. The director of revenue shall not issue a license without a facial photograph or digital image of the license applicant, except as provided pursuant to subsection 8 of this section. A photograph or digital image of the applicant's full facial features shall be taken in a manner prescribed by the director. No photograph or digital image will be taken wearing anything which cloaks the facial features of the individual.

6. The department of revenue may issue a temporary license or a full license without the photograph or with the last photograph or digital image in the department's records to members of the Armed Forces, except that where such temporary license is issued it shall be valid only until the applicant shall have had time to appear and have his or her picture taken and a license with his or her photograph issued.

7. The department of revenue shall issue upon request a nondriver's license card containing essentially the same information and photograph or digital image, except as provided pursuant to subsection 8 of this section, as the driver's license upon payment of six dollars. All nondriver's licenses shall expire on the applicant's birthday in the sixth year after issuance. A person who has passed his or her seventieth birthday shall upon application be issued a nonexpiring nondriver's license card. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a nondriver's license containing a concealed carry endorsement shall expire three years from the date the certificate of qualification was issued pursuant to section 571.101 as section 571.101 existed prior to August 28, 2013. The fee for nondriver's licenses issued for a period exceeding three years is six dollars or three dollars for nondriver's licenses issued for a period of three years or less. The nondriver's license card shall be used for identification purposes only and shall not be valid as a license.

8. If otherwise eligible, an applicant may receive a driver's license or nondriver's license without a photograph or digital image of the applicant's full facial features except that such applicant's photograph or digital image shall be taken and maintained by the director and not printed on such license.

In order to qualify for a license without a photograph or digital image pursuant to this section the applicant must:

(1) Present a form provided by the department of revenue requesting the applicant's photograph be omitted from the license or nondriver's license due to religious affiliations. The form shall be signed by the applicant and another member of the religious tenant verifying the photograph or digital image exemption on the license or nondriver's license is required as part of their religious affiliation. The required signatures on the prescribed form shall be properly notarized;

(2) Provide satisfactory proof to the director that the applicant has been a [U.S.] United States citizen for at least five years and a resident of this state for at least one year, except that an applicant moving to this state possessing a valid driver's license from another state without a photograph shall be exempt from the one-year state residency requirement. The director may establish rules necessary to determine satisfactory proof of citizenship and residency pursuant to this section;

(3) Applications for a driver's license or nondriver's license without a photograph or digital image must be made in person at a license office determined by the director. The director is authorized to limit the number of offices that may issue a driver's or nondriver's license without a photograph or digital image pursuant to this section.

9. The department of revenue shall make available, at one or more locations within the state, an opportunity for individuals to have their full facial photograph taken by an employee of the department of revenue, or their designee, who is of the same sex as the individual being photographed, in a segregated location.

10. Beginning July 1, 2005, the director shall not issue a driver's license or a nondriver's license for a period that exceeds an applicant's lawful presence in the United States. The director may, by rule or regulation, establish procedures to verify the lawful presence of the applicant and establish the duration of any driver's license or nondriver's license issued under this section.

11. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this chapter shall become effective unless it is promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536.”; and

Further amend said bill, page 6, section 302.189, line 15 of said page, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

“571.030. 1. A person commits the crime of unlawful use of weapons if he or she knowingly:

WHEREAS, raising and promoting awareness and information about the need for organ and tissue donors and encouraging people to become an organ donor and tissue donor is vitally important to increase the number of lives saved and changed for the better through organ donation; and

WHEREAS, every person must be advised of their option to donate an organ. By focusing on education and donor awareness, every person can be informed on the need for organ donors; and

WHEREAS, the following excerpt is from “To Remember Me - I Will Live Forever”, written by American Poet Robert Noel Test (1926 - 1994):

“...And don’t call this my deathbed. Let it be called the bed of life, and let my body be taken from it to help others lead fuller lives.

Give my sight to the man who has never seen a sunrise, a baby’s face or love in the eyes of a woman.

Give my heart to a person whose own heart has caused nothing but endless days of pain.

Give my blood to the teenager who was pulled from the wreckage of his car, so that he might live to see his grandchildren play.

Give my kidneys to the one who depends on a machine to exist from week to week.

Take my bones, every muscle, every fiber and nerve in my body and find a way to make a crippled child walk. Explore every corner of my brain.

Take my cells, if necessary, and let them grow so that, someday a speechless boy will shout at the crack of a bat and a deaf girl will hear the sound of rain against her window...”; and

WHEREAS, public awareness of the great need for organ donation is the key to increasing the number of organ donors and thereby saving lives and improving the quality of life for recipients of organ donation:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 25

WHEREAS, the Interim Committee on Local Governance of the Missouri House of Representatives (the Committee) submitted a report to the Speaker of the House dated December 31, 2012; and

WHEREAS, this report contained a synopsis of the issues presented to the Committee, as well as its recommendations; and

WHEREAS, the Committee reported on the governance and taxation issues in the St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA); and

WHEREAS, the report details the changes in the laws that make the St. Louis area unique; and

WHEREAS, no other municipality or county in Missouri is governed by the sales tax and governance provisions unique to St. Louis

County and its municipalities, so that the other counties in Missouri focus on county responsibilities, while the municipalities focus on municipal duties; and

WHEREAS, the Committee recognized that any type of change to the St. Louis MSA's sales tax and governance system is part of a larger overall discussion of issues which should be undertaken, such as merging or consolidating political subdivisions which offer duplicative or inefficient services, and the use of tax increment financing by municipalities to attract retail establishments from neighboring municipalities, as well as the issues surrounding the sales tax distribution system and the financial ramifications to local government of any changes; and

WHEREAS, the Committee stated its belief that these issues are best resolved by local stakeholders, but that where the local stakeholders fail to resolve these issues, the state would be forced to offer solutions through statute or referendum during the 2014 legislative session; and

WHEREAS, the Committee recommends that an independent study be commissioned to research the larger overall discussion of issues which should be undertaken in the St. Louis MSA, such as merging or consolidating political subdivisions which offer duplicative or inefficient services, and the use of tax increment financing by municipalities to attract retail establishments from neighboring municipalities, as well as the issues surrounding the sales tax distribution system and the financial ramifications to local government of any changes.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House Ninety-Seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby establish the Joint Interim Committee on St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area Governance and Taxation (Joint Committee); and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee shall be composed of four majority party members to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, two minority party members to be appointed by the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, four majority party members to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, and two minority party members to be appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee shall interview and select an appropriate entity to conduct the independent study called for in the report and make recommendations to secure the appropriate commitments to fund the independent study at no direct cost to the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee shall receive the independent study and, upon receipt, review the study as well as conduct a comprehensive analysis of the taxation and governance issues facing the St. Louis MSA, and make recommendations on proposed legislation for the 2014 legislative session; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if this Joint Committee is not in receipt of an independent study by September 1, 2013, it shall proceed on its own and perform its own investigation and analysis of the circumstances so that this Joint Committee shall be able to make its recommendation for proposed legislative changes no later than December 31, 2013; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee is authorized to hold hearing as it deems advisable and may solicit any input or information necessary to fulfill its obligations, including but not limited to any agency of the state or any political subdivision of the state which the committee may find helpful; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the staffs of House Research, Senate Research, and the Joint Committee on Legislative Research shall provide such legal, research, clerical, technical, and bill drafting services as the Joint Committee may require in the performance of its duties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee, its members, and any staff assigned to the Joint Committee shall receive reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Joint Committee or any subcommittee thereof; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee will report its recommendations and findings to the Missouri General Assembly by December 21, 2013; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Joint Committee is authorized to function during the interim between the First Regular Session of the 97th General Assembly through the end of the Second Regular Session of the 97th General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tem of the Senate.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and adopted HCR 28.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

WHEREAS, the Army 2020 Force Structure Realignment Programmatic Environmental Assessment (PEA) includes a plan to reduce the Army's end strength and realign its forces over the coming years which will affect 21 Army installations across the country, including Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, these Army reductions and realignments that may occur from Fiscal Year 2013-2020 will result in significant impacts to a variety of economic measures in communities neighboring these 21 installations; and

WHEREAS, the PEA specifically references the impact of force structure reductions at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, including reduction in employment, income, regional population, and sales; and

WHEREAS, Fort Leonard Wood currently has a permanent workforce of approximately 9,500 soldiers and Army civilians, not including trainees, students, family members, other service members, contractors, and non-full time employees; and

WHEREAS, the Programmatic Environmental Assessment proposes a loss of up to 3,900 of these soldiers and Army civilians, which is a loss of 41% of permanent staff and an added loss of 450 direct and 504 indirect jobs across the community; and

WHEREAS, the economic impact across the three-county region, as defined in the study, would be devastating. The study shows a loss of 8% in annual sales, 6.75% in tax revenue, 11.21% in employment, and 7.5% in population; and

WHEREAS, as the study notes, only a portion of the potential loss is considered in the study. The study states that there may also be a loss of 10% of training load and an unknown percentage of other services not factored into the analysis. With this additional loss, the overall loss would be catastrophic for the region; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the impact would be felt in Pulaski County, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the study projects a loss of almost 3,700 K-12 school students in the region, with a majority of the loss in the Waynesville School District that provides K-12 schools on Fort Leonard Wood and the immediate vicinity; and

WHEREAS, Waynesville School District has approximately 6,000 students enrolled today. Assuming 85% of the loss in that school district, the district would realize a 52% loss of its current enrollment; and

WHEREAS, to continue to provide the highest level of quality education, the Waynesville School District has recently invested in several new facilities, a high school, elementary school, and career center. These facilities are heavily dependent on continuing federal impact aid for construction bond funding. Based on the projected level of impact aid loss, the district would be placed in serious financial jeopardy; and

WHEREAS, the impact of these losses would be felt not only in the communities surrounding Fort Leonard Wood, but the entire State of Missouri. The full impact of the state if the troop reduction goes forward has yet to be determined, but it is certain it would be significant, because Fort Leonard Wood is one of the largest employers in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS: Fort Leonard Wood is an important asset for the Army and the Department of Defense through pioneering the concepts of multiple schools at one location, and multi-service training and education; and

WHEREAS, the Army has made a multi-billion dollar investment in new infrastructure at the installation and its operating costs are among the lowest in the country. Fort Leonard Wood should be considered for additional mission growths, not reductions; and

WHEREAS, final decisions will be made over the next several years. The projected $233 million in economic loss and 6,441 jobs affected as a result of the proposed Army reductions will have a significant impact to the State of Missouri and catastrophic to the region:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-seventh General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby strongly urge the Department of Defense to reconsider the reduction and realignment of Army forces at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, and continue full operation at this installation, which has one of the lowest installation operating costs in the county; and carrying ten persons or less and used for the transportation of persons; except that, the term “passenger car” shall not include motorcycles, motorized bicycles, motor tricycles, and trucks with a licensed gross weight of twelve thousand pounds or more.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Secretary of the United States Department of Defense, the United States Army Environment Command, and each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

2. Each driver, except persons employed by the United States Postal Service while performing duties for that federal agency which require the operator to service postal boxes from their vehicles, or which require frequent entry into and exit from their vehicles, and front seat passenger of a passenger car manufactured after January 1, 1968, operated on a street or highway in this state, and persons less than eighteen years of age operating or riding in a truck, as defined in section 301.010, on a street or highway of this state shall wear a properly adjusted and fastened safety belt that meets federal National Highway, Transportation and Safety Act requirements. No person shall be stopped, inspected, or detained solely to determine compliance with this subsection. The provisions of this section and section 307.179 shall not be applicable to persons who have a medical reason for failing to have a seat belt fastened about their body, nor shall the provisions of this section be applicable to persons while operating or riding a motor vehicle being used in agricultural work-related activities. Failure to wear a safety belt in violation of this section may be admitted to mitigate damages, but only under the following circumstances:

(1) Parties seeking to introduce evidence of the failure to wear a safety belt in violation of this section must first introduce expert evidence proving that a failure to wear a safety belt contributed to the injuries claimed by plaintiff;

(2) If the evidence supports such a finding, the trier of fact may find that the plaintiff’s failure to wear a safety belt in violation of this section contributed to the plaintiff’s claimed injuries, and may reduce the amount of the plaintiff’s recovery by an amount not to exceed one percent of the damages awarded after any reductions for comparative negligence.

5. Except as otherwise provided for in section 307.179, each person who violates the provisions of subsection 2 of this section is guilty of an infraction for which a fine not to exceed [ten] fifty dollars may be imposed. All other provisions of law and court rules to the contrary notwithstanding, no court costs shall be imposed on any person due to a violation of this section. In no case shall points be assessed against any person, pursuant to section 302.302, for a violation of this section.

The commission shall evaluate the effectiveness of this section and shall include a report of its findings in the annual evaluation report on its highway safety plan that it submits to NHTSA and FHWA pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 402.

7. If there are more persons than there are seat belts in the enclosed area of a motor vehicle, then the passengers who are unable to wear seat belts shall sit in the area behind the front seat of the motor vehicle

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 35

WHEREAS, Senate Bill 749 was passed by the Ninety-sixth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, to protect our state from provisions of federal law which would essentially force religious institutions to provide insurance coverage for procedures and medications which violate their core beliefs; and

WHEREAS, on July 12, 2012, the Honorable Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon, Governor of the state of Missouri, vetoed Senate Bill 749; and

WHEREAS, on September 12, 2012, the General Assembly voted to override the Governor's veto of Senate Bill 749 in order to protect the First Amendment rights of Missouri's citizens; and

WHEREAS, on March 18, 2013, a United States District Judge, the Honorable Audrey Fleissig, ruled that Senate Bill 749 was unconstitutional and issued a temporary restraining order preventing the state from enforcing statutory provisions contained in the bill; and

FIFTY-SECOND DAY—THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 2013

Gracious God, as we finish a full week and travel to loved ones, be with us so we arrive safely home. Help us to be mindful that our minds and bodies do need rest so that we may be capable to lead healthy and full lives; with sharp minds and energized bodies, rested in You so we can hear Your voice and be obedient. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

JEFFERSON CITY

April 19, 2013

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE
97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 32.087, 144.020, 144.021, 144.069, 144.071, 144.440, 144.450, 144.455, 144.525, 144.610, 144.613, and 144.615, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof thirteen new sections relating to taxes on motor vehicle sales, with an emergency clause.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 is intended to address the Missouri Supreme Court’s 2012 decision in Street v. Director of Revenue. In that case, the Supreme Court held that a local sales tax could not be collected on the out-of-state purchase of motor vehicles, boats, trailers and outboard motors (“vehicles”). Instead, the Court found that such transactions were, under existing law, subject to a local use tax.

The Street decision does not affect cities and counties where voters have approved a local use tax; however, jurisdictions without a local use tax have been unable to collect taxes on out-of-state vehicle purchases as well as non-retail (“private”) vehicle transactions. As a result, associated revenues have since declined in those jurisdictions and auto dealers – particularly those situated near our borders – have experienced a decline in sales because more customers are buying from out-of-state dealers in order to avoid local taxes.

The General Assembly first attempted to address the Street decision last session with passage of Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1329. I vetoed that legislation for two fundamental reasons: (1) it circumvented the authority of local voters to approve matters concerning local taxation; and (2) it imposed the tax retroactively on already completed transactions. House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 again seeks to restore the collection of local tax revenues to pre-Street amounts and to level the playing field for Missouri auto dealers. Both of these goals are understandable. And, consistent with my veto message from last year, House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 would not retroactively tax transactions and, appropriately, does mandate a vote in jurisdictions that have not previously passed a local use tax.

Mandated Local Referendum Too Narrow

Unfortunately, the mandated local vote, as written in House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182, does not cover the full breadth of the expanded local sales tax. Rather, the referendum only permits voters in jurisdictions without a local use tax to repeal the sales tax on vehicles “purchased from vendors not located in Missouri”; it would not enable voters to repeal the local sales tax on non-retail (“private”) sales.

Regardless of whether this oversight was intentional or inadvertent, it is significant. In 2012, there were 112,000 vehicles purchased from out-of-state dealers. During that same time, non-retail sales exceeded that number by nearly six times (approx. 650,000). Therefore, while requiring a referendum properly recognizes that local voters should approve matters concerning local taxation, the mandated referendum would not apply to 85% of the transactions that would become subject to the local sales tax as the result of House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182.

Voter participation in determining local tax policy was central to my prior veto of Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1329 and is again the focus of my action today. If a local tax is going to be imposed – even one that was previously collected prior to the Street decision – voter involvement must be our guiding principle. Denying the voters the ability to be heard on the entire scope of this tax is unacceptable and requires my disapproval.

Jeopardizes Local Sales Tax Revenues

As previously acknowledged, the partial impetus behind House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 was to put local taxing jurisdictions in the position they were in prior to the Street decision. And the General Assembly was correct to provide voters in these jurisdictions with the opportunity to repeal this extension of the local sales tax. However, the General Assembly, perhaps unwittingly, used language that places counties and municipalities in jeopardy of losing even greater sales tax revenue. The perilous language, contained in the proposed Sec. 32.087.5(5), RSMo, would direct the governing body of a local taxing jurisdiction – that imposes a local sales tax on vehicle sales – to place a proposal on the ballot to repeal the application of the “local sales tax to such titling” if it receives a petition calling for such a proposal.

This language is problematic. Because all vehicle sales would be taxed upon titling under House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182, local voters could not repeal the local sales tax on out-of-state and non-retail vehicle transactions under the proposed Sec. 32.087.5(5), RSMo, without repealing the local sales tax on all vehicle transactions, including vehicles purchased in-state at retail.

Again, inadvertent or not, this would result in a loss of local revenue in an amount that would dwarf the economic impact caused by the Street decision, and would significantly hamper the ability of counties and cities to fund and perform critical functions and services. What’s more, in the event the titling tax is repealed by a majority of voters, there would be no mechanism to allow voters to reinstate the tax on all or even a portion of vehicle transactions.

Conclusion

It is noted that House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182 is an effort to address both the Street decision’s economic impact on Missouri car dealers and local taxing jurisdictions as well as the principled objections concerning voter approval and retroactivity that I laid out in my veto message of Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1329. However, it falls short in both regards. The mandated referendum extends voters the opportunity to disapprove only a portion of the expanded local sales tax, and the repeal language put forth in Sec. 32.087.5(5) fails to parse transactions already covered by the local sales tax law from those that would be imposed by House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182, haphazardly placing counties and cities at risk of losing an even greater amount of local revenue. Because these are significant concerns, I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 182.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

Gracious God, we are truly glad and see ourselves blessed that these days are so wonderful, in spite of the abundance of rain. We rejoice that the beauty of each day doesn’t escape our notice and we embrace this time of year for the work we can accomplish and yet be refreshed in it. As we spend time in this chamber, let us still be aware of Your creation and do all we can so others less fortunate may also have reason to rejoice. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 315, Page 35, Section 338.220, Line 25 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“354.535. 1. If a pharmacy, operated by or contracted with by a health maintenance organization, is closed or is unable to provide health care services to an enrollee in an emergency, a pharmacist may take an assignment of such enrollee’s right to reimbursement, if the policy or contract provides for such reimbursement, for those goods or services provided to an enrollee of a health maintenance organization. No health maintenance organization shall refuse to pay the pharmacist any payment due the enrollee under the terms of the policy or contract.

2. No health maintenance organization, conducting business in the state of Missouri, shall contract with a pharmacy, pharmacy distributor or wholesale drug distributor, nonresident or otherwise, unless such pharmacy or distributor has been granted a permit or license from the Missouri board of pharmacy to operate in this state.

3. Every health maintenance organization shall apply the same coinsurance, co-payment and deductible factors to all drug prescriptions filled by a pharmacy provider who participates in the health maintenance organization’s network if the provider meets the contract’s explicit product cost determination. If any such contract is rejected by any pharmacy provider, the health maintenance organization may offer other contracts necessary to comply with any network adequacy provisions of this act. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the health maintenance organization from applying different coinsurance, co-payment and deductible factors between generic and brand name drugs.

4. If the co-payment applied by a health maintenance organization exceeds the usual and customary retail price of the prescription drug, enrollees shall only be required to pay the usual and customary retail price of the prescription drug, and no further charge to the enrollee or plan sponsor shall be incurred on such prescription.

5. Health maintenance organizations shall not set a limit on the quantity of drugs which an enrollee may obtain at any one time with a prescription, unless such limit is applied uniformly to all pharmacy providers in the health maintenance organization’s network.

[5.] 6. Health maintenance organizations shall not insist or mandate any physician or other licensed health care practitioner to change an enrollee’s maintenance drug unless the provider and enrollee agree to such change. For the purposes of this provision, a maintenance drug shall mean a drug prescribed by a practitioner who is licensed to prescribe drugs, used to treat a medical condition for a period greater than thirty days. Violations of this provision shall be subject to the penalties provided in section 354.444. Notwithstanding other provisions of law to the contrary, health maintenance organizations that change an enrollee’s maintenance drug without the consent of the provider and enrollee shall be liable for any damages resulting from such change. Nothing in this subsection, however, shall apply to the dispensing of generically equivalent products for prescribed brand name maintenance drugs as set forth in section 338.056.

376.387. If the co-payment for prescription drugs applied by a health insurer or health carrier, as defined in section 376.1350, exceeds the usual and customary retail price of the prescription drug, enrollees shall only be required to pay the usual and customary retail price of the prescription drug, and no further charge to the enrollee or plan sponsor shall be incurred on such prescription.”; and

2. Upon filing with the city clerk of a resolution adopted by no less than two-thirds of the incumbent members of the board of trustees to sell, lease, or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of the hospital property, both real and personal, for reasons specified in the resolution, the clerk shall present the resolution to the city council. If a majority of the incumbent members of the city council determine that sale, lease, or other transfer of the hospital property is desirable, the city council shall submit to the voters of the city the question in substantially the following form:

3. Upon passage of such question by the voters, the board of trustees shall sell and dispose of such property, or lease or transfer such property, in the manner proposed by the board of trustees. The deed of the board of trustees, duly authorized by the board of trustees and duly acknowledged and recorded, shall be sufficient to convey to the purchaser all the rights, title, interest, and estate in the hospital property.

4. No sale, lease, or other transfer of such hospital property shall be authorized or effective unless such transaction provides sufficient proceeds to be available to be applied to the payment of all interest and principal of any outstanding valid indebtedness incurred for purchase of the site or construction of the hospital, or for any repairs, alterations, improvements, or additions thereto, or for operation of the hospital.

5. Assets donated to the hospital pursuant to section 96.210 shall be used to provide health care services in the city and in the geographic region previously served by the hospital, except as otherwise prescribed by the terms of the deed, gift, devise, or bequest.

Section B. Because of the need to ensure local hospitals can continue the purpose of providing the best care and treatment of the sick, disabled, and infirm persons as decided on by the people in the affected community, the enactment of section 96.229 of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the enactment of section 96.229 of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage its passage and approval.”; and

2. The public administrator in all counties, in the performance of the duties required by chapters 473, 474, and 475, is a public officer. The duties specified by section 475.120 are discretionary. Further amend said bill, page 2, section 78.090, line 23 by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“190.335. 1. In lieu of the tax levy authorized under section 190.305 for emergency telephone services, the county commission of any county may impose a county sales tax for the provision of central dispatching of fire protection, including law enforcement agencies, emergency ambulance service or any other

2. Such county commission may, by a majority vote of its members, submit to the voters of the county, at a public election, a proposal to authorize the county commission to impose a tax under the provisions of this section. 3. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the county of (insert name of county) impose a county sales tax of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of providing central dispatching of fire protection, emergency ambulance service, including emergency telephone services, and other emergency services?

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the ordinance shall be in effect as provided herein. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting are opposed to the proposal, then the county commission shall have no power to impose the tax authorized by this section unless and until the county commission shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the county commission to impose the tax under the provisions of this section, and such proposal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

4. The sales tax may be imposed at a rate not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail of all tangible personal property or taxable services at retail within any county adopting such tax, if such property and services are subject to taxation by the state of Missouri under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525. The sales tax shall not be collected prior to thirty-six months before operation of the central dispatching of emergency services.

5. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087 shall apply to the tax imposed under this section.

Amounts collected in excess of that necessary within a given year shall be carried forward to subsequent years. The board shall make its determination of such tax rate each year no later than September first and shall fix the new rate which shall be collected as provided in this act. Immediately upon making its determination and fixing the rate, the board shall publish in its minutes the new rate, and it shall notify every retailer by mail of the new rate.

Beginning with the general election in 1994, all board members shall be elected according to this section and other applicable laws of this state. At the time of the appointment of the initial members of the board, the commission shall relinquish and no longer exercise the duties prescribed in this chapter with regard to the provision of emergency services and such duties shall be exercised by the board.

This initial board shall serve until its successor board is duly elected and installed in office. The commission shall ensure geographic representation of the county by appointing no more than four members from each district of the county commission.

10. Beginning in 1994, three members shall be elected from each district of the county commission and one member shall be elected at large, such member to be the chairman of the board. Of those first elected, four members from districts of the county commission shall be elected for terms of two years and two members from districts of the county commission and the member at large shall be elected for terms of four years. In 1996, and thereafter, all terms of office shall be four years. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if there is no candidate for an open position on the board, then no election shall be held for that position and it shall be considered vacant, to be filled pursuant to the provisions of section 190.339, and, if there is only one candidate for each open position, no election shall be held and the candidate or candidates shall assume office at the same time and in the same manner as if elected.

11. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 8 to 10 of this section to the contrary, in any county of the first classification with more than two hundred forty thousand three hundred but fewer than two hundred forty thousand four hundred inhabitants, any emergency telephone service 911 board appointed by the county under section 190.309 which is in existence on the date the voters approve a sales tax under this section shall continue to exist and shall have the powers set forth under section 190.339.

chapter, and the commission shall relinquish all powers and duties relating to the provision of emergency services under this chapter to the board.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 133, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“67.1790. 1. The governing body of any county of the first classification with more than two hundred sixty thousand but fewer than three hundred thousand inhabitants, or any city within such county, may impose by order or ordinance a sales tax on all retail sales made within the county or city that are subject to sales tax under chapter 144 for the purpose of funding early childhood education programs in the county or city. The tax shall not exceed one quarter of one percent and shall be imposed solely for the purpose of funding early childhood education programs in the county or city. The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to all other sales taxes imposed by law and shall be stated separately from all other charges and taxes. The order or ordinance imposing a sales tax under this section shall not become effective unless the governing body of the county or city submits to the voters residing within the county or city, at a general election, a proposal to authorize the governing body of the county or city to impose a tax under this section.

2. The question of whether the tax authorized by this section shall be imposed shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

OFFICIAL BALLOT

Shall (name of county/city) impose a (county-wide/city-wide) sales tax at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of funding early childhood education in the county or city?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an “X” in the box opposite “YES”. If you are opposed to the question, place an “X” in the box opposite “NO”.

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, the order or ordinance shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter after the director of revenue receives notice of adoption of the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the question, the county or city may not impose the sales tax authorized under this section unless and until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

3. On or after the effective date of any tax authorized under this section, the county or city which imposed the tax shall enter into an agreement with the director of the department of revenue for the purpose of collecting the tax authorized in this section. On or after the effective date of the tax the director of revenue shall be responsible for the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and sections 32.085 and 32.087 shall apply. All revenue collected under this section by the director of the department of revenue on behalf of any county or city, except for one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created and shall be known as the "Early Childhood Education Sales Tax Trust Fund", and shall be used solely for the designated purposes. Moneys in the fund shall not be deemed to be state funds, and shall not be commingled with any funds of the state. The director may make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the county or city for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such county or city. Any funds in the special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures shall be invested in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

4. In order to permit sellers required to collect and report the sales tax to collect the amount required to be reported and remitted, but not to change the requirements of reporting or remitting the tax, or to serve as a levy of the tax, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the governing body of the county or city may authorize the use of a bracket system similar to that authorized in section 144.285, and notwithstanding the provisions of that section, this new bracket system shall be used where this tax is imposed and shall apply to all taxable transactions. Beginning with the effective date of the tax, every retailer in the county or city shall add the sales tax to the sale price, and this tax shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. For purposes of this section, all retail sales shall be deemed to be consummated at the place of business of the retailer.

5. All applicable provisions in sections 144.010 to 144.525 governing the state sales tax, and section 32.057, the uniform confidentiality provision, shall apply to the collection of the tax, and all exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, and persons under sections 144.010 to 144.525 are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax. The same sales tax permit, exemption certificate, and retail certificate required by sections 144.010 to 144.525 for the administration and collection of the state sales tax shall satisfy the requirements of this section, and no additional permit or exemption certificate or retail certificate shall be required; except that, the director of revenue may prescribe a form of exemption certificate for an exemption from the tax. All discounts allowed the retailer under the state sales tax for the collection of and for payment of taxes are hereby allowed and made applicable to the tax. The penalties for violations provided in section 32.057 and sections 144.010 to 144.525 are hereby made applicable to violations of this section. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid under this section, or in the event a determination has been made against the person for taxes and penalty under this section, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of the delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in sections 144.010 to 144.525.

6. The governing body of any county or city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section may submit the question of repeal of the tax to the voters at a general election. The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall (insert the name of the county or city) repeal the sales tax imposed at a rate of (insert rate of percent) percent for the purpose of funding early childhood education in the county or city?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an “X” in the box opposite “NO”.

If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of repeal, that repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

7. Whenever the governing body of any county or city that has adopted the sales tax authorized in this section receives a petition, signed by ten percent of the registered voters of the county or city voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an election to repeal the sales tax imposed under this section, the governing body shall submit to the voters of the county or city a proposal to repeal the tax. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then the sales tax authorized in this section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

8. If the tax is repealed or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall continue to be used solely for the designated purposes, and the county or city shall notify the director of the department of revenue of the action at least thirty days before the effective date of the repeal and the director may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such county or city, the director shall remit the balance in the account to the county or city and close the account of that county or city. The director shall notify each county or city of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the county or city.

9. The governing body of each county or city imposing the tax authorized under this section shall select an existing community task force to administer the revenue from the tax received by the county or city. Such revenue shall be expended only upon approval of an existing community task force selected by the governing body of the county or city to administer the funds and only in accordance with a budget approved by the county or city governing body.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

On motion of Senator Keaveny, SB 133, with SCS and SA 1 (pending), was placed on the Informal Calendar.

President Pro Tem Dempsey assumed the Chair.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 3

Amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 26, 11 & 31, Page 104, Section 143.151, Line 13, by inserting after all of said Section and Line the following:

“143.451. 1. Missouri taxable income of a corporation shall include all income derived from sources within this state.

2. A corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income from sources within this state, including that from the transaction of business in this state and that from the transaction of business partly done in this state and partly done in another state or states. However:

(1) Where income results from a transaction partially in this state and partially in another state or states, and income and deductions of the portion in the state cannot be segregated, then such portions of income and deductions shall be allocated in this state and the other state or states as will distribute to this state a portion based upon the portion of the transaction in this state and the portion in such other state or states.

(2) The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources in this state in the following manner, or the manner set forth in subdivision (3) of this subsection:

(a) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided, excluding therefrom the figures for the operation of any bridge connecting this state with another state.

(b) The amount of sales which are transactions wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of sales which are transactions partly within this state and partly without this state, and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total sales or in cases where sales do not express the volume of business, the amount of business transacted wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of business transacted partly in this state and partly outside this state and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total amount of business transacted, and the net income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained, to determine the proportion of income to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income. The investment or reinvestment of its own funds, or sale of any such investment or reinvestment, shall not be considered as sales or other business transacted for the determination of said fraction.

[(3)] (c) For the purposes of this [section] subdivision, a transaction involving the sale of tangible property is:

[(a)] a. “Wholly in this state” if both the seller’s shipping point and the purchaser’s destination point are in this state;

[(b)] b. “Partly within this state and partly without this state” if the seller’s shipping point is in this state and the purchaser’s destination point is outside this state, or the seller’s shipping point is outside this state and the purchaser’s destination point is in this state;

[(c)] c. Not “wholly in this state” or not “partly within this state and partly without this state” only if both the seller’s shipping point and the purchaser’s destination point are outside this state[.];

(d) For purposes of this subdivision:

a. The purchaser’s destination point shall be determined without regard to the FOB point or other conditions of the sale[.]; and

b. The seller’s shipping point is determined without regard to the location of the seller’s principle office or place of business.

(3) The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources in this state in the following manner:

(a) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided, excluding therefrom the figures for the operation of any bridge connecting this state with another state;

(b) The amount of sales which are transactions in this state shall be divided by the total sales, and the net income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained, to determine the proportion of income to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income. The investment or reinvestment of its own funds, or sale of any such investment or reinvestment, shall not be considered as sales or other business transacted for the determination of said fraction;

(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, a transaction involving the sale of tangible property is:

a. “In this state” if the purchaser’s destination point is in this state;

b. Not “in this state” if the purchaser’s destination point is outside this state;

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the purchaser’s destination point shall be determined without regard to the FOB point or other conditions of the sale and shall not be in this state if the purchaser received the tangible personal property from the seller in this state for delivery to the purchaser’s location outside this state.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the following words shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the following meaning:

(a) “Administration services” include, but are not limited to, clerical, fund or shareholder accounting, participant record keeping, transfer agency, bookkeeping, data processing, custodial, internal auditing, legal and tax services performed for an investment company;

(b) “Affiliate”, the meaning as set forth in 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-2(a)(3)(C), as may be amended from time to time;

(c) “Distribution services” include, but are not limited to, the services of advertising, servicing, marketing, underwriting or selling shares of an investment company, but, in the case of advertising, servicing or marketing shares, only where such service is performed by a person who is, or in the case of a closed end company, was, either engaged in the services of underwriting or selling investment company shares or affiliated with a person that is engaged in the service of underwriting or selling investment company shares. In the case of an open end company, such service of underwriting or selling shares must be performed pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-15(b), as from time to time amended;

(d) “Investment company”, any person registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended from time to time, (the act) or a company which would be required to register as an investment company under the act except that such person is exempt to such registration pursuant to Section 80a-3(c)(1) of the act;

(e) “Investment funds service corporation” includes any corporation or S corporation doing business in the state which derives more than fifty percent of its gross income in the ordinary course of business from the provision directly or indirectly of management, distribution or administration services to or on behalf of an investment company or from trustees, sponsors and participants of employee benefit plans which have accounts in an investment company. An investment funds service corporation shall include any corporation or S corporation providing management services as an investment advisory firm registered under Section 203 of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, as amended from time to time, regardless of the percentage of gross revenues consisting of fees from management services provided to or on behalf of an investment company;

(f) “Management services” include but are not limited to, the rendering of investment advice directly or indirectly to an investment company making determinations as to when sales and purchases of securities are to be made on behalf of the investment company, or the selling or purchasing of securities constituting assets of an investment company, and related activities, but only where such activity or activities are performed:

a. Pursuant to a contract with the investment company entered into pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-15(a), as from time to time amended;

b. For a person that has entered into such contract with the investment company; or

c. For a person that is affiliated with a person that has entered into such contract with an investment company;

(g) “Qualifying sales”, gross income derived from the provision directly or indirectly of management, distribution or administration services to or on behalf of an investment company or from trustees, sponsors and participants of employee benefit plans which have accounts in an investment company. For purposes of this section, gross income is defined as that amount of income earned from qualifying sources without deduction of expenses related to the generation of such income;

(h) “Residence”, presumptively the fund shareholder’s mailing address on the records of the investment company. If, however, the investment company or the investment funds service corporation has actual knowledge that the fund shareholder’s primary residence or principal place of business is different than the fund shareholder’s mailing address such presumption shall not control. To the extent an investment funds service corporation does not have access to the records of the investment company, the investment funds service corporation may employ reasonable methods to determine the investment company fund shareholder’s residence.

(5) Notwithstanding other provisions of law to the contrary, qualifying sales of an investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, shall be considered wholly in this state only to the extent that the fund shareholders of the investment companies, to which the investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, provide services, are resided in this state. Wholly in this state qualifying sales of an investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, shall be determined as follows:

(a) By multiplying the investment funds service corporation’s total dollar amount of qualifying sales from services provided to each investment company by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company's fund shareholders resided in this state at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year that ends with or within the investment funds service corporation's taxable year, and the denominator of which shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company's fund shareholders everywhere at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company's taxable year that ends with or within the investment funds service corporation's taxable year;

(b) A separate computation shall be made to determine the wholly in this state qualifying sales from each investment company. The qualifying sales for each investment company shall be multiplied by the respective percentage of each fund, as calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision. The product of this equation shall result in the wholly in this state qualifying sales. The qualifying sales for each investment company which are not wholly in this state will be considered wholly without this state;

(c) To the extent an investment funds service corporation has sales which are not qualifying sales, those nonqualified sales shall be apportioned to this state based on the methodology utilized by the investment funds service corporation without regard to this subdivision.

3. Any corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 organized in this state or granted a permit to operate in this state for the transportation or care of passengers shall report its gross earnings within the state on intrastate business and shall also report its gross earnings on all interstate business done in this state which report shall be subject to inquiry for the purpose of determining the amount of income to be included in Missouri taxable income. The previous sentence shall not apply to a railroad.

4. A corporation described in subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources in this state and all income from each transportation service wholly within this state, from each service where the only lines of such corporation used are those in this state, and such proportion of revenue from each service where the facilities of such corporation in this state and in another state or states are used, as the mileage used over the lines of such corporation in the state shall bear to the total mileage used over the lines of such corporation. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:
